

Local and Personal of Highland Park

Hot lunches will be served at the Deerfield and Wilmot schools and the opening of sessions on January 4. At the Deerfield school Mrs. A. J. Johnson will again prepare the luncheons. Instead of attempting a different hot dish every day, she will begin by serving soup and cocoa, at five cents a day.

The Girl Scouts of Troop One enjoyed a Christmas party on Friday afternoon at the Deerfield Presbyterian church. Mrs. V. W. Spriggs is their leader.

Mrs. A. M. Johnson of Chestertown, Ind., is spending this week at the home of her brother, A. J. Johnson of Osterman avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Olson and son Roger of Chicago spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Olson of Greenwood avenue.

Miss Anna Kruse of Chicago will remain with her niece, Mrs. E. H. Selig, over the holidays.

The Kirkhoff family moved recently from the Steffes house on Waukegan road which they have occupied the past six months.

New telephone directories for December were distributed in Deerfield the first part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Meurisse and two children of Dubuque, Iowa, will arrive this week to spend the Christmas season with Mrs. Meurisse's sister, Mrs. E. H. Selig.

Carl T. Anderson has been quite ill this week at his home on Chestnut street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Norton of Harvey, Ill., will spend Christmas with Mrs. Norton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Meyer.

Deerfield chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold its installation of new members on Thursday evening, January 7.

On Monday morning, Dec. 28, from eight until nine, the Deerfield school will be open to receive sandwiches for the Northwestern Settlement House. Mrs. Robert Johnson will be in charge, assisted by Mrs. W. J. Amendt and Mrs. Arthur Harrison. It is hoped that the response will be as generous as when school is in session, for the little children being cared for by the Settlement House are to be fed during the holidays in much the same manner as when the city schools are open.

With song and story pertaining to the Christ Child, the annual Christmas entertainment of the Bethlehem Evangelical church attracted many on Tuesday evening. "Granny Gay's Christmas" was the story read by Mr. Arthur Merner. It was interspersed with appropriate songs. The soloist of the evening was Mr. C. C. Fehr, who sang "He Shall Feed His Flock" from the Messiah, accompanied at the piano by his daughter, Mrs. Harold Peterson. After the program they went caroling for all those who had placed a lighted candle in the window.

Mrs. C. T. Anderson entertained the Tuesday Evening Sewing club this week

PLASTERER'S OFFICERS

—Courtesy Herald-Examiner

HOLD ANNUAL BANQUET—Photo shows officers of the Plastering Contractors' Association of Lake county, which held its fourth annual banquet last Thursday night at the Moraine hotel, Highland Park. Left to right: William M. Edwards of Zion, president; Oscar Reum, international president; Peter H. K. Grimson, vice-president; Oscar W. Rosenthal, president Illinois Builders' League, and George P. Baldwin, secretary.

The Prairie View Band presented an excellent musical program at the Deerfield grammar school on Saturday evening for the benefit of the Deerfield Relief Organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Muhlke and daughter Betty, were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. Murray of Winnetka.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Brand entertained at dinner on Sunday evening. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Eichler of Highland Park.

Mrs. Ingram Rasmussen has recovered from her recent illness.

Among the Deerfield young people who are home from college for the holidays are: Robert Jordan, Douglas Hastings, University of Illinois; Robert Hanmer, Cornell; Kenneth Wessling, Ames, Iowa; Olive Frantz, Edna Fritsch, Northwestern university; Jane Ashman, Carleton college; Wallace Reichelt, William Hanson, Lake Forest college; Hazel Rapp, Iowa State college at Cedar Falls, Iowa; Richard Wolterding, George Stryker, University of Cincinnati; John Derby, De Pauw university; Ann Warner, Keuka Teachers college at Keuka, New York.

MR. THOMAS W. CHALMERS

of the

GLENCOE RIDING SCHOOL

extends Greetings of the Season

And his sincerest appreciation to his many friends who have contributed to the success of the Glencoe Riding School during its first year.

A PRACTICAL XMAS GIFT

QUALITY REBUILT

UNDERWOODS

$39.75

Woodstocks $27.50

L. C. Smiths $37.50

Very Late Models

Rising Scale

Also New Portables from $35.50 up.

ALL MACHINES GUARANTEED FOR ONE YEAR ONE YEAR FREE SERVICE

Small Down Payment—Small Monthly Payments—Small Carrying Charge

WIEBOLDT'S - EVANSTON

Davis Street

Wilmette 1100

(Continued)

high pitched and vice speech is un and is the cu ing privacy 1 servation. A Grace called the audience say "Play-O Immediately lated it as: This was fur means of a ph

Following tion of "scami put in a call and in a few Colonel Shree representative of phone and Tel the use of th words of Col from across th ed like so muc the "unscran turned on they fectly. Colon was heard per loud speaker in Proj Highly fanta demonstration projection of sp human brain. waves were tra voltage electric directly into Mr then placed a fi of one of the m ence who imme the eerie sens things" althoug being uttered.

Mr. Grace to enthusiastic over tions about oth laboratories that in the Bell Telep of them have imp savings of hund dollars.

Other

The thundering method of sending phone, the artific gives speech to th created by muscu tarding of speech half seconds, the dial and the use mitter which is of fying the talks o were among: the ot onstrated.

Children of V School G

Children of the W sented the operetta Had to Wait" on directed by Mrs. D. Miss Donna Belle piano. The costumes w pretty and the song sung. The theme was a clever little s The crowded sch evidence of the fact um or large assembl Possibly in a few year made for one.