Fifty-Five Men Are Indicted by Grand Jury and Arraigned

Fifty-five men indicted by the October grand jury were arraigned Saturday morning before Judge Ralph J. Dady and called upon to enter pleas of guilty or not guilty.

In many instances the defendants are without funds with which to retain counsel, and in those cases Judge Dady will appoint attorneys to represent them.

Some of the defendants, unable to give bond, have been in the county jail for many weeks pending disposition of the cases. The criminal court hearings will relieve over-crowding in the county jail.

Many of the prisoners will leave the county jail after plea of guilty or trial in circuit court, either to serve prison terms or upon freedom given by juries.

A few will remain as Lake county prisoners, it is expected, through sentence to the county jail or in default of fines imposed by the court.

Death penalties will be asked for two of the prisoners by State's Attorney A. V. Smith. They are Torbidio de la Cruz Mexico who shot and killed a fellow countryman as the latter was boarding a freight train to leave the city, and Louis Hankins, colored, who confessed killing his wife with an ax.

Defunct Railroad Gets Tax Reduction Land Over-Valued

Tax assessments of the right of way of the defunct Wauconda, Lake Zurich & Palatine railroad was reduced to a farm land basis in a hearing before Judge Perry L. Persons in county court last week.

Taxes on the right of way had been placed at $15,000 for the two-year period, and advertising and penalties had brought the total to $30,000.

The receiver for the bankrupt railroad company filed an objection, and his attorney, Paul McGuffin, contended in court yesterday that since the property is no longer used for railroad purposes it could not be of greater value than the surrounding farm land.

Judge Persons sustained that position, and reduced the tax payments to $1,700.

Exemptions to church property were granted. Property of St. Mary's of the Lake Seminary, consisting of 350 acres of land at Mundelein, had been taxed $900.

Attorneys Max Przyborski and Harold Tallett of North Chicago held that the assessment was an error, since the Illinois law exempts properties used for religious and educational purposes.

Judge Persons sustained the objection and ordered the tax stricken. Also exempted in the court's order were lots in the village of Mundelein, owned by the Benedictine convent.

State Convention

The third week in November will see the members of the Illinois League of Women Voters traveling from all parts of the state to meet in convention at Chicago. They are coming to vote upon their program of work for the coming year. At the same time they will have a remarkable opportunity of study in our institute, "Economics for Citizens" which the University of Chicago is conducting especially for them.

The dates of the Convention are November 18, 19, 20, and 21. Headquarters will be at the Windermere hotel while most of the meetings will be held at the university. Mrs. Ralph B. Treadway of Glen Ellyn, is the president of the Illinois League of Women Voters. Other officers are: Mrs. Alfred D. Kohn, Chicago; Mrs. William G. Hibbard, Winnetka; Mrs. Frank P. Hixon, Lake Forest; Mrs. George Packard, Chicago; Mrs. E. C. Schmidt, Urbana, vice presidents. Mrs. E. C. Hayes, secretary; and Mrs. Ida Strawn Randall, treasurer, both of Chicago. Mrs. B. G. Jamieson, Hollywood, auditor.

Leading Directors

Some of the directors through the state are: Mrs. R. P. Sherer, Highland Park; Mrs. Ray Belsley, Peoria; Mrs. O. M. Brown, Rockford; Mrs. Eugene Funk, Shirley; Mrs. James L. Fyfe, Oak park; Miss Laura A. Gonterman, Edwardsville; Mrs. R. E. Hieronymus, Urbana; Mrs. Albert Newcombe, Geneva; Mrs. C. J. Peterson, Springfield; Mrs. Cora B. Rollo, Murphysboro; Mrs. J. H. Rosenstiel, Freeport; Mrs. John Schacht, Moline; and Mrs. E. E. Stevenson, Streator.

