Another first performance of the season will be Verdi's La Traviata, to be given for the Saturday night popular-priced performance. Claudia Muzio will present her incomparable characterization of the role of Violetta, with Charles Hackett as Alfredo and Augusto Beuf as the father. Roberto Moranzone will conduct.

The fourth week of opera opens Monday evening, Nov. 23, with the season's second performance of Samson and Delilah. Fall Festival Nov. 23 at Holy Cross Church

The annual fall festival will be held in the Deerfield Holy Cross parish hall on Monday evening, November 23, at eight o'clock. The affair will be similar to the one of last year. Fifteen turkeys are to be given away. The ladies will have an attractive booth where a fine assortment of merchandise will also be given away. Refreshments will be served during the evening and a good time is in store for all those who attend. This is a very opportune time to secure a turkey for Thanksgiving.

Poormasters Seeking Aid of Relief Group to Take Care of Poor

While the Lake county supervisors are awaiting the action of the legislature at the special session to provide for the raising of funds for the township pauper relief, the poor-masters of the various towns are seeking the aid of the emergency relief committees in the different communities in tiding over the needy during the winter.

The problem of aiding the destitute war veterans and their families has been one of the most perplexing to the poormaster. Under the Finn bill, which transferred the poor relief from the county to the individual townships, war veterans are not considered paupers.

Attorney General Oscar E. Carlstrom had handed down several opinions holding that the war veterans were not paupers. The veterans and their families, under those rulings, could not be classified as paupers and thus receive aid under the paupers relief bill. Relief given to veterans would have to be under another classification.

H. P. PRESS STARS DEFEAT LLOYD A. C.

Lucky Interception

The interception of the All Star pass almost took the heart out of the team, for they had taken the ball on their own 20 yard line and had advanced it steadily up the field to the A. C. 30 yard line where the enemies' line stiffened and held them for three downs. On the fourth down a Highland Park pass found the wrong mark as it landed in the hands of an A. C. man, who sprinted 85 yards straight down the west side line for the score.

Before the first quarter was over, the Press had tied the score. After an exchange of punts, they took the ball on their 40 yard line and started another march, this time it did the trick. Two first downs placed the ball on the A. C. 30 yard line. Again they held for three downs; but on the next play, a forward pass from Bartleman to Gordan Kress was good for 29 of those yards. After two attempts at the line, Francis crashed over. The pass of the extra was knocked down.

Team Clicks

The next Highland Park score was one successive first down after another. Starting on their own 10 yard line, the Press started to reel off the yardage—going 10 yards at a click, with Carl Parker, Carl Tilly Martin doing the heavy work.

A penalty was responsible for the other Lloyd A. C. marker. After taking a punt on their 26 yard line, the Press were set back to their 1 yard because of clipping. On the next play an A. C. man broke through and blocked Becker's attempted punt and recovered for the touchdown. The try for extra point was blocked. Lineup:
