LEHMANN RETURNS TO CIVIC OPERA IN LOHENGRIN

LOTTE LEHMANN
as Elsa

MARIA OLSZEWSKA
as Ortrud

The eleventh week of opera saw Madame Lotte Lehmann, one of Europe's greatest favorites, again in the casts. Her first performance was as Elsa in Wagner's Lohengrin on Wednesday, (last week), and for this opera the Chicago Civic Opera mustered what was probably the greatest cast to be found anywhere in the world. Madame Lehmann will again appear in Lohengrin next Thursday, Jan. 21. Egon Pollak, beloved Wagnerian authority, was at the conductor's desk, and on the stage with Madame Lehmann were Madame Maria Olszewska as Ortrud, a role which is considered by many as her finest characterization; Rene Maison, the outstanding exponent of the part of our day as Lohengrin; Hans Hermann Nissen in his brilliant characterization of Telramund; Alexander Kipnis as King Henry, another magnificent portrayal, and Eduard Habich making a major role of the comparatively minor part of the King's Herald.

The balance of the week is devoted to repetitions of works which have proved among the most popular of the season.

Emil Johnson Writes Letter to H. P. Press

The following letter was received early this week from Emil Johnson a former Highland Park boy and will no doubt be of interest to many of his friends here:

"U.S.S. Tennessee
San Pedro, Calif.
Jan. 4, 1932

"Dear Sir:

"No doubt you will wonder who is writing to you from away out in California, but it is none other than a boy who used to do odd jobs around Highland Park. I have been in the Navy for the past eight years but I am sure you will remember Emil Johnson, son of Mrs. Nellie A. Sack.

"In can just picture the little city covered with snow, and Old Lake Michigan covered with ice and a cold wind blowing in off the lake. I surely wish that I were back there now for a visit. Of course it is nice and warm out here. I am based at San Pedro, Calif., about nine months out of the year. It is a very nice place too. We are going to make a trip to Honolulu, Hawaii, about Feb. 8.

"I am on board one of the biggest battleships in the Pacific fleet, the U.S.S. Tennessee. There is also another fellow from Highland Park out here in the fleet, Art. Genest, son of Joe Genest. He is on the Arizona.

"Do you still print happenings of each event of the year in your paper at the end of the year. If so would you please send me a copy. Thanking you I remain,

"Your Friend,
"Emil Johnson."
