WE'RE Not the Cheapest in Highland Park!

Although Our Prices HAVE Come Down

— But We DO Think Our Food IS best

We're pretty well convinced that when it comes to eating in restaurants, people think twice about making a bargain-counter of their stomachs. Prices, of course, must be within reason, but above all things, above any other consideration, they ask: "Is this the best food to be had?" So, we think that, quality considered, our prices are as reasonable as any . . . but not Cheap prices for Cheap food, but High Quality Foods at prices that are moderate.
