try. He saw action overseas with the 33rd division as a lieutenant-colonel. Dr. Rogers was a Mason and belonged to numerous medical societies and clubs.

He leaves to mourn his death one son, Robert, who is a resident of Yonkers, N. Y. Mrs. Rogers died several years ago. His mother-in-law, Mrs. Wainright, lives at 441 St. John's place.

Resolution of Sympathy

A resolution of appreciation of Dr. Rogers' services to the city as president of the board of health and expressing sympathy for the relatives was adopted by the city council at the regular session Monday evening.

Health Board President

Dr. Rogers was president of the Highland Park Board of Health from the direction of safeguarding the health of the community. He was a member of the medical staff of the Highland Park hospital and other Lake county, Illinois State and American Medical associations. He was a member of Trinity church and a vestryman and a faithful attendant and active in the work of the church.

He came to Highland Park after his discharge from the army eleven years ago and from that time was one of the leading physicians of the city with a wide practice and a host of devoted friends, whose sorrow at his death is sincere.

Funeral Held Monday

The funeral service was held at Trinity church Monday afternoon, the Rev. Christoph Keller officiating, and the remains were taken to Holbrook, Mass., for interment.

The pallbearers were Frank Ronan, Jack Wiles, Osborne Hjelte, Philip Cole, Dr. R. B. Jacks and General John J. Clinin.

house will take on the appearance of a Chinese shop, transformed by many booths presided over by Chinese women in native dress. Here you will find displayed delicate hand-made linens suitable for a gift to mother, an embroidered purse or almond-eyed doll for sister, cloisonne boxes or hand-carved beads. In fact, gifts for every purse and every taste can be found in the varied assortment of brasses, coats, sandals and handkerchiefs, teas, letter paper, incense and many small novelties. The Highland Park library now has on display in its vestibule various articles of Chinese handicraft. Let the children save their pennies and do their Christmas shopping here after school.

Tickets on Sale

What a splendid opportunity to have a delicious home-cooked meal, and to shop at the same time. Tickets for the supper are now on sale. Reservations should be made in advance if possible. In order to encourage family parties, a special half price ticket has been provided for the children under 12. Why not make up a party and reserve a table? Supper will be served from 5:30 to 7:30. For information about tickets call Mrs. Albert Peterson, H. P. 1776, or any guild member.

The proceeds from the guild's share in this project will go to the Laird Community House in Chicago, and various other benevolences which they help to support. Come and enjoy this unique party, thus helping others as well as profiting yourself.

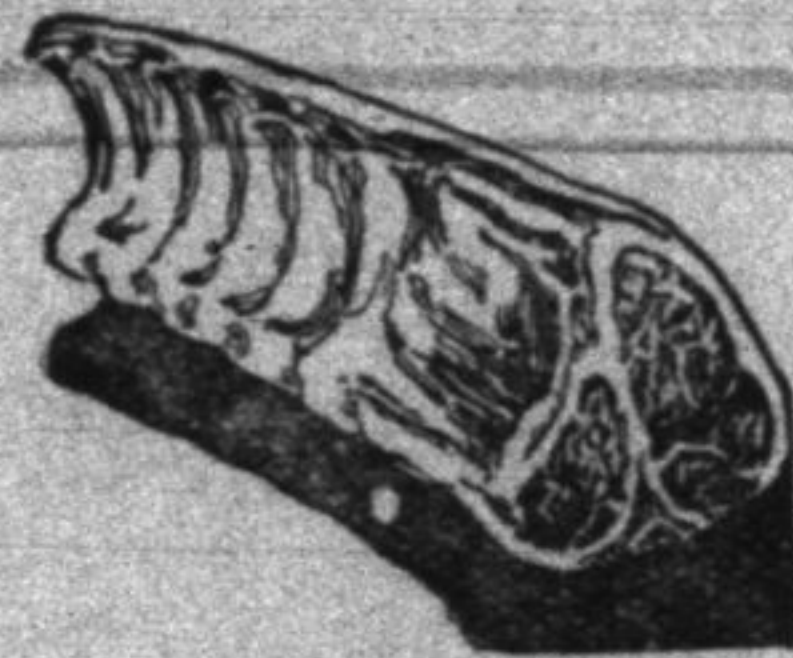

Plan Bazaar Nov. 20
The Sheridan Rebecca Sewing club are giving a baked ham supper followed by a bazaar and corn game on Friday, Nov. 20 at Odd Fellows hall. Supper will be served at 6 o'clock.

Mr. Carl Horenberger and son Edward spent last week with relatives in Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pekar of Waukegan ave., are the happy parents of a baby girl born on Friday, Nov. 2 at the Highland Park hospital.

Meats
—for every menu

Since the days of Merrie England when roast boar and venison held sway, the epicure has had a taste for fine meats. A&P meats maintain the same standards of high quality and low prices that have made our groceries famous.
