

Mrs. Louise Kenney
Passes Away Dec. 24
at Daughter's Home

Mrs. Louise Hopkins Kenney, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Lacy, Dato avenue, Highland Park, on Thursday evening, Dec. 24, was born at Barrington, Nova Scotia, March 10, 1863. The daughter of Isaac and Ann Cameron Hopkins, she was married August 10, 1899 to Jethro C. Kenney. After the death of her husband, which occurred on Sept. 26, 1923, she has lived most of the time in Chicago and in Highland Park, Illinois. Mrs. Kenney had been in her usual good health until July of this year when from this date she failed gradually until a severe stroke on Friday, Dec. 18 brought on unconsciousness which was practically unbroken until her death. She was a member of the Ravenswood Baptist church of Chicago. Funeral services were held at Kelley's chapel, Sheridan road, Highland Park, Illinois on Saturday, Dec. 26 at 2:30, after which the remains were sent to rest beside of those of her husband at Barrington, Nova Scotia.

She is survived by two children, Mrs. Kenneth Lacy of Highland Park, Illinois, and the Rev. James Cameron Kenney, who with his wife is serving in the mission field at Cedros, Trinidad, B.W.I., and two step-children, Mrs. I. Leston Nickerson of Larchmont, New York and Harold E. Kenney of Newton Center, Massachusetts, and one grandchild.

Chamber of Commerce
Entertains Vets at Great Lakes Hospital

The Highland Park Chamber of Commerce entertained over one hundred veterans of Veteran's Bureau hospital, No. 105, at North Chicago, last Monday evening.

An entertainment which lasted over one hour and a half was given, and among those participating in the program were Anne Howard of Deerfield, giving a group of blue songs, which were greatly enjoyed by the vets. Al Sheridan and Al Barnitz with saxophone and banjo gave a delightful presentation of popular music. Enea Picchietti accompanied by Mary Santi, Silvio Muzarelli with Alma Gallisini at the piano, presented a group of Italian melodies, including operatic and humorous numbers among their group. A quartet composed of Henry Hanson, Tom Thompson, R. A. Bryant and William Bowden accompanied by Robert Bridges, sang several selections.

The party was so successful that the boys from the hospital are anxious for a similar affair some time in the near future.

The committee in charge of the party consisted of W. Fred Gallagher, J. Howard Moran and Glenn Briscoe.

Enroute from his home in Rochester, N. Y. to California, Mr. Morris H. Meyers is spending the holidays with his daughter, Mrs. Arthur Raff, of Cedar avenue.

DISTRIBUTED ON CHRISTMAS

PHOTO BY HECKETSWEILER

Above is a picture taken at the Social Service headquarters of a group of dolls mended by the firemen and dresses for which were made in the sewing room of the Social Service headquarters. These dolls and hundreds of toys repaired by the firemen, together with candies, fruit, nuts, etc., were distributed among the children of the Dorcas Home and other underprivileged children. The firemen are grateful for the co-operation of the Social Service and of the many friends who donated toys and other articles for this good cause.

Bridge Tournament to
Be Held at Edgewater
Beach Hotel Jan. 18th

The Edgewater Beach hotel announces the first in a series of monthly Duplicate Contract Bridge tournaments, open to all comers, to be held in the ballroom of the hotel on Monday evening, Jan. 18, 1932, at eight o'clock.

Players are expected from all over the middle west. A number of prominent players have already indicated their intention of participating.

Seating and movement of pairs will be by the Mitchell progressive pair method, and match point system of scoring used.

Silver trophy cups will be awarded to winning pairs in each section of seven tables.

Pair entries, to insure acceptance, must be made not later than Thursday, Jan. 14.

Players will be served a buffet supper following the tournament.

Entries, accompanied by fee, should be sent to George W. Plank, tournament manager, in care of the Edgewater Beach hotel, Sheridan road, Chicago.

Services Held Dec. 24
for Frank Rechberger

Frank Rechberger, who died at his home, 4 McGovern street, on Sunday, December 20, was born in Eisner, Austria, 66 years ago. He was a resident in this city for the past twelve years. He was engaged in the tailoring business and had a shop in Lake Bluff. He is survived by his widow, Mary. Funeral services were held on Wednesday of last week in the chapel of the Bohemian National cemetery, Chicago.

Miss Ruth Berube having leave from the Mercy hospital visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. J. Berube of North Green Bay road on Wednesday. Miss Berube is a member of next June's graduating class at the hospital.

More Contributions Toward Washington
Bicentennial Film

The committee for the purchase of the George Washington Bicentennial moving picture film reports two new contributions this week, bringing the total so far to $230.00. As donations are hoped from at least two more organizations, it is believed that community lieved that community great historical memorial will soon be assured Highland Park.

