

ANNUAL BANQUET HIGHWOOD CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

At the speakers table, left to right: Supervisor Wm. J. Obee, Assistant States Attorney George McGaughley, Dominic Tanerale, Mrs. Tanerale, State Representative Richard J. Lyons, toastmaster; President Raymond Molendi, Mrs. Molendi, Ex-Mayor and Mrs. Raymond Roth, and General Frank C. Bolles. Inside left: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glass; inside left center: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Axt; inside right center: Miss Gabriel Walsh and John Leonardi; standing at left: Mr. and Mrs. Sam Santi and State's Attorney Col. A. V. Smith. It's practically impossible to give the names of all.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT LEAGUE LUNCHEON

Interesting Program Jan. 20 at Session of Women Voters; Speakers Heard

A large attendance testified to the interest shown in the movement toward disarmament which was the subject of discussion at the luncheon meeting of the League of Women Voters on Jan. 20. At the board meeting in the morning, after the business was transacted, Mrs. George Moseley, chairman of the International Relations committee, gave a survey of the state of affairs in Central Europe and the Orient at the present time. These board lessons are open to all members. It was announced that plans are being laid for an evening meeting before the elections in April to hear from the candidates for office in Lake county.

Mrs. Clarence Balke, Highland Park representative on the county Affairs committee reported that she and Mrs. Hopkins, president of the league had attended some sessions of the County Commissioners in December and members were urged to be present at the next quarterly meeting in March in order to keep (Continued on page 31)

Y.W.C.A. Reception on Tuesday Afternoon Draws Large Crowd

The reception given at the YWCA Tuesday afternoon was well attended by members and friends in spite of the disagreeable weather. The president, Mrs. E. T. R. Murfey, extended a hearty welcome to all. Minutes of the last annual meeting were read by Mrs. R. Arthur Wood. Mrs. O. L. Olesen, finance secretary, read a treasurer's report and stated the books had been audited by Mr. E. P. Barnes.

Chairmen of the various committees were introduced but reports were dispensed with by giving out a leaflet containing a summary of the year's work.

The chairman of the nominating committee, Mrs. Jared Johnson submitted the following names to serve a term of three years on the board of directors, Mrs. Eugene Kern, Mrs. M. J. O'Brien, Mrs. E. L. Easton and Mrs. Dwight Davis and the re-election of Mrs. R. Arthur Wood and Mrs. Gerald Culver. Mrs. Hermon D. Butler of Winnetka, former president of Chicago YWCA, spoke briefly on the national convention to be held in Minneapolis this spring. Mrs. Ernest A. Johnson of the Lake Forest board of directors, spoke on membership. The chorus of the Highland Park Woman's club, directed by Mrs. Lawrence Meyer, and accompanied by Mrs. Jessie Wood Sincere, sang a most pleasing group of four numbers. Mrs. Lawrence Meyer also sang a group of four songs.

Tea was served by the membership chairman and her committee, Mrs. Lee Frank, Mrs. F. W. Ross, and Mrs. E. D. Brigham.

HIGHWOOD CHAMBER INSTALLS OFFICERS

Ray Molendi President for His Second Term; Other Officers; Banquet

Recently elected officials of the Highwood Chamber of Commerce were installed at the annual banquet Monday night of this week, at the St. James hall.

Raymond Molendi was installed as president. Assisting officers include Dominic Tanerale, vice-president; Albert Axt, secretary, and Walter Condon, treasurer.

New directors are Frank Hutchins, Charles Fiore and John C. Leonardi.

The annual chamber banquet, planned as a highlight of the annual program, was particularly attractive this year with well known speakers and several entertainment features.

Following the meeting proper, there was dancing in the St. James hall.

Annual Banquet

The installation banquet was attended by a large number of members and friends of the chamber, and President Molendi received an ovation when he assumed reins of office for a second term.

To Extend Road

At the banquet it was reported that the way has been cleared for (Continued on page 38)

First Aid Expert Instructs Advisers

Mr. Paul Muzik a first aid expert of the North Shore lines has volunteered his services in conducting the first aid class for the Girl Reserve advisor's dinner and training course.

Every Girl Reserve advisors is urged to attend this meeting. Dinner will be served at 5:30 Monday, Feb. 1 at the Highland Park Y. W. C. A. Such meetings have taken place for the last two years and are held once a month at the local association. At these meetings special attention is given to program making, problems and exchange of suggestions.

Mothers of Girl Reserves that are interested in Girl Reserves or the Y.W.C.A. are cordially invited to attend any advisers meetings or Triangle meetings at any time.

Death of Mrs. Bell

Mrs. Charles S. Bell, 61, died Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. J. Gray, 443 Egandale road, while on a visit here. She is survived by her husband also. The body was taken Monday to West Lebanon, Ind., where the service and burial were held.

Card Party Feb. 3

Campbell chapter No. 712, O. E. S. announces a card party for members and their families to be held Wednesday evening, Feb. 3. Bridge and five hundred will be played.

Party Saturday at Oak Terrace School

A party will be given Saturday evening, Jan. 30, in the auditorium of the Oak Terrace school for those people who have aided in various entertainments that have been given for the benefit of the general school fund.

The individual members of the board of education wish to show their appreciation of the splendid co-operation given them and this party is an expression of their personal gratitude. No part of the expense of this entertainment will be taken from any school fund.

The guests of the evening are to be the teachers of the Oak Terrace school, officers of the P.T.A., officers of the Acacia club of Fort Sheridan, and those people who assisted in putting on "Corporal Eagen" and "Meet the Family."

The gentlemen of the board say that they are going to give the ladies a night off and are planning something unique in the form of entertainment and refreshments.

Sheridan Lodge to Hold Card Party Feb. 9

Sheridan Lodge No. 662, I.O.O.F., will hold a card and bunco party Tuesday evening, Feb. 9, in Odd Fellows hall, Laurel avenue. Five hundred, bridge, and bunco will be played. Several valuable prizes will be given away including a door prize.