

H. P. WOMEN VOTERS MEETING NOV. 25

League Session and Luncheon;
County Officers Guests;
State Convention

On Wednesday, Nov. 25, the Highland Park League of Woman Voters assembles at the Y.W.C.A. for its regular monthly meeting. Luncheon is served for members at 12:30 o'clock and the program starts promptly at 1:15. Everyone is cordially invited to the program and to the White Elephant sale which follows the meeting at 2:30. This sale is held for the benefit of the league. It proved so very popular and successful last year that the board decided to make it an annual event. Those wishing to contribute articles may leave them at the Y.W.C.A. rooms on Wednesday morning, or they may phone earlier

(Continued on page 35)

D. A. R. Better Films Committee Review

As this article is being prepared, plans are going forward for a special benefit performance in accordance with the efforts of all the movie theatres to lend their aid in the unemployment situation. The proceeds of this performance are to go to the work in this community, and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance. Further details will be found elsewhere in this paper. The feature has not yet been announced but efforts are being made to provide a good picture for children, and one the whole family can enjoy. The "Big Gamble" which is to be shown on Saturday cannot receive whole hearted endorsement for children, and so we hope very much the special feature will be suitable. It is a gang picture, rather sordid, but there will be other things on the program to entertain. "The Bargain" and "Rebound" are both to be shown on Thursday and Friday, both outstanding productions. Ina Claire heads a superb cast in the latter picture. It is a problem play done in a sparkling mood and will furnish delightful entertainment for adults. "Street Scene" will also be with us. It is an exceptionally fine picturization of the stage play. It is too mature for children, but will be interesting for adults and also youths. "Bad Girl" The fumbling search for happiness of two inarticulate young people is the theme of this play. The troubles, temptations, and groping toward high ideals of young Americans who have not had the advantages of the best environment, provide food for thought. The fine direction, and interpretations of Sally Eilers and James Dunn make this play a problem of human interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schweiger were hosts to four young couples at a week-end party.

MUNICIPAL ROSE GARDEN PROJECT

Plan Started Last Year Proves
Success; Beautiful Spot
Is the Result

One of the most unique and interesting projects in our community is the Municipal Rose Garden. This delightful garden, designed by Doretta Klaber, maintained by the labor contributed by the East park board, and by the continued efforts and contributions of the enthusiastic members of the Ravinia Garden club, is well worth a visit.

More than a year ago, Mrs. Klaber presented to the Ravinia Garden club, a plea for the establishment of a municipal Rose Garden that would help to beautify the town, and to interest gardeners in the varieties of roses that would grow successfully in this locale. With the appropriation of a tract of land, bordering the railroad at Roger Williams avenue, in Ravinia, by the East park board, and the

(Continued on page 42)

Jury Exonerates Driver in Death of Kenosha Man

Gus Palmer, Kenosha, driver of a truck which collided with a passenger auto in the fog near Deerfield Wednesday of last week, fatally injuring Vincent Karoll, 1541 Devon avenue, Chicago, was exonerated by a coroner's jury.

The jury took testimony in Kelley's funeral parlors, in Highland Park, for two hours before rendering a verdict.

Peter Kukovitz, of 1446 Belmont avenue, Chicago, driver of the sedan in which Karoll rode, was also freed from blame. Testimony showed that the sedan skidded and that the truck driver failed to see the automobile until collision was unavoidable, according to Coroner John L. Taylor.

Karoll died in the Highland Park hospital.

Mrs. Sandwick Hostess to Reading Circle

Mrs. Richard L. Sandwick is opening her home today, Thursday, Nov. 19, as hostess to the Illinois History Reading circle which is being sponsored by the North Shore Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The leader for today, Mrs. Jared Johnson, has arranged a most interesting program of reading for all those who are interested to come and bring their sewing and while working enjoy a profitable afternoon of educational and social interest.

An increasing number of women have shown their desire to participate in these meetings as evidenced by the large number attending the two previous ones held at the home of the regent, Mrs. Kellogg Speed and Mrs. George T. Rogers in Lakewood Forest. It is hoped that as many as possible will come today at 2:30 p.m. and bring their friends to Mrs. Sandwick's home at 615 Lincoln avenue.

FREE

With Rolls or Reprints

One 5x7 Inches

Enlargement

[ This Offer Expires ]
December 1st

For Best Service and Photo Finishing

Leave Work at

LAEGELER PHARMACY

303 Waukegan Avenue

Phone H. P. 222

HIGHWOOD