In the event that there should be an oversubscription, all contributions would receive a pro rata refund with the exception of the D. A. R. Checks and questions are being taken care of by Mrs. E. E. Melling, treasurer of this fund, and Mrs. W. E. Danley, chairman of the committee.

The board of directors will hold their regular meeting January 5, at 10:00 a.m. at the Y. W. C. A. on Laurel avenue. Disbursements for patriotic education will be discussed.

Last Sunday, Dec. 27, a most delightful Christmas party was given by the North Shore chapter of the D.A.R. at the Hostess House at Great Lakes for the boys in training at the Naval Station. Music, games and light refreshments made up a pleasant afternoon.

To Meet January 9

The Central Council of Childhood education will hold its regular monthly meeting at eleven o'clock Saturday morning, Jan. 9, in the Central Eleanor club rooms, Stevens building, 16 N. Wabash avenue, Chicago. Teachers in and about Chicago interested in the Nursery school, Kindergarten, Primary, Intermediate, and Supervision and Teacher Training will find this meeting of special interest and are cordially invited to attend.

Laura Oftedal,
Chairman, publicity committee.

H. P. Contracting Firm
Appears to Be Low in
New Bids on Fort Road

Bids for approximately 60 miles of state highway paving costing nearly $1,750,000 were received by the state department of public works and buildings on December 21. Most of the work is scattered over northern Illinois. Bids are to be analyzed and the successful bidders notified as soon as possible. The only Lake county project provided for the paving of Sheridan road in Highland Park for a distance of 1.47 miles. The successful bidder appeared to be the Highways Construction company of Highland Park with a figure of $73,777.25.

John Turner Dies
After Long Illness

John Turner of Bloom street, passed away Christmas Eve at his home following an illness of several months duration.

He was born in Scotland, April 9, 1888, and came to Highland Park about 20 years ago, where he has resided since. He was employed by the N. P. Severin Co., Chicago Contractor as Foreman contractor, and was in charge of the construction of a Federal building in Duluth, Minn., also in the erection of a large building in Juno, Alaska. Up to August 5, when he returned home on account of ill health, he was working in Toledo, Ohio, on the construction of a building there.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at Masonic temple and interment was in Memorial Park cemetery.

Mr. Turner leaves his wife, Marjorie Sommerville and a daughter Barbara J., and one sister Barbara Turner of this city to mourn his death. An aged mother and 10 brothers and sisters in Scoutland also survive the deceased.

He was a member of the Masonic lodge and was held in the highest esteem by his many friends. The sympathy of the community is extended Mrs. Turner and her daughter in their sorrow.

Highwood Indians to Hold Big Dance

Heard around the "corner": Have you read last week's announcement? — or surely you've heard about it—what?

Oh, the big Highwood Indians New Year's dance. It's gonna be at the Oak Terrace school with confetti 'n whistles 'n caps—

And say—with those two famous fullbacks from Marquette university, Tony Ronzetti and Tony Kaufman, the program is a cinch.

Got the latest from "Sheik" Giorgi, club president, he says they're working to put it over big.

Yep, jazz music, Tom Brown's colored orchestra, they're goin' to pep us up 'round the early hours— Oh sure, dance starts at 9:00 p.m. New Year's eve and'll end in 1933.

Don't forget your girl, they'll keep the spirits goin'. See you there.

—Contributed

Girl Scouts up their regular holiday of fun, and very material mas baskets, toy Girl Scout tro are taking a sh In one large c pledged themselves is without suffic and books necess school. They ha have undertaken of these girls. The Girl Scouts give material at thing just as vita of their families The Girl Scouts ready and willing sible in this time upon us and see strate our third a Third Law: A useful and to help Fourth Law: A all and a sister to

TRAINING COMM 2 GIRL SCOUT C Two Girl Scout the very near futu bers' training coun bers only given by regional chairman, goinal chairman. The other, a gener in Girl Scouting, sh are working with and troop committe and by all interest a Girl Scout troop of Girl Scouts are happens at troop me be given by the loc Further notice as be given in next we

Lyons in Ar
Analyzes

In answer to nu garding the num legislative measur General Assembly regular session, Re ard J. Lyons ana an article appear issue of the publi tate." Lyons' report r bills were introduc and senate of wh acted into law. For were new laws.

Exactly 331 bills house of which 95 tion measures, 196 existing laws, one validating acts, and

FLORENCE
PIAN
Beginners and Adv
Matthay Relaxat
223 CARY A
Telephone Highlan

RELIABLE L
AND
DRY CLEAN
Phone H. P.
QUALITY LAUNDE
DRY CLEAN

MISS ANNA
Swedish Ma
also Reducing Trea
New Address—548 CEN
HIGHLAND AP
Tel. H. P. 915: if no a