

CARNIVAL PROCEEDS AMOUNT TO $1,200

OVER 3,000 ATTEND

To Use Profits in Aiding Un- employed of District

With over three thousand people attending the Charity Hallowe'en carnival last Saturday, the unemployed in Highland Park and the surrounding region are sure of partial relief at least. Over $1,200 profit was realized, of which every cent will be turned over to the various relief funds in the vicinity.

Merchants in the surrounding towns donated liberally and it is largely due to them that the affair was a success. Many useful things were given and everyone was well satisfied with their prizes.

Eighty-two merchants and citizens in Highland Park made liberal donations. They were the James Bowden Market; Chris. C. Niebuhr; the Central Barber Shop; the North Shore Radio Shop; the Selma Johnson Bakery; Victor Brothers, furriers; the North Shore Talking Machine Company; Hattstrom and Sanders, opticians; Frank Siljestrom; Erwin F. Dreiske, florist; Fritz Bahr, florist; the North Shore Grocery; Braun Brothers, oil company; Huebner's Bakery and Pastry Shop; the Highland Apartments; Mrs. Fordyce; the Fashion Cleaners; Earl W. Goods Store, the Deerfield Tailor, the Society Cleaners, the Briar Sweet Shoppe, Sol Shapiro, R. A. Nelson, the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Store, the National Tea Store, William Barrett (Plumber), Andrew Decker, Mother Fehr's Restaurant, and the Deerfield Bakery.

All advertising and publicity for the carnival was donated by the various papers in the community. The Highland Park Press, the Lake Forester, The Highland Park News, the Deerfield Press, the Shoreline donated advertising space and ran stories, while the Waukegan Daily Times and the Waukegan Daily News ran only stories. The Shoreline also donated the handbills which were distributed in the grammar schools in this region.

The building of the booths was done by Mr. Schneider, Mr. Durbahn, and their crews, and Miss Kerfoot, Miss Wood, and their art classes did the decorating.

The dancing was in charge of Miss Burwash and Messrs. Mason, Peel, and Wright. Food was under the care of Miss Campbell and Mrs. Wright. Miss Connelly and Mrs. Walters had charge of the Cider booth; Miss Campbell, the Apple Taffy booth; and Mrs. Martin and Miss Teate, the Candy House.

Sideways, concessions, and raffles were sponsored by Misses Hansen, Buzard, Lauderdale, Knox, Wood, Weldin, Thompson, Fitzsimmons, Read, Mills, Rodenbeck, Beckmire, Perry, Brooks and Johnson; Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Mannings, Mrs. McNutt, Mrs. Kendig, and Mrs. Peers; Messrs. Durbahn, Richardson, Davitt, Lindenmeyer, Eiker, Floyd, McNutt, Burwell, Bolle, Thurston, Finch, Einbecker, Kendig, and Ballard.

Most of the credit for the success of the carnival is due to Miss Rinckenberger who had charge of the affair. She was assisted by Mr. Nelson. Credit is due the high school P. T. A. for its wonderful cooperation in getting donations from the merchants.
