Girl Scouts

Troop 2
Cats, pages, fine ladies, Spanish girls, pumpkins, and convicts gathered together for the Halloween party of Troop 2 of the Girl Scouts. Games, songs, and stunts kept them busy until supper time. The girls all decided that it was a very good supper that some of the mothers of the troop had prepared for them. The party was a great success.

The regular meeting of Troop 2 was held Monday afternoon, Nov. 2. It was a fine day so the scouts stayed out of doors and played hand ball for a while, and then had a leaf-matching relay. Later each patrol acted out the first Girl Scout Law, "A Girl Scout's Honor Is to Be Trusted." The meeting closed with some songs.

Troop 7
Troop 7 held its first meeting in Braeside school last Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 28. The girls formed their patrols and chose their leaders, after which they played some knot games. The meeting ended by practicing the songs to be sung at Scout's Own on Sunday afternoon.

Brownie Course
Beginning next Monday, Nov. 9, and lasting for four days, there will be a course in Brownie Training given by Miss Williamson of New York. This course is open to anyone who is interested in knowing something about this very interesting phase of Girl Scouting. The course is being held in the Winnetka Parish House from 9:30 until 11:00 o'clock each morning.

Scouts' Own, Nov. 1st
A Scouts' Own program is getting together on some Sunday during the year for a simple, dignified service designed to leave an impression of the serious and ideal side of Girl Scouting. Below is the program given last Sunday afternoon in Trinity Episcopal church by the Girl Scouts of Highland Park and Ravinia:

Lamp Shade Making
Next Monday afternoon in the Lincoln school auditorium the Girl Scouts will be given a course in lamp shade making by the Public Service Co. This course is open to all Girl Scouts.

Cooking Course
Girl Scout cooking school each Tuesday afternoon at 3:45 in the upper room of the old City Hall building. Girl Scouts bring your pencils.

Scouting for Handicapped Girls
An experimental program of Girl Scouting for the physically handicapped girl, based on the results of similar experiments in England, is now being developed by the national Girl Scout organization. Mrs. Edward Fletcher Stevens, of Boston, a member of the Girl Scout board of directors, has been directing a study of Girl Scouting among these girls, during the past year. There are at present 50 Girl Scout troops and 4 Brownie packs of physically handicapped girls in twenty-five states in this country, and in Hawaii. Such girls are also members of regular Girl Scout troops in 76 communities.

"England, for many years, has made intensive efforts to develop Guide companies, and Brownie packs in hospitals, sanatoria, in homes and in schools for the blind, the deaf and the crippled," said Mrs. Stevens. "The best educational thinking of the day, the experience of the ablest leaders in England and in this country and the almost universal desire of the girls themselves, all demand that the child who is blind, or deaf, or crippled or tuberculous, shall be treated, just as far as possible, as if no physical limitations existed."

"Often Scouting gives to the girls in an institution their first normal contact with among other lines because he feels that this shipping company, with its two new express liners, the world famous "Bremen" and "Europe" is able to give Highwood residents, traveling with him, the best service available. The two German boats, he said, make the trip to Cherbourg, France, in four and a half days and his clients, many of whom are Italian or of Italian ancestry, can be in Italy at least in six days after their departure from New York. Furthermore, he said, his present and major business which, of course, he intends to continue as vigorously as ever before, places him in an excellent stead to serve the people who book passage with him. In this way, he said, he can handle not only the passengers themselves, but he can check their baggage through from Highwood to final destination in Italy or to any other part of Europe, without any inconvenience whatever and even without the passengers doing so much as rechecking it in New York or Cherbourg.

Pasquesi Bros., have built a special addition to their present establishment on Railroad avenue which is intended solely as a tourist bureau. Prospective passengers calling here will find an information bureau and ticket office complete in every respect and tickets can be secured here, and all other arrangements made, for travel to any part of the world.

OVER $1100 CLEARED AT BENEFIT CARNIVAL

Highland Park who made donations, twenty-six in Highwood, four in Lake Bluff, twenty-six in Lake Forest, and twenty-two from Deerfield.

All advertising was donated by the Highland Park Press, The Lake Forester, the Highland Park News, and the Shoreline, high school newspaper.

Every teacher in the high school had charge of some part of the carnival. Miss Elyse Rinkenberger, dramatics teacher, was the chairman of the executive committee.

The high school P.T.A. is also deserving of credit for its co-operation in soliciting donations from the merchants in the vicinity.

Another story of the carnival appears on page 16.

outside life. The Girl Scout promise and laws bring entirely new ideas of living, thoughtfulness for others, the joy of doing for others, instead of always receiving, and gallant courage to meet an operation, or incessant pain. These are some of the tangible results which many institutions and hospital report.

"Moreover, membership in a world organization widens the horizons limited by hospital walls and institution grounds."

Contract Bridge Classes
The Y. W. C. A. will soon start another afternoon class in contract bridge. For further information call the office, H. P. 675.
