

The HIGHLAND PARK PRESS

Reid Hall, administration building of Lake Forest Academy, which has been wholly remodelled and made fireproof since the fire which damaged the building last spring. The building incorporates the class room arrangement features introduced under the new Richards' plan of education, which has proved highly successful. This revolutionary idea has obtained for the school national recognition.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 28, 1932

AUTOMOBILE NUMBER