

Fashion

Just as an ever developing sense of the appropriate and "becoming" influences fashion in dress, so too must style in glasses conform to the changing requirements of good taste.

Variety of approved styles, and expert, interested assistance, attract to the Almer Coe stores discriminating patronage, seeking authoritative advice on types and styles.

*Always the best in quality
but never higher in price*

ALMER COE & COMPANY PRESCRIPTION OPTICIANS

1645 Orrington Ave., Evanston

18 So. La Salle St.

Highland Park Local News

The Rodney Starkweather Masons have given up their apartment in Evanston and, with their son, Billy, are to be with Mr. Masons' parents, the Henry Masons of Central avenue for the winter.

Mrs. S. W. Davis of the Highlands' is sailing today for Europe on the Steamship Saturina. After visiting the European countries she plans to spend the balance of the winter in Italy.

Miss Dorothea Himmler, a student of Ripon college, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Himmler of Logan street.

Marshall E. Blume of 1040 S. Sheridan road has successfully completed his sophomore year the Chicago College of Dental Surgery.

The Misses Madeline Evansen and Anne Mills of this city are students at Ferry hall this year.

Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas Dixon of N. Second street announce the birth of a son, born at the Highland Park hospital on Tuesday, October 20.

Miss Betty Anderson of Omaha, Neb. is the house guest of Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Wurth and family of Yale lane.

Miss Evelyn Bakke of McGovern street has been pledged to Kappa Sigma Tau, Miss Ruth Lenfesty of Walker avenue and Emily Watson of Ravinia have been pledged to Gamma Rho sorority at Lake Forest college.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Kinley of Northbrook are the proud parents of a son, born at the Highland Park hospital on Thursday, October 15.

Announcement has been made of a recital to be given at Lyon and Healy's studio by Miss Rosemary Watson on Saturday, October 31. Miss Watson is well-known on the north shore for her invaluable work in many charitable organizations, but a few know her as a distinguished pianist. Miss Watson has studied under a number of musicians. She has studied, for the past three years under Olga Sander of the Durno Studios in Orchestra hall.

A dinner was given by Rear Admiral and Mrs. Walter S. Crosely at the Commandant's house at the Great Lakes Naval Training station, on Friday evening, October 23, 1931, at which there were present their house guests, Mrs. Edmund Burke Ball and Miss Adelia Ball; also Miss Veronese Beatty, Miss Priscilla Stewart, Miss Lucy Allen, Miss Phyllis Wanzer, Lieut. Com-James P. Conover, Jr., U. S. Navy; Mr. Kenneth Beatty; Mr. John Beatty, Lieut. (junior grade) John P. Wood, Medical corps, U. S. Navy; Lieut. (junior grade) Eugene R. Hering, Medical corps, U. S. Navy; and Mr. Richard Burke.

Mrs. Edmund Burke Ball and Miss Adelia Ball, both of Muncie, Indiana, who have been house guests of Rear Admiral and Mrs. Walter S. Crosely, left Great Lakes, Illinois, on October 24, the former proceeding to Indianapolis, and the latter returning to Muncie.

The only kind of business that seems to be doing much just now is monkey business.

Too Much

We have too much of everything. We have too much oil, too much wheat, too much cotton, too much sugar, too much coal, too much machinery, too many automobiles, too much gold and—too much GAB!—Los Angeles Times.

WINTER RATES

$1

AN HOUR TO RENT
SADDLE HORSES
(except Sundays)

G & R STABLES

Deerfield Road, Highland Park
Phone H. P. 321

THE GEORGIAN HOTEL

Announces a new

Daily
Dollar inner

Including

—additional portions of any dish served without extra charge

—your choice of a wide selection of Hors
d'Oeuvres

—after dinner mints

—unexcelled service

Special Sunday Dinner
from 12 to 8 $1.25

Dinner guests are cordially invited to attend our evening musicals from seven to nine p. m.

ALL THIS

at

Evanston's
Outstanding Hotel
THE GEORGIAN
HINMAN and DAVIS
EVANSTON

Halloween Charity Carnival!

October 31, 1931
at the Gym Building
Deerfield-Shields H.S.

Water Skits
Side Shows
Dancing

Chamber of Horrors
Music

Games
Food and Fun

2 P. M. — 11 P. M.

BRING THE FAMILY

Gate Fee 10c

