Another case of scarlet fever reported this week is that of Philip Scully III.

About one and one-half tons of old paper were collected by the Deerfield Boy Scout troops. In all probability they will not collect again for several months.

Helen Reichelt is convalescing slowly from a serious illness at the home of her sister Mrs. C. C. Gates in Globe, Ariz., where she expects to remain for another month.

Mrs. William Seiler has scarlet fever. Her little daughter Ethel, also has it.

Bruce Blaine and little daughter Bobby spent Friday and Saturday at the home of Mr. Blaine's sister, Mrs. Jay Miller of Franklin Grove.

Mrs. Emil Giss is staying at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Emma Gosser of Long Grove and caring for her. Mrs. Gosser has pneumonia.

The Girl Scouts of troop one, with their leader Mrs. V. W. Spriggs, met last Friday afternoon at four o'clock at the Deerfield grade school. Principal C. E. Bates showed the girls an interesting film entitled, "Around the Clock With the Girl Scouts." The younger girls of this troop, who will work on signalling next week, will then start to learn bed-making, etc.

Eight girls of Scout troop 2 became Tenderfoot Scouts at an investment meeting Monday evening at the Deerfield Prsbytrian church. They are Bernice Juhrend, Edith Sherman, Lois Sturtevant, Jean Brand, Ethel Button, Dorothy Vetter, Evelyn Kent, and Mary Desmond. Shirley Clark and Josephine Schessler became Second Class Scouts at this meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hout will be hosts to their Wednesday Evening Bridge club next week.

Mrs. Elmer Hoffman and little daughter are expected home today from the Alice Home hospital, Lake Forest. Mrs. Hubert Juhrend and Mrs. Paul McHugh and their little sons returned home the first part of the week from the Highland Park hospital.

Bob and Bill, the two little sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Notz, have been seriously ill for several weeks.

Hot lunches are being served each day in both the Wilmot and Deerfield schools. Mrs. H. Phillips is supervising the work at the Wilmot school and Mrs. Henry Juhrend is taking Mrs. A. J. Johnson's place in the Deerfield school for several weeks. At first the latter school planned to have just soup or cocoa each day, but a little more of a variety is being served now to an average of fifty children daily. The majority of the Wilmot children remain at school during the noon hour. Miss Charlotte Brand was hostess to the members of the Friday night dinner club last week at her home on Deerfield avenue.

Mrs. Robert Johnson was assisted by her mother Mrs. Thomas Porter in the collection of sandwiches from the three communities of Bannockburn, Deerfield and Wilmot, on Monday morning, for the Northwestern Settlement House. Parents are asked to remember that each Monday is "Sandwich day," for the grade schools and each Wednesday at the high school.

Mrs. John Heafield will entertain her club at luncheon on Friday (tomorrow) at the Deerfield Ave. Tea room, followed by bridge at her home on Landis lane.

Miss Margaret Hunt spent the week-end as the guest of her sister Miss Ruth Hunt of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. John Benzli of Chicago, who had just returned from a visit near McAllen, Texas, were Sunday guests at the E. H. Selig home.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Deerfield Presbyterian church will be held Thursday afternoon, Jan. 21, at the home of Miss Sadie Galloway. Special attention is called to the time which will be at three o'clock. Miss Emilie Knaak is to be the leader.

A large group of relatives and friends gathered at the E. H. Johnson home on Monday evening to celebrate the birthday anniversary of Mrs. E. H. Johnson.

The Ladies Aid society of St. Paul's church sent a large ham to the Dorcas Home and the Sewing circle's gift was a bushel of apples. Gifts to the Bensenville Orphans and Old People's Home included six comforters; eighteen children's aprons, over fifty jars of preserves and jellies, two sleeping robes for boys, two hams and a quantity of clothing for the older people.

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet next Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Alexander Willman.

Elaine Miller of Bannockburn entertained in honor of her tenth birthday anniversary on Saturday afternoon.

A meeting of the Deerfield Volunteer Fire department is being held the latter part of this week. Plans will be made for their annual dance which will take place the first part of February.

While the Emil Giss family visited at McAllen, Texas, they spent a day with Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bowman at Harlingen, Texas. The Bowmans are former residents of Deerfield and Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Johnson were among those from Deerfield who attended the Radio show at the Chicago Stadium last Friday.

The E. H. Johnson family, accompanied by Mrs. George Pettis and Mrs. Swan Johnson of Half Day spent Sunday at the Arthur Gathmann home in Itaska, Ill. They also visited Mr. William Gathmann, who has been ill at his home in Arlington Heights for the past eight weeks.

Miss Genevieve Card and Mrs. Donald Easton have issued clever invitations to the members of the Teacher's Bridge club, for a "Backwards party" to be held on Friday evening at the Donald Easton home on Warrington road.

The Thursday afternoon Sewing club met last week at Miss Clara Ender's home. Mrs. Eugene Ender will entertain the club next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wolf had as their guests on Sunday, Mr. Wolf's brother and sister, Mr. Oliver Wolf and Miss Daisy Wolf of Prairie View.

Miss Rose English of Evanston is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Irving Brand.

Irving Brand, accompanied by Howard Huber of Highland Park, left Monday for a month's trip through the south, going to Key West, Cuba, St. Petersburg and New Orleans and to other places of interest before returning home.

Mrs. Philip Rommel will be hostess to the Sewing club of St. Paul's church on Thursday afternoon, Jan. 21, at her home on Deerfield avenue.

The choir members of the Presbyterian church have been holding their weekly rehearsals in the various homes for several weeks. Last Wednesday they met at the Fred Jackson home on Warrington road, and this week they gathered at the Woodman Todd home on Waukegan road.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Youngs entertained a business associate of Mr. Youngs from Minneapolis, at dinner, on Tuesday evening, at their home on Todd court.
