

ROLL CALL OF SKY LECTURE FEATURE

high pitches become the low pitches and vice versa. This "scrambled" speech is unintelligible to a listener and is the current method of obtaining privacy for radio-telephone conversation. As a demonstration Mr. Grace called for a volunteer from the audience and instructed him to say "Play-O-Fine Crink-A-Nope." Immediately the apparatus translated it as: "Telephone Company." This was further demonstrated by means of a phonograph record.

Hear London

Following the stage demonstration of "scrambled" speech Mr. Grace put in a call for London, England, and in a few minutes was talking to Colonel Shreeve, the European representative of the American Telephone and Telegraph company. With the use of the inverted device the words of Colonel Shreeve, coming from across the Atlantic, first sounded like so much gibberish, but when the "unscrambling" device was turned on they were translated perfectly. Colonel Shreeve's speech was heard perfectly over the large loud speaker in the auditorium.

Projects Speech

Highly fantastic was Mr. Grace's demonstration of the electrostatic projection of speech directly into the human brain. To do this the sound waves were transformed into high voltage electric current and passed directly into Mr. Grace's body. He then placed a finger against the ear of one of the members of the audience who immediately experienced the eerie sensation of "hearing things" although not a sound was being uttered.

Mr. Grace told an audience enthusiastic over these demonstrations about other products of the laboratories that are in general use in the Bell Telephone system. Some of them have improved service with savings of hundreds of millions of dollars.

Other Wonders

The thundering heart beat, the method of sending pictures by telephone, the artificial larynx, which gives speech to the dumb, the noises created by muscular action, the retarding of speech for four and a half seconds, the talking telephone dial and the use of a pocket transmitter which is of service in amplifying the talks of public speakers were among the other wonders demonstrated.

Children of Wilmot School Give Operetta

Children of the Wilmot school presented the operetta "The Toys That Had to Wait" on Friday evening, directed by Mrs. D. W. Meyer, with Miss Donna Belle Jensen at the piano. The costumes were dainty and pretty and the songs were sweetly sung. The theme of the operetta was a clever little story. The crowded school rooms gave evidence of the fact that an auditorium or large assembly hall is needed. Possibly in a few years, plans can be made for one.

Auxiliary Workers Have Busy Season

The extensive holiday program of the American Legion Auxiliary has made the season a busy one for the workers of Deerfield Unit No. 738.

On Monday evening, a week ago, Mrs. Dan Hunt, Mrs. Wm. Cruickshank and Mrs. LeRoy Meyers met with Mrs. W. A. Tennermann, at her home, to make gay with holiday wrappings the gifts for the forty-nine children at the Dorcas Home. Deerfield unit gave to each child a pair of stockings, and included in the packages were handkerchiefs, purchased with a check from the Highland Park unit. Toys were also given to the eleven World War orphans at the Home. Besides the stockings, Deerfield unit gave the Home an order for oranges for the Christmas feast.

Friday afternoon was indeed a gala occasion for the World War orphans of Lake county. Among the guests at the party at Lake Forest, given by the Eighth district, were eleven children from the Dorcas Home, Deerfield. Transportation was provided by the "40 and 8," and each child, in addition to the afternoon's fun, received gifts and a Christmas stocking. Mrs. John Farner represented Deerfield unit on this occasion.

Among the workers who tagged and wrapped Christmas gifts at North Chicago hospital Sunday were four Deerfield women, Mes. Dan Hunt, Wilson Neargarder, Frank Jacobs Jr., and Carl Scheer.

Several members of Deerfield unit attended the dance given by the Auxiliary, Eighth district, Wednesday evening, Dec. 23, at North Chicago hospital.

The Deerfield unit also sent Christmas checks to the Department (State) Christmas fund for hospitalized veterans; to the Department Child Welfare Christmas fund; and to the local Relief organization, for Christmas baskets for families in our own community.

Libertyville Water Rates Cut Slightly

With the minimum charge of $2.50 per quarter retained but with the rate for use of water changed, Libertyville housekeepers are in for a small savings in the future. Rates were raised a few years ago in the inland town to help in financing the erection of a water tower. The rates have been cut five cents per thousand will still provide a small surplus for the reserve fund. The former rate for the bracket between 6,000 and 25,000 gallons was 50 cents per thousand.

Bogus Check Artists Held to Grand Jury

Two alleged check forgers, John Damski and Thomas Karner, both of Chicago, were bound over to the grand jury by Magistrate George Rettig of Highwood last week. Their bonds were set at $11,000. The two men were arrested Dec. 12. Since then, they have been identified by several north shore merchants.

Woman's Club Has Christmas Program

A pleasantly informed meeting, with the Christmas atmosphere of kindly interest and helpfulness prevailing, was enjoyed by the members of the Deerfield Woman's club, last Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 15.

Mrs. W. B. Metcalf, the president, presided, and gave, in her own inimitable way, a report of the meeting of presidents of the Tenth District, which she recently attended. This report included interesting accounts of the activities of other clubs in the district.

Mrs. Robert Johnson spoke briefly of the splendid co-operation shown by the community in sending sandwiches to Northwestern Settlement; Mrs. W. A. Tennermann told of the work of the Deerfield Relief organization.

Mrs. C. W. Boyle took charge of the program, following the business session. Mrs. Carl E. Bates, in a charming and realistic manner, told Dickens' story, "The Cricket on the Hearth." Mrs. Ronald E. Wageck presented a most interesting history of Christmas carols, and presided at the piano while the group sang two of them.

Serving of tea concluded a delightful afternoon.

Girl: When a boy who bores me terribly, asks where I live, I tell him I live in the country."

Boy: Where do you live?

Girl: In the country.
