CHINDBLOM SPEAKS AT C. OF C. MEETING

Congressman Optimistic of Improving Business Condition; Local Projects

Hon. Carl R. Chindblom, representative in congress from the Tenth district of Illinois, was the chief speaker at the monthly dinner session of the Highland Park Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening and delivered a very interesting address upon the many and varied duties entrusted to him in his official capacity.

The meeting was held at the Green Tea Pot, and a fine dinner was served to the 62 members present.

Sees Improvement Soon

Congressman Chindblom expressed his views on the present economic conditions, indicating by various points, that the depressed condition of business was on the upturn and with a growth of further confidence, stability and purchasing, general conditions would soon resume normality. Considerable mention was also made of the Federal building and North Sheridan road problems, assuring the Chamber of Commerce

The new president, Mrs. Fred Clutton, has appointed the following standing committee chairmen for the ensuing year: Program, Mrs. D. M. Blasier; publicity, Mrs. J. S. Weinberg; flower show, Mrs. D. H. Davis.

The club is planning a trip to the Chrysanthemum show at Garfield Park Conservatory on Friday morning, Nov. 13. This is the largest show of the year at the park and a sight well worth seeing. The group will be conducted through the conservatories by one of the lecturers employed by the park board. Will all those who wish to attend please call Mrs. Clutton.

Plan Benefit Card Party at Ravinia on November 17th

A benefit card party will be given by the Philanthropy and the Social committees of the Ravinia Woman's club Tuesday, Nov. 17, at 2 p.m., at the Village House.

Auction and contract bridge will be played. Players will pivot at tables for four.

The refreshments and prizes will be donated by members of the two committees and the proceeds will be used for the work of the philanthropy committee.

A good time is promised, and it is hoped there will be a large attendance to help swell the working fund of the philanthropy in their worthy efforts this year.

For further information, call Mrs. Godfrey Eyler, telephone H. P. 1894.

Noted Illustrator to Speak Nov. 18th, at Public Library

Mr. Milo Winter of Lake Forest, the well-known illustrator of books for boys and girls has consented to help the Highland Park Public library celebrate its first book week in the new building, by speaking on Wednesday evening next, Nov. 18, at 8 o'clock.

He will discuss that vastly important phase of reading; the illustrations which are so much a part of the book for every boy and girl.

This talk is free to all, including children with their parents. The fittings for the new auditorium are now being placed and book week will inaugurate the use of this small model auditorium which is for the use of the community for purposes in keeping with the public library.

Report Good Progress in Relief Fund Drive Here; Workers Are Busy

According to reports made by workers at a meeting held Monday evening the relief fund drive in Highland Park is progressing satisfactorily and there are splendid prospects for achieving a grand total of $20,000, it was reported.

Up to last Monday evening about $13,000 had been subscribed the committees reported, and there were many prospective subscribers yet to be seen. Good progress since that time is reported unofficially, although no definite information has been given out. However, it is understood that to date more than $15,000 has been secured for this fund.

The work is being carried forward systematically by the committees in each of the 11 precincts of the city, and effort is being made to see everybody in each district. The workers are indefatigable in their endeavors to make this drive a success and deserve much credit for the amount of territory covered in the short time since the drive started.

Brig. Gen. Bolles Is Speaker at Meeting of H. P. Rotary Club

At the regular meeting of the Highland Park Rotary club Monday noon, at the Moraine hotel, the speaker was Brigadier General Frank C. Bolles, commandant at Fort Sheridan, who spoke on "The Military Policy of the United States, and Why." General Bolles gave a very interesting and comprehensive outline of the fundamental principles which govern the administration of the military affairs of the nation and explained the reasons therefor in each instance. His talk was heard with marked attention by the members present.

General Bolles was introduced by Wayne Hise.

Firemen to Repair Toys for Christmas

The men of the Fire Department feel that owing to conditions, they would like to start repairing old toys earlier this year, in order to have as large an assortment as possible ready for the children at Christmas time. The Fire Department will be glad to receive any toy that has outlived its usefulness in your home. The men repair and repaint it and make it look like new. And when a child gets it on Christmas their happiness is so complete that they never think of the toy as being old or second hand.

The Department will work in connection with the Social Service and will do all the repairing and distributing of the toys. All requests for toys will have to be made through the Social Service.

The Fire Department has been the means of making a large number of children happy at Christmas time and they want to do more this year. You may leave toys at the Central Fire Station, Central and Green Bay or at the Ravinia Station, Burton and Highland, Ravinia.

Charity Dance to Be Given Nov. 20

A charity dance will be given by the Federation Girls of the Highland Park Telephone Co., on Friday, Nov. 20, at eight-thirty o'clock at Masonic Temple. Music will be furnished by Al's Night Owls. The proceeds of this dance will be used to purchase Christmas baskets.
