Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gately, who had come from down east to attend the dog show in Chicago were luncheon guests at the Albert Mitchell home on Monday. They were enroute to Milwaukee.

Mr. Alfred Mitchell of Bedford Hills, N. Y., who is exhibiting a fine string of dogs in Chicago and will go on to St. Louis to another dog show, is a guest at the home of his brother, Albert Mitchell, proprietor of the Rustic Kennels. The latter has also been exhibiting at the Chicago dog show.

Mrs. Dorothy Whittle, wife of C.
D. Q. Whittle, won a prize at the Western Specialty association's dog show at the 131st Armory, Chicago, on Saturday, with "Tansy Songster" who is a $1,000 Brindle Scotch terrier. Quite a bit of excitement was caused Saturday evening when the dog was thought lost. He was still wearing his ribbon when Mrs.
Whittle placed him in her car at the rear of the Armory and went for a sandwich. When she returned her dog was gone. The search ended when a garage man with whom the car had been left, reported that he had taken the dog inside for safe keeping. The Whittle home is just west of Orphans of the Storm.

to the north which will house the fire and street trucks. All village offices are to be moved to the Masonic temple when work on the building is Sunday many children came with their Thanksgiving gifts.

Eight girls of Deerfield Girl Scout
