Claire Beneke entertained the active chapter of Theta Psi of Lake Forest college at a luncheon last Friday at her home on Laurel ave.

Saturday evening, at eight-thirty o'clock, Miss Elizabeth Robbins Phelps, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erastus Root Phelps, will become the bride of Lieut. Grant Eugene Hill of Fort Sheridan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hill of East Palestine, Ohio. The ceremony will take place at twilight in the chapel at Fort Sheridan, Dr. Louis Sherwin, pastor of the Highland Park Presbyterian church, officiating. The wedding will be a military affair, and the chapel will be decorated in palms and flags. A reception will follow the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. The wedding march will be played by Olga Sandor's trio. Miss Elsie Watkins is to be Miss Phelps' maid of honor and the bridesmaids are the Misses Lawrason Davis and Carlene Ehle of this city, Miss Elyse Rinkenberger of Benton Harbor, Mich., and Miss Hazel Stoddard of Minonk, Ill. Lieut. Alfred Vepsal will serve the groom as best man and the sabermen will be Lieut. Gunnar Carlson, Lieut. Ralph Cooper, Lieut. Alfred Gay, Lieut. Adam Koscielniak, Lieut. Field Tapping and Lieut. Fred J. Wood. The ushers will be Mr. Robert W. Phelps and Mr. Franklin Wakefield.

Mrs. S. J. Patterson of Forsyth, Minn., arrived here this morning from Northfield, Minn., where she spent several months visiting her daughter. She will visit her son Mr. George Patterson and his family of Deerfield road for several months. Mrs. Patterson is eighty-two years old and she made the trip to Highland Park alone. She has visited this city several other times.

West Side Merchants Grasp Holiday Spirit

The merchants in the upper Central shopping district have grasped the holiday spirit and are passing it on to all residents of Highland Park in the form of a lighted Christmas tree which will decorate that part of town during the holidays. The tree was sponsored by the business men in the block on the south side of Central avenue, between Green Bay road and Second street. It has been placed in the middle of the block where all may share in its beauty.

Tom M. Wilder Exhibits Paintings at His Home

Thomas M. Wilder, prominent artist of Ravinia, had an exhibition of his paintings in his home Friday, Saturday, and Sunday of last week. A large selection of pictures, including "still-lives" and landscapes hung on the walls of his home, where many people viewed them.

Mr. Wilder has painted a great deal around Taos, New Mexico, and he had a great many of these on display. Others of his work included flower pictures and canvasses of the Pacific coast.

Baked Ham Supper

A baked ham supper is being served this evening (Thursday) from five to seven o'clock, by the ladies of the Bethany church, in the church parlors. This is open to the public.
