DEERFIELD-SHIELDS LIGHTS AND HEAVIES BEAT "U" HIGH FRI.

The two Deerfield-Shields basketball teams defeated the two cage squads of University high school last Friday after school in the high school gym. The heavies triumphed 12-4, while the lights had a hard battle, barely topping the visitors 12-10.

Heavies Win in Slow Game

Although the Deerfield quintet led the "U" high basketball by only a 4-2 score at half time, the Blue and White men finally started to forge ahead in the second half to win. Tony Vignocchi led the Deerfield scorers with five points. "Irv" Garling showed some nice floor work on both offense and defense, ringing up three points for the home cause, while Lowe and Johnston did some nice playing.

Ransmeier managed to score the visitors only basket.

Lights Win Out

The lightweights also won from "U" high. Although the team was minus "certain" scoring aces of last year, they showed up well against that hard scrapping team from Chicago. Tom Jones and Caesar Pasquesi led the home team to victory with two baskets each. "U" high's scoring ace proved to be Howard with six points.
