clothes, plays, movies, ideals for boys, ideals for girls, etiquette, jobs.

Mrs. Harold G. Boltz is the new adviser of this older group who has done a great deal with girls of all ages in expression work. Mrs. Boltz was a teacher of speech in the John Fletcher college in Iowa. Last year she worked in a mission in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. With Mrs. Boltz' thorough understanding of girls with their likes, dislikes and problems she will prove most valuable to this enthusiastic group of girls.

Artists in Living

Kota-de-awa means every girl in high school is always welcome. Each member is trying to be an artist in living; trying to grow in person- ality and to help others to become their best selves; trying to experi- ence the deep joy that comes from pulling together. All high school girls are urged to come and grow with the triangle, start now and help it to grow in mind, body and spirit.

Last Monday the Kota-de-awa girls had a "surprise dinner." The social committee earned lots of credit for the good time every one enjoyed.
