Low Winter Fares for Automobile Owners

The new weekly ticket (representing a fare reduction of 20%) completely fills your need during the inclement weather of fall and winter.

It appeals to you because:

1. You have only to buy a ticket good for 6 days' travel instead of making a larger investment in the 60-ride commutation.
2. You, your family, employes or friends have the added advantage during the week of using mileage coupons. They enable you to ride for 2c a mile.

The new weekly ticket is built to order for the automobile owner who has to lay up his car during the uncertain weather we are facing. And it means a saving in upkeep, cost of parking—as well as the avoiding of discomfort and loss of time.

Most North Shore Line homes also keep a low-cost 10- or 25-ride ticket always on hand for occasional riding by any members of the household—family or employes. They are good for bearer until used.

W. O. Eubanks, your North Shore Line agent, will be pleased to deliver a low cost weekly, 10- or 25-ride ticket to you. Phone Highland Park 140.

Deerfield Scouts Are Soliciting 200 Paper Pledges; Seeking Aid

Although complete returns could not be received, reports point out that the city was fully covered in the Pledge Campaign for paper. This paper will be collected monthly by Scouts, and on being sold the money will go to the Deerfield Relief Fund. The territory was divided among the four troops—50, 51, 52 and 75. While Troop 50 covered the extreme western part of Deerfield and the town of Bannockburn, Troop 51, 52, and 75 divided Deerfield accordingly: Troop 51, west of Waukegan road, south of Deerfield ave; Troop 52 west of Waukegan road and north of Deerfield avenue; Troop 75 east of Waukegan road.

Troop 52 reported having 20 Scouts soliciting and they together received 69 pledges. Mr. Russell, Scoutmaster, stated that the returns were gratifying. Troop 50, of which Fenton Hopkins is leader had two

Troop No. 1
Troop 1 met in the gym of Elm Place school on Monday evening, Nov. 16 and opened with the Flag ceremony and Girl Scout promise. The leader then gave announcements, chief in interest being the one about Camp Reunion to be held in DesPlaines, Maine high school on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 28. Patrols met in corners to work on Merit badges. The meeting ended with taps at 8 o'clock.

Troop 6
Troop 6 met at the home of Virginia Stockwell last Thursday evening. After a fun game Mrs. Reichelt of the high school told the girls a little about her work among the girls and showed how they as Scouts could help.

The troop expects to go to the Northwestern Observatory some time very soon. The trip has had to be postponed several items on account of bad weather.

Troop 2
Last Friday was teachers visiting day at Elm Place school so Troop No. 2 thought that day a splendid one for a hike. It rained, so a hike was out of the question, however, the girls gathered at the home of their leader, Mrs. Selfridge where they cooked lunch, cleared up nicely, and later bean bags and did bed making.

Scouts soliciting and received 19 pledges.

No complete return could be received from 51 and 75. The Scouts of Troop 51, in Helmuth Piepenbrok's patrol, received 24 pledges. It is estimated that about 200 Deerfield-Bannockburn homes pledged their paper to relief.
