On Tuesday of next week there is to convene in Geneva a most important assembly—the World Conference for the Limitation and Reduction of Armaments. This will no doubt be the most serious and most concerted effort on the part of all nations to rid themselves of the "nightmare of competitive militarism."

The official opening of the conference will be at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning. Churches throughout the world will call attention to the fact by the ringing of the church bells.

Sunday, Feb. 7 will be devoted to World Disarmament and Peace. Not all people seem to agree on disarmament as a measure of permanent peace. Your pastor shall express his viewpoint on the matter Feb. 7.

Bethany Evangelical Church
Laurel and McGovern
H. F. Siemsen, J. S. Pritchard

Consecration services: Our