

NT CHOIR AT THANY CHURCH

Musical Organization
ers Next Sunday;
Three Soloists

Love sacred music will treat in store next Sunday, Dec. 6, at which time the Covenant Choir of Christ the Bethany Evangelical at a 3:30 vesper. This organization was formed years ago through a selfless from the various firms in and about Chicago consists of about 40 and are well balanced and choral purposes.

Well Known

is well known through- Chicago area due to the that they have done in their annual concerts in all always draw a great ple. Their services are demand, singing in many the Chicago and sub- For a number of years ation has taken tours various states outlining of two to four weeks. nmer they met appoint- states of Kansas, Iowa, Illinois. Several years eived an invitation to den, while there they of Sweden and Norway concerts in a number al cities.

will be accompanied by on the coming Sunday, edberg, soprano; Mrs. alto; and Mr. Oscar ne. In addition to the bers on the program sing two numbers in d two numbers in the uage.

Olson of Highwood, nber of this organiza- trumental to a large ging this fine treat to y. Through his per- the chorus has offered s concert "Gratis," for f the "Building fund the Bethany church, n in progress for sev- nd will close with the ember.

nt Announcement

ement of considerable ll be made by the pas- per, he will also make egarding the progress gn up to the present ublic has a very cordial attend this fine treat- ment of this vesper over radio station morning in connec- Swedish services.

Neighbors Meet

ark Camp No. 5126, ors of America, will resting meeting on t Odd Fellows hall, A large attendance urged.

's Missionary society United Evangelical d their monthly meet- me of Mrs. Edward Oakwood avenue on noon, December 10 at

Local and Personal of Deerfield

Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Rockenbach of West Fremont announce the birth of a son at the Condell Memorial hospital in Libertyville on Tuesday, Nov. 17. Mrs. Rockenbach is the former Anne Lempinen of Highland Park. The little son, who is a great grandson of George Rockenbach, Deerfield nonogenarian, has been named George III.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fauchier of Chicago were guests at the W. B. Carr home on Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frey and two children spent Thanksgiving Day with Mr. Frey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Frey of McHenry, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyer entertained at a large family gathering on Thanksgiving Day.

Mrs. J. McGuire of Chicago has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Earl Varner.

Mr. and Mrs. John Grootemont returned to their home in Appleton, Wis., after a month's visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. G. A. Willen of Springfield avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Gauntlett motored to Birmingham, Alabama, where they spent last week.

Mr. Emily Frederick's two nieces and their husbands from Chicago visited at his home on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Chester Danforth and children spent Thursday with Mrs. Danforth's mother, Mrs. Snode of Park Ridge.

Two more cases of scarlet fever have been reported: Mrs. Herman Frost is quite seriously ill, and one of the little Reeb daughters is also in quarantine. Mrs. Frost's little son Harold also has scarlet fever. The latter case and two others developed last week, those of Ruth Herman and Helen Scully.

Mrs. Lewis Beckman entertained her luncheon card club on Wednesday at her home on Osterman avenue.

The Dorcas Society of the Presbyterian church is meeting Thursday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. Ira Gardner to mend for the Dorcas Home. Because of the bazaar on Monday, a half-day session is being held today instead of the usual all-day meeting.

C. W. Boyle has been appointed assistant commissioner of Boy Scout work in Deerfield. Raymond Dobbins takes Mr. Boyle's place as scoutmaster of Troop 51 and John Huhn, assistant scoutmaster.

Mr. and Mrs. William Neville entertained at dinner on Wednesday evening in compliment to their grandson and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Dobbins of Arlington Heights. Mrs. Dobbins, before her marriage, was Amy Robertson of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Bates and son, Carl John, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Mrs. Ida Rogers of Scales Mound, returning Saturday. On Sunday evening, they had as their dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. William Galloway.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Brand entertained their bridge club on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Raymond Dobbins entertained her bridge club on Tuesday evening at her home on Elm street. Douglas Hastings, who attends the University of Illinois, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hastings Sr. Two of his classmates who live in Chicago spent Friday at his home. On Tuesday evening of last week Douglas was one of the speakers at the "Tribe of Illini" gathered at the U. of I. annual banquet when the men received their athletic letters. He is a member of the Illini soccer team which has been undefeated for three years.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Swartz of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hastings of Evanston were Sunday guests at the D. Hastings home.

Robert Jordan returned to the University of Illinois on Monday after spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Jordan.

The Areme Club met Friday evening of Mrs. Clarence E. Huhn on Springfield avenue.

The Deerfield Girl Scouts, Troops 1 and 2, and Boy Scouts of Troop 52, enjoyed a hayrack party Friday evening. All enjoyed a weinie roast at Camp Oak before returning home.

Wallace Reichelt played the wedding march at the Lake Forest college chapel when Jeannette Mason and Victory C. Davey were married by Dr. Herbert M. Moore Tuesday evening. Miss Mason teaches in Northbrook and graduated from the Lake Forest college last year. Mr. Davey is instructor of modern languages at Lake Forest. Mr. and Mrs. Davey are residing in Highland Park.

J. F. Sprague, of Bement, Ill., passed away suddenly at the Deerpath Inn on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Sprague, who had been guests at the A. C. Stadler home on Tuesday, were staying in Lake Forest overnight so that their son Bryant, who attends college there, might return with them for the Thanksgiving holidays. The senior Mrs. Stadler accompanied Mrs. Sprague to Bement.

Miss Catherine Yaeger of Deerfield road entertained her card club at her home on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Harry Muhlke is reported ill with tonsillitis.

Mrs. M. Srebnik and daughter Ida of Harvey, Ill., were the week-end guests at the Solomon Shapiro home. Sunday guests at their home were Mr. and Mrs. Visse of Knox, Indiana.

The Deerfield Legion band is in full swing and practice was held Wednesday evening.

ANNOUNCING NEW PRICE RANGE

In tempo with the times our prices are proportionately lower - However, we still maintain QUALITY.

HATS — $5 and up

SHIRTS — $1.95 and up

HOSE — $.55 and up

NECKWEAR — $1.00 and up

Society Brand Suits — $36.50

We will gladly assist you with your "gift problems"

546 Central Ave.

Phone H. P. 2871

Hours during December 8:00 a. m. to 7:30 p. m.