

Working on Community Woodpile

Work on the "community woodpile" goes on regularly as shown in the accompanying picture. The workers are all registrants of the Highland Park Social Service and the jobs are prorated in order to give a larger number the opportunity to work. The city of Highland Park, real estate brokers, and private property owners have united in giving permission for the removal of dead trees. These are cut, then hauled to the rear of the old city hall, the present Social Service headquarters, where it is cut into lengths for burning. The men working are paid in wood, food orders, or meal tickets, co-operation of the local coal dealers makes the sale of the wood possible.

Wood is for sale cut in any length desired and the prices delivered are $12 per ton, $7 per half ton, and $4 per quarter ton.

Order yours today by calling H. P. 4000.

The Social Service committee is co-operating with city officials, Mr.

Alex Rafferty, superintendent of streets, and Commissioner Taylor, by providing men for clearing parkways, and doing park work which will add to Highland Park's civic improvement.

Drive for Funds Continues

Captains and their workers are working this week to conclude the canvass of their districts. The only solicitation for funds for the Highland Park Social Service is being made in this drive, headed by Mayor E. B. Metzler. In cash and pledges the total of $12,705.31, has been subscribed, according to City Clerk Musser, who is tabulating funds, and workers are anxious to reach the quota of $20,000 necessary to "carry on." If you have been missed in the canvass and can help to aid Highland Park's needy, call the city hall or the Social Service office so you may have the opportunity of having a part in this work.

Bakery Sales Saturday Morning

Sales of home made bakery goods, baked by women registered at the Social Service are held every Saturday morning at the old city hall. Last week's sales totalled $32.80.

Thanksgiving Baskets

Thanksgiving baskets will not be sent out by the Social Service committee, but anyone wishing to send one may call the office.

Barrels in Stores

Following the plan of other cities, the merchants of Highland Park are co-operating with the Social Service by placing barrels in their stores in the hope that their customers will donate articles when making purchases themetaoin eta making purchases for themselves. Donations will be distributed by the Social Service about ten metaoin Social Service. About ten merchants have already signified their intent to place barrels.

Needs

A ten-foot coal chute!

Photo by Hecketsweiler

H. P. PRESS STARS DEFEAT LLOYD A. C.

Win, 13 to 12, Last Sunday, When Stipe's Kick Gives Locals Extra Point

One point isn't much, but it was enough to decide the outcome of the Highland Park Press All Stars and the Lloyd A. C. struggle, as the All Stars triumphed, 13 to 12, last Sunday at Sunset park.

Paul Stipe's educated toe did the trick at the end of the second quarter; when the ball sailed squarely through the up-rights. The score stood; 13 for Highland Park, 6 for Lloyd A. C. At that time the point seemed very meager, but when the game ended it looked as big as a battleship.

Muddy Field

Both teams were hampered by the wet weather conditions that made passing and open field running almost impossible. It also paved the way for frequent fumbling, especially in the getting off and the handling of punts. Because of the existing conditions, the Highland Parkers resorted mainly to line plays in which they were very effective, chalking up 14 first downs to the opponents 5.

The Chicago outfit was the first to score when their fleet half, Yacino, intercepted a Press pass and raced 85 yards for a touchdown. A few minutes later Shorty Francis plunged over from his one yard line to tie the score. Both tries for the extra point failed. Five minutes later Highland Park scored again when Martin hit the line from the two yard line. Then Stipe did his stuff. The remaining 6 points of the Lloyd A. C. came at the close of the game after they blocked a Press kick and recovered over the goal.

(Continued on page 12)

Highland Park Cycle Company Is New Firm

The Highland Park Cycle Co., a new business in town, will open Saturday, Nov. 21, at 546 Central avenue. The store will be thoroughly modern and equipped with a complete stock of bicycles, velocipedes, etc., as well as sporting goods and electrical appliances. The firm is also an authorized agent for the Singer Sewing Machine Co. and will carry a full line of repairs. Service on all lines carried also is provided for.

The manager is L. A. Ostroff, who has had a wide experience in this line of business. On the opening day a souvenir of an electric pen light with battery will be given with each purchase of fifty cents worth or more, it is announced.

Hold Bazaar Tomorrow

Sheridan Rebecca Lodge No. 801 are holding its annual bazaar and supper tomorrow (Friday) evening in their temple on Laurel avenue. Corno will be played during the evening, a small charge being made for the game. A baked ham supper will be served from 6-8 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

Neavitt Captured in Florida, Report

Sheriff Lester Tiffany left Tuesday night for Miami, Fla., to return Herbert Neavitt, former Highland Park automobile dealer, wanted by States' Attorney Smith on charges of embezzlement and altering automobile motor numbers.

Neavitt has indicated he will waive extradition. If he should change his mind, Sheriff Tiffany will have Governor Emmerson rush extradition papers by mail.

Neavitt was indicted by the regular October grand jury, but has failed to appear for arraignment. Col. Smith asked Sheriff Tiffany to locate him and it was finally learned that the automobile dealer had fled to Florida.

He was taken in custody by Miami police.

Last spring Neavitt's activities are said to have resulted in the loss of thousands of dollars by auto finance companies with which he transacted business.

Letters of administration were issued to Helen M. Bartlett of Highland Park, widow of Walter W. Bartlett, veteran south county justice of the peace. Her bond was set at $2,000.

H. P. Hospital Shares in Dr. Rogers Estate; Other Probate Notes

Two thousand dollars was left to the Highland Park hospital by the late Dr. Daniel W. Rogers of Highland Park, it was revealed when his will was admitted to probate by Judge Martin Decker of Lake county probate court.

The bulk of his estate, consisting of $50,000 in personal property and $1,000 in real estate, was left to a son, Robert W. Rogers.

Nine relatives and friends received minor bequests. Letters testamentary were issued to the First Union Trust & Savings Bank.

MISS H. GIESER

Masseuse

GLENN W. OTTO

Masseur

16 NORTH SHERIDAN ROAD
(Moldaner & Humer Bldg.)
TEL. HIGHLAND PARK 838

Vapor and Electric Cabin Baths
Scientific Swedish Massage
Infra Red and Deep Therapy Lamps
Reducing Massage - Residential Work
Rates Reasonable

Sam Fell Giving Turkey with Suit or O'coat

Sam Fell, the clothing merchant, plans to assure his customers a regular Thanksgiving dinner if they buy suits and coats soon enough. For a limited time he is advertising to give a turkey to each patron who buys a suit or overcoat at his store.

Elizabeth Silber Worth TEACHER OF PIANO

Specializing in Jazz for Beginners and Advanced

Special Rates - Lessons given in your home if desired

... Studio ...

623 VINE AVENUE

Phone Highland park 3446