

The Highland Park Press

Member of the Chicago Suburban Quality Group of Community Newspapers

VOLUME XX

HIGHLAND PARK, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, JANUARY 28, 1932

NUMBER 48

GIVE ALI BABA AT ELM PLACE JAN. 30

Work of H. S. Drama Class and Is Sponsored by Woman's Club; Features and Cast

This Saturday, Jan. 30, the second in the series of children's plays, sponsored by the literature committee of the Highland Park Woman's club, will be given at the Elm Place auditorium at 2:30 p.m. This is the production all of Highland Park has been waiting for, the famous Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves.

The entire play, from the simplest costume through the most elaborate set, is all the work of the drama class of Deerfield-Shields high school under the direction of Miss Elise Rinkenberg, the class as a whole has been at work since the end of the Christmas recess, and the results of their study and rehearsing are evident in the almost professional way they go through their parts.

Oriental Music

They have arranged Ali Baba as a pantomime to Oriental music, with a story teller at the side of the stage to explain each action, so

(Continued on page 31)

Varied Program to Feature Ravinia Ping Pong Tourney

Arrangements for the Ping-Pong tournament to be held at the Ravinia Village house on Saturday evening, Jan. 30 at 7:30 are nearing completion, and the evening promises to be one of great interest and enjoyment for both participants and spectators. There will be a variety of events: Men's singles, men's doubles, women's singles, and husband-and-wife doubles. Prizes will be awarded to the winners of each event.

The high spot of the evening will be an exhibition match in which Dougall Kittermaster, who is widely known as a fine player, and Fuchinie, popular Japanese expert, will be the contestants. There is also to be a surprise feature, in which some of the village's most talented fun-makers will take part.

The committee in charge, headed by Mr. H. H. Small, urges that all Ravinia players take part in the tournament, and cordially invites residents of Highland Park and Ravinia to attend.

Hold Exhibit in Winnetka

Mrs. James Cady Ewell and Anita Willits Burnham are holding a two man exhibit at Matz hall, Community House, Winnetka, under the auspices of the North Shore Art League. The exhibit opened Sunday and will continue for some time.

Bicentennial Group Named by the Mayor Planning Programs

The George Washington Bicentennial commission appointed by Mayor Metzler has formulated tentative plans for celebrating this occasion in our community. Every church, school, club and organization is asked to sponsor individual programs during the nine months between Feb. 22 and Thanksgiving to observe the 200th anniversary of the birth of George Washington.

The chairman of the local commission, Mrs. E. T. R. Murfey, has pamphlets and other information which are helpful in planning programs.

On Feb. 22 the North Shore chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will present a program at the Elm Place school auditorium and will show the film "George Washington his life and times. They will have as guests the members of the organizations contributing to the purchase of this film.

Bunker Hill day, April 19 will bring a parade of all the children sponsored by the Community Service. The Fourth of July celebration will be in charge of the American Legion. On the Sunday preceeding Thanksgiving a community meeting will be held with a fitting program to honor George Washington.

Rossetter to Talk at Annual Banquet of N. S. Boy Scouts

George W. Rossetter recently elected president of the Chicago Association of Commerce and resident of Highland Park will be the guest of honor and speaker of the evening at the 5th annual Boy Scout banquet to be held Tuesday evening at 6:30 in New Trier high school. This is a public affair, highly entertaining. Places must be reserved in advance of 10 a.m. Monday, Feb. 1 at Boy Scout headquarters, Highland Park. Phone Highland Park 629 or Winnetka 629 for reservations.

Defer Building of High School Field

Construction of the proposed $65,000 fieldhouse for the Deerfield-Shields high school has been postponed indefinitely, it became known today. A deficit of about $70,000 in the expected tax payment due the township high school district has prevented completion of the contemplated improvement it is reported.

Approximately $75,000, which had accumulated over a period of years in the fieldhouse fund, is to be used for general school operating expenses, according to R. L. Sandwick principal.