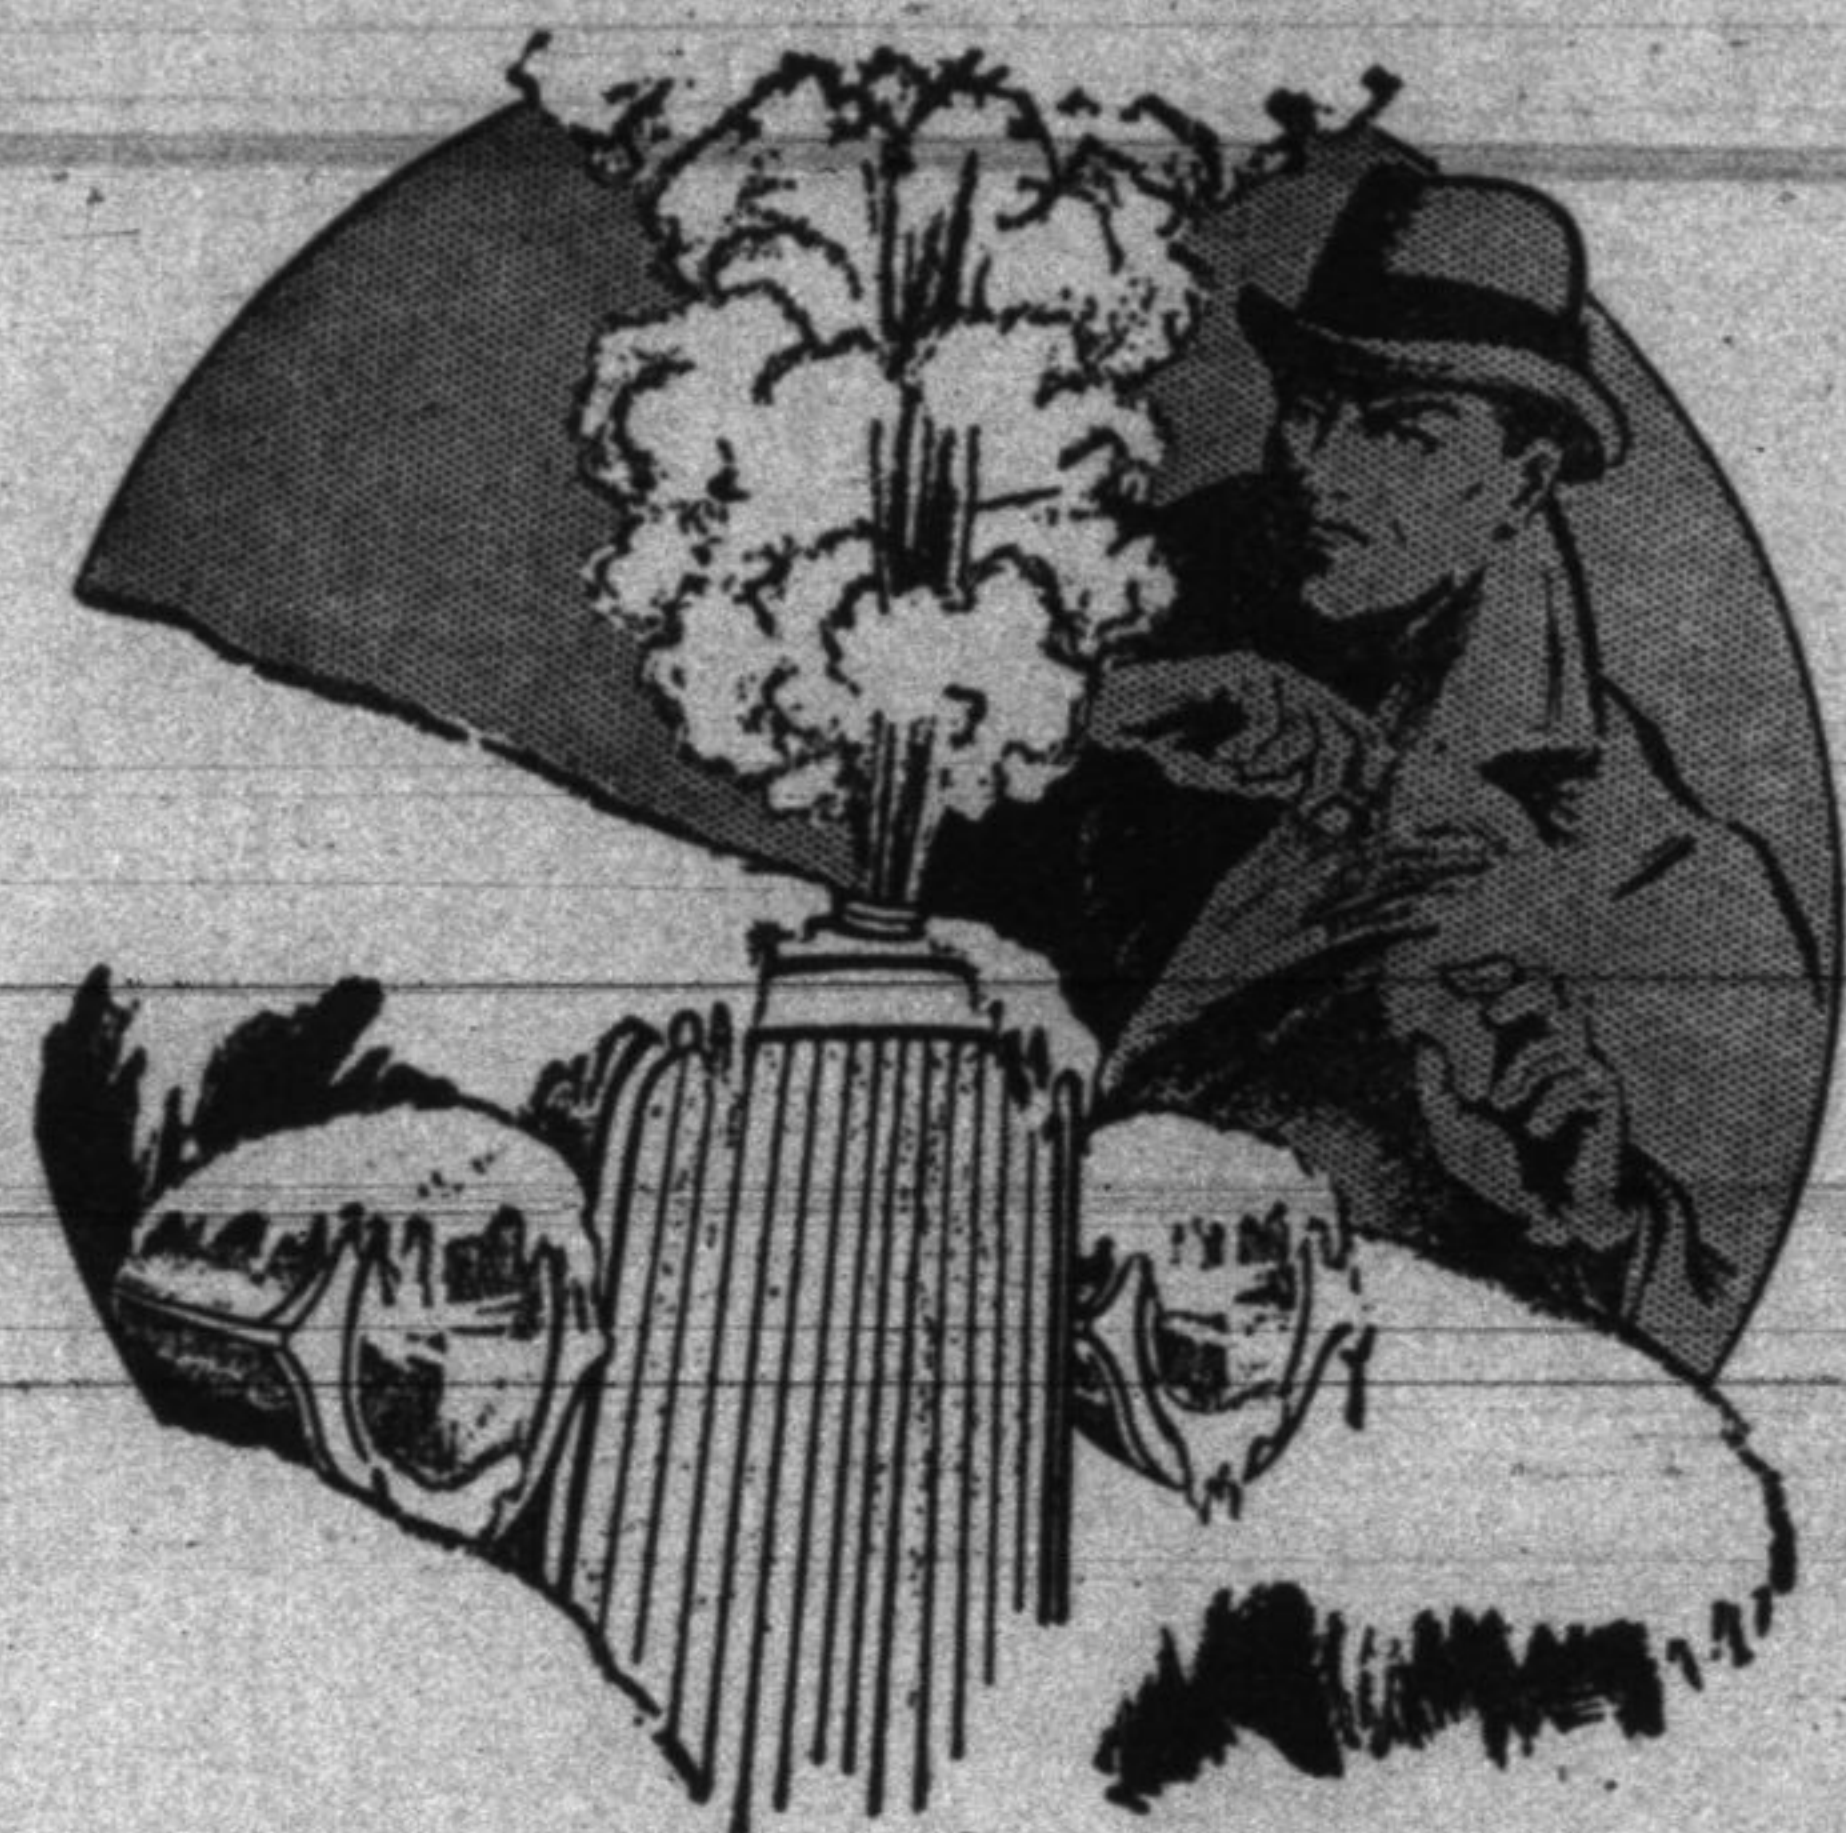

An Institute on Economics for Citizens will be held by the Illinois League of Women Voters with the cooperation of the University of Chicago on November 19 and 20 on the Midway. This event is to be concurrent with the annual convention of the League of Women Voters.

It will be an unusual event when in such a concentrated course delegates of the league and other interested citizens may hear leading minds of the university present many related topics fraught with interest in the economics of today, such as employment, reparations, disarmament and public finance.

The program will appear in next week's Press.
