THANKSGIVING

Founded by the Pilgrim Fathers, who, after a season of swapping rum and beads for valuable real estate, felt sincerely thankful that the red men hadn't got wise to their game and lifted their scalps. Continued annually, by presidential proclamation down to the present.

And one of the things we expect Hoover to mention this year, as a blessing, is the fact that you can buy Insurance with Service here.

Hill road, Winnetka, announces the marriage of her daughter, Elizabeth R. Bates, to Robert C. Nicholls, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Nicholls of Highland Park, on Tuesday, Nov. 3. Mrs. Randall is going to North Carolina for the winter and her son-in-law and daughter will occupy her Winnetka home during that period.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Williams announce the marriage of their daughter Gertrude Elizabeth to Geoffrey Baker of Chicago which took place on Monday, Nov. 23. Mr. Baker is a graduate of Harvard college and law school. Miss Williams attended Northwestern university for a year and was a member of Alpha Chi Omega.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Helm of Fisk, Wis., announce the marriage of their daughter Viola Lucille to Frederick Graff, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Graff of Lake Zurich which took place in June. Mrs. Graff is a niece of Mrs. Viola Conrad with whom she made her home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Simons of the Udell building are entertaining at dinner followed by two tables of bridge Saturday evening.

Little Barbara Jones of Linden avenue, entertained several of her young friends at a party Monday afternoon honoring her birthday anniversary.

Miss Elizabeth Robbins Phelps, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erastus Phelps has chosen Saturday, Dec. 12, for her marriage to Lieutenant Grant Eugene Hill of Fort Sheridan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hill of East Palestine, Ohio. It will be a military wedding with bridegroom and ushers in full uniform, and with drawn swords forming an arch over the bridal pair. It will be a novelty to have an evening ceremony, but Elizabeth wishes to be married in the soft glow of candlelight, so 8:30 is the hour decided upon and the service will be read in the Fort Sheridan chapel. She will wear her mother's wedding dress of white crepe made on princess lines with voluminous shirtings adorning the skirt, and her mother's wedding veil of tulle and duchess lace matching the bertha collar of the gown. The bride to be was one of the most popular debs of last season. She was presented by her grandmother, Mrs. James A. Robbins at a November tea. Lieut. Hill is a University of Missouri man and a West Point graduate, class of 1930.