February Meeting of High School P. T. A. on Feb. 4

The February meeting of the Deerfield-Shields high school P.T.A. will be held Thursday evening Feb. 4, 1932 at 8 p.m. in the cafeteria at high school. Mrs. Pfanstiehl, chairman of the program committee has arranged an unusually interesting program on some of the vital problems that parents are facing in the social life of high school students. The program will be a discussion of parental problems and parental standards using the questionnaires that have been distributed to a portion of the students as a basis.

Mr. Hiram Kennicott, Mrs. Louis Haller, Mrs. Simon Ruwitch, Mrs. C. W. Getty, Mr. E. J. Fucik, Mr. James Cady Ewell will each give a five minute talk on different problems suggested by the questionnaire. Mrs. Pfanstiehl will then follow by a general summary of the subjects and discussion will be open to all. Refreshments will be served.

This evening meeting has been arranged at the request of a number of fathers who have designated their wish to participate in the discussion. If anyone wishes a questionnaire kindly notify either Mrs. Pfanstiehl or Mrs. Gaidzik.

Pat Hanley Speaker at Rotary Meeting; Talks on Football

An interesting talk was made at the regular weekly meeting of the Highland Park Rotary club, Monday noon in the Moraine hotel, by Pat Hanley, brother of Coach Dick Hanley. Mr. Hanley gave an illustrated talk on the football games of last season, and the pictures shown gave a vivid demonstration of the scoring done during the season. The speaker was introduced by Dr. C. V. Nichols.

Ravinia Reading Club Meets Next Monday

The Ravinia Reading club enjoyed a fine program last Monday evening, consisting of a Book Review and Current Events by Mrs. Clock, readings by Mrs. Gurney and songs by Mr. Gurney.

Next Monday afternoon February 1st, the club will meet with Mrs. J. P. O'Connell, 865 Ridgewood drive. Each member is asked to bring her favorite poem to read.

Card Party a Success

The card party given Saturday evening by the West Ridge Community club at the West Ridge school was very well attended and was a most successful affair. Bridge and five hundred were played.

SUNSET VALLEY CLUB STATISTICS

Interesting Figures Give Information Regarding Activities Last Year

"A check of last year's registration records of 22 members taken at random shows that they played golf at an average cost of 38 cents per round," said Ray Anthony, chairman of the membership committee, in announcing the opening yesterday of the membership rolls of the Sunset Valley Golf club for 1932.

"One enthusiastic member, with considerably more statistical than golfing ability, reports that what he calls golf cost him 26½ cents a round last season. He played 94 rounds and anyone with a calculating machine handy can figure out his average score from the astounding fact that he took a total of 10,340 cracks at the ball. If he had worn a pedometer he estimates it would have shown his mileage to be no less than 430 miles traveled over the fairways of Sunset Valley, equal to a hike to Kansas City or Buffalo. And the tonnage of divots excavated!"

Urges Early Applications

The membership committee is asking for early applications, to facilitate carrying out many splendid plans for the coming season's play on "America's finest municipal course."

Approximately $10,000 was spent last year on improvement of the course and club house. Improve-
(Continued on page 35)

Mrs. B. F. Langworthy at Lincoln P. T. A.

The Lincoln school Parent-Teacher association will meet next Wednesday, Feb. 3 at 3 o'clock in the school auditorium. The speaker of the afternoon will be, Mrs. B. F. Langworthy of Winnetka. Mrs. Langworthy has long been interested in P. T. A. work. Just at present she is connected with the Illinois League of Women Voters. Her talk will be on taxes and will no doubt prove interesting and instructive to all.

The Illinois League of Women Voters as well as all others interested are invited to be present.

Ridgewood Park Ass'n. to Meet February 1

The regular monthly meeting and dinner of the Ridgewood Park association will be held Monday evening, Feb. 1, at 6:45 o'clock at the Green Tea Pot. Reservations may be made by phoning H. P. 11 on or before Saturday of this week.