

N IN 1857; IS
ED TO PRESENT

le Quotation from Weekly, 74 Years
Fitting Today

...ing furnishes food for
...ead all of it or none:
...omy moment in history.
...y years—not in the life-
...st men who read this
...as there been so much
...eep apprehension; never
...ure seemed so incalcul-
...this time. In our own
...re is universal commer-
...ation and panic, and
...f our poorest fellow cit-
...rned out against the ap-
...winter without employ-
...without the prospect of

...e, the political caldron
...ubbles with uncertain-
...hangs, as usual, like a
...and silent upon the hor-
...ope; while all the ener-
...es and influences of the
...pire are sorely tried, and
...be tried more sorely, in
...the vast and deadly In-
...ection, and with its dis-
...ions in China.

...olemn moment, and no
...l an indifference (which
...man pretends to feel)
...of events.

...oubles no man can see
...hey are, fortunately, as
...commercial; and if we
...ose money, and by pain-
...ued on page 12)

etter Films
Committee Review

...that will have most in-
...hildren in the week to
...e beginning of a new
...s called "The Land of
..." and takes you back to
... Buffalo Bill and the ...errors of pioneers. The
...e shown in the evening
...is "Honor of the Fam-
...is a picture featuring
...s but has not very much
...nd it. "Sidewalks of
...Two such good actors
...eaton and Cliff Edwards
...a better vehicle than
...ck comedy, it is not up
...standard, and does not
...ry good rating. Sorry.
...' is by all odds the best
...ntil next week Thurs-
...kyline" comes and "The
...se" and other good
...follow. "Pardon Us"
...urel and Hardy in their
...gth comedy. This is a
...and amusing and real
...medy will be observed.
...ily will enjoy this film.

Woman's Club
Party December 4

...lar yearly card party,
...e North Shore Catholic
...ague, for the benefit of
...ropy department, will
...the Evanston Woman's
...ay, Dec. 4, at 2 o'clock.
...e Hundred and Bunco
...ved and many lovely
...romised.

LEGION AUXILIARY DISTRICT MEETING

Held in Highland Park Nov. 19;
Plans for Year's Work;
Install Officers

Mrs. Grace Tibbals, 8th district director of the American Legion auxiliary, was in charge of the district meeting held at the Highland Park Masonic temple yesterday afternoon, which was attended by over one hundred representing all of the units in the district.

Mrs. Mabel Pantelis, state treasurer of the American Legion auxiliary and a national officer of the Chapeau of the 8 and 40 was the installing officer and inducted into service Mrs. Grace Tibbals, Waukegan, as 8th district director, Mrs. Mary Gotti, Libertyville, alternate director, and Mrs. Margaret Green, Waukegan, sergeant-at-arms.

Mrs. Pantelis was presented with a bouquet of flowers, and she in turn presented a past president pin to Mrs. Harry Brown of Lake Forest, retiring director. Mrs. Tibbals gave an American Legion auxiliary compact to Mrs. Nora McShane, retiring secretary-treasurer, as a token of appreciation from the district for her work.

The units will all take active part in the rehabilitation and child welfare work during the Christmas tide, which will include the hospitals, and three orphans' homes in the district. They also plan to do what they can for Fort Sheridan, this work coming under the head of the national defense committee.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served by the Highland Park auxiliary.

The next district meeting will be held in Libertyville in February.

Ravinia Reading
Club Meets Nov. 30

The Ravinia Reading club were delightfully entertained on November 16 with Mrs. Murray's reading on "Green Pastures." Refreshments were served by Mesdames Baker and Gurney. Last Monday Mrs. Gordon Grahame gave an interesting and pleasing report on "Good Earth." Mesdames Bryant and Vercoe were hostesses at this meeting. Next Monday, Nov. 30, Mrs. E. E. Kern promises the club an intriguing report on Vicki Baum's last book, "Life Goes On."

Local and Personal

The following quotation is taken from a recent issue of the New York Times. Hugh Seyfarth is a former Deerfield-Shields football star. "Princeton's golden opportunity to score in the opening period when Hugh Seyfarth, brilliant Princeton sophomore back, whose play was the feature all during the game, fell on the Washington and Lee fumble on the visitors 33 yard line."

