Children's Robed Choir
Makes 1st Appearance

Before an audience completely filling St. Paul's church of Deerfield last Sunday morning, the children's choir of thirty-one voices made its first appearance, robed in new surplices. They were directed by Mesdames Lloyd Nelson and A. J. Wurth. Had the weather been pleasant the church could not have held the congregation.

The children sang "The Lord Is My Shepherd" and the closing benediction prayer, "The Lord Bless Thee and Keep Thee."

Children's services with devotions turned over to the interest of childhood have been conducted every two months during the past year, Sunday's program being the sixth and final service for 1931. Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok's sermon was presented to the children in a story which was of deep interest also to the adult members of the congregation.

Three children were baptized at the services and one at the parents' home: Roger Clifton Wageck, son of Donald and Mary (nee Reed) Wageck, born Aug. 2, 1931; Ruth Florence Fisher, daughter of Harold and Ida (nee Martin) Fisher, born Aug. 20, 1931, sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lagerhausen; Dale Elsie Anderson, daughter of Alfred and Elsie (nee Beckley) Anderson, born May 11, 1929, sponsors Mr. Arvid Anderson and Miss Helen Anderson. Baptized at home: Miriam Edythe Krause, daughter of Albert and Edna (nee Nicklas) Krause, born Nov. 2, 1930, sponsors, Mrs. Donald Easton and Mr. Ole Stensland.

Members of St. Paul's children's choir are: sopranos, Gladys Ott, Ruth Wahl, Zelda Hanner, Gladys Scheskie, Lydia Reeb, Carol Wahl, Shirley Sticken, Katherine Reeb, Alice Anderson, Gertrude Johnson, Ruth Horenberger, Gaylord Wahl, Charles Kapschull Jr., Edwin Sticken, Pearl Wilson, Ruth Mailfald, Glen Kapschull, Verna Gosswiller; altos: Beverly Jane Krause, Frieda Freeman, Grace Herman, Doris Ott, Dolores Radeke, Bessie Ott, Betty Krause, Frederick Piepenbrok, Louis Soefker, Marcella Lolmaugh, Bernice Gosswiller, Betty Wilson, William Hanner.

Deerfield Unit Well Represented at Meet

Eleven members of Deerfield Unit 738, American Legion Auxiliary, attended the eighth district meeting of the Auxilliary held in Highland Park, last Thursday afternoon, Nov. 19, when members of the Highland Park unit were hostesses.

Mrs. Pantelis of Highland Park, treasurer of the Department of Illinois, installed the new officers of the eight district: Mrs. Grace Tibbals of Waukegan, director; Mrs. Gotti of Libertyville, assistant director; Mrs. Eva Kirkman of Lake Forest, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Greene of Waukegan, sergeant at arms.

A very handsome past-director's emblem was presented to Mrs. Lucy S. Brown, with the deep appreciation of the entire membership of the eight district for her splendid leadership and untiring efforts during the past two years, when she served as district director. Mrs. Nora McShane of Waukegan, who served as secretary-treasurer during the past two years, was also presented with a token of gratitude and esteem by member of the district.

Mrs. Tibbals made committee appointments for the ensuing year. Mrs. C. C. Kapschull of Deerfield will serve on the district finance committee, and Mrs. John Farner, past-president of Deerfield unit, will serve on the district child welfare committee.

The eighth district Auxilliary, with the assistance of the Lake County Council, American Legion, and the Forty and 8, will sponsor a Christmas party for world war orphans in Lake County, which will be held at Lake Forest, the date to be announced later.

Auxiliary members of the district will also entertain the veterans at North Chicago hospital No. 105, on the evening of December 23rd.

Following the adjournment of the very interesting meeting, the members of Highland Park unit served refreshments.

"Contents Unknown"
Presented 2 Days

"Contents Unknown," a comedy-drama of mystery, presented by the young people of St. Paul's church on Friday and Saturday evenings of last week at the Deerfield grammar school, held the audience spellbound for almost three hours at each performance, provoking merriment and thrills aplenty. It was a society play and the costumes were of the most fashionable design.

For several years the young people of the church have been presenting a very high type of entertainment and "Contents Unknown" not only measured up to expectations, but surpassed former productions.

Mr. Leon F. Harris was called to Birmingham, Ala., yesterday morning (Wednesday) by the death of his father, Mr. Leon F. Harris.
