Child Problem to Be Discussed at P. T. A. Meeting

In preparation for the January meeting of the high school P.T.A. Mrs. Caryl Cody Pfanstiehl, chairman of the program committee, has had distributed to the parents of the high school students a questionnaire on child problems which is to be filled out by the parent and returned. The material received as a result of this questionnaire will be used as a topic of discussion.

The first group of questions is based on personal problems with a child. The second group deals with the allowance of the student. The third and last group of questions pertains to the habits of the student.

Parents may sign their names to the questionnaire or not, just as they wish.

23 Players Earn Football Letters

Among the twenty-three football lettermen this year, eleven are seniors. Of the thirty-two quarters in which it was possible to play, "Ches" Petersen was the only player who participated in them all. "Jackie" Allen and Bob Oldenberg were the next, each having played in thirty quarters.

Others receiving letters are Parker Johnston, Fred Gansberg, Eugene Cameron, George Christianson, "Rippy" Swan, Joe Scasselati, Dave Duffy, Al Aldridge, juniors; and Stewart Croke, sophomore.

The managers receiving letters are Dick Gault, Bill Anspach, Mel Strauss, Bob Riddle, Maurice Cazal, Werner Wiebolt, and Leighton Phillips.

Sketches of Waukegan P. O. Building Approved

Sketches of Waukegan's new post-office have been approved by treasury and postoffice officials, and working drawings for the structure are now slightly more than 10 per cent complete, according to a report prepared by the office of the supervising architect of the treasury from data furnished by the drafting division, and made public at Washington.