Recent arrivals at the Warwick hotel, New York, are Mrs. J. S. Kaufman and her daughter, Miss Jane Kaufman, of Highland Park.

Mrs. Harold A. Bridges entertained six guests at dinner last Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fossum have returned from the Lawsonia Country club at Green Lake, Wis., and will leave in a few weeks for Avon Park, Fla., where they will spend the winter. Mr. Fossum will be professional at the Highland Lakes Country club.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Pertz were called to Lafayette, Ind., Sunday by the death of Mr. Pertz' father, who has been ill for some time. Funeral services were held Tuesday in Lafayette.

Mr. Hermon Fromelt of Maple avenue, who was injured last Friday in an automobile accident, is improving in the Highland Park hospital.

Mrs. William P. Streib of Clinton, Iowa, was the guest of Mrs. Helen Golden a few days last week.

Mr. R. R. Thomas of 606 Onwentsia avenue left Saturday for Mandu, Ohio, where he will visit his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thomson and family are spending today (Thanksgiving), in La Grange with Mrs. Thomson's mother, Mrs. Frantzen.

Mr. Martin J. Insull was elected to the board of trustees of Cornell university last Saturday. Mr. Insull graduated from Cornell in 1893 with the degree of mechanical engineer.

Mr. Leonard Friebele, 606 Onwentsia avenue, left Nov. 17 for an extended trip through the west. He will spend Thanksgiving with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks, in San Leandro, Calif.

Little Billie Bridges entertained a number of his little friends at a party yesterday, honoring his third birthday anniversary.

Victor Ralph won the golf championship for students who are studying for priesthood at St. Marys-of-the-Lake, Mundelein. He was presented with a loving cup and a sum of money.

Miss Grace Niebuhr of South St. Johns avenue was the week-end guest of Senator and Mrs. Hoakley of Burlington, Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kelley of Deerfield are the happy parents of a son, born at the Highland Park hospital on Sunday, Nov. 22.

Mrs. Joseph Siegele of Half Day road entertained at two tables of five hundred Monday evening.

Helen Leuer of Homewood avenue who is in her junior year at Webster college, Webster Groves, Mo., will not return home for Thanksgiving holidays, but will spend it with friends in Webster Grove. This year Miss Leuer is acting vice-president of the junior class and president of the chemistry club, the Sigma Phi Theta.

The Drama Fortnightly will meet on Tuesday evening, Dec. 1, at the home of Mrs. K. B. Lacy of Dato avenue. Mrs. Earl Purdy and Mrs. Charles Pardee will be hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex H. Stewart, formerly of 616 Forest avenue, have taken up their residence in Barrington, Ill.

Mrs. Claude Franklin who underwent an operation at the Highland Park hospital last Saturday morning is getting along as well as can be expected.

Mr. Charles M. Schneider, a former resident of this city and for a number of years proprietor of a Gent's furnishing and Jewelry store, which was later purchased by his nephew Mr. R. W. Schneider, was ordained to the Priesthood last June.

Mrs. Arthur Grant McPherson has returned from Detroit, Mich., where she visited his son and his wife Mr. and Mrs. Earl McPherson.

MISS ANNA WILLAS
Swedish Massage
also Reducing Treatments
New Address—548 CENTRAL AVE.
HIGHLAND APTS.
Tel. H. P. 915; if no answer call 3025

WINTER RATES
$1
AN HOUR TO RENT
SADDLE HORSES
(except Sundays)
G & R STABLES
Deerfield Rd., Highland Park
Phone H. P. 321
HORSES BOARDED

GARNETT'S

Sale of Christmas Hand Bags
$2.95

A grand year to give bags—better quality leathers and smarter styles than you ever bought in your life for less than five dollars. Calfskin, grain leathers, pin seal and French Beaded Bags, $2.95.

Other Bags
Specially priced at $1.95

These bags are of the same quality and of same high grade workmanship as those you bought last year at $2.95. Made of high grade calfskin, grain leathers and combinations. Wide selection at $1.95.