

MR. BABSON

says:

More and better advertising is the best stimulant to business profits. Now, more than ever, your business needs every possible support. Liberal, truthful and well placed advertising is the reliable tool any selling force can have.

— USE —

THE HIGHLAND PARK PRESS
FOR RESULTS—Phone 557

Lincoln Market

519 Central Avenue

Phone Highland Park 3140

Swift's Premium Sliced Bacon pound.....	32c
Finest Native Pot Roast pound.....	22c
Leg of Genuine Spring Lamb pound.....	27c
Best Native Round Steak pound.....	35c
Finest Fresh Dressed Roasting Chickens pound.....	29c
Fancy Fresh Pork Tenderloin pound.....	39c
Lean Native Boiling Beef pound.....	12c
Fancy Veal Chops pound.....	35c
Finest Rib Lamb Chops pound.....	30c
Fresh Meaty Spare Ribs pound.....	12½c

All our meat is inspected by the United States Government

Specials for Saturday Only

Deerfield Local News

Mr. and Mrs. John Gruitemont of Appleton, Wis., are guests of their daughter, Mrs. G. Albert Willen of Springfield avenue.

The Sewing Society of St. Paul's church met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred LaBahn. It was a special sewing meeting.

Mrs. Arthur Merner entertained the Sunshine Circle of the W.M.S. of Bethlehem Evangelical church at luncheon on Wednesday at her home on Forest avenue.

Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Mary Huhn were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Giesselbracht of Wheeling and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ellis and their granddaughter, Betty Jane Ellis, of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sack celebrated their second wedding anniversary last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Levi Schinleber of Northbrook were among the out of town guests.

Eugene Hanner entertained a group of young people at a party Thursday evening at his home on West Central avenue.

An automobile accident occurred in front of the Briergate Golf club Sunday evening. Both families were from Highland Park and the injured were taken to the Highland Park hospital. A telegraph pole was knocked down.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Schmidt and their two children Robert and Geraldine were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Meding of Chicago.

Mrs. John Buss of Burlington, Wis. and Miss Alice Jamieson of Racine visited at the Ira Gardner home on Thursday.

Mrs. George Sampson and daughter Betty Lou of Chicago were the guests of Mrs. Sampson's mother, Mrs. J. C. Huehl of Springfield avenue on Saturday.

Mrs. John Ott will entertain the Ladies Aid Society of St. Paul's church on Thursday afternoon, November 5th.

Mrs. D. A. Hastings, with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Comstock, attended the Homecoming at the University of Illinois last week-end where their son and brother, Douglas Hastings Jr. is a student. On Saturday morning Douglas participated in a soccer game played by the "U" of Illinois against Y. M. C. A. college of Chicago, with a score on 6-0 in favor of Illinois. In the afternoon they witnessed the Illinois-Michigan game.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stanger entertained at a family dinner on Sunday evening at their home on Forest avenue.

Rev. E. J. Brusco's class of young men are giving a Hallowe'en party on Thursday evening at the church.

Mrs. George Ott and three children spent Saturday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Hanck of Chicago.

Edward Gilmore of Chicago visited his aunt Mrs. J. C. Huehl on Monday evening.

The little shop on East Deerfield avenue belonging to William Desmond has been rented to Mrs. Brown, who moved here from Wisconsin. Mrs. Brown raises and sells wire-haired fox terriers.

A number from this vicinity will attend the sessions of the regional White House Conference on child health and protection at the Palmer House, Chicago, on Friday and Saturday of this week. It is the meeting place for authorities on child welfare, national and local, for extensive discussions of ways to make life healthier and happier for the younger generation.

Miss Barbara Huehl attended a Young People's Fall Rally of the Chicago Evangelical churches of the Synod of North America at St. Luke's church, Chicago, last Sunday. Almost five hundred young people attended the rally.

The Deerfield chamber of commerce is meeting Thursday evening (tonight).

Dorothy Jean Anderson has returned to school after a several week's illness.

Miss Elizabeth Weimer of Surf street, Chicago, visited her sister, Mrs. Dan Hunt, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Chester Wolf, the Deerfield librarian, attended a convention of the Illinois Library Association last week in Peoria. She accompanied Mrs. Blanche Mitchell, librarian of the Libertyville library.

MY-NAME
PRINTED
STATIONERY
$1

Keep a box of this handy, Name and Address paper on your writing desk—you'll find a dozen uses for it. For informal correspondence, semi-business letters, mailing checks — this stationery makes writing a pleasure.

PACKED IN AN ATTRACTIVE BOX

200 single sheets and 100 envelopes, or 100 folded sheets and 100 envelopes printed with your name and address in blue ink on good white bond paper complete, $1.00

Udell Printing Company

Tel. H. P. 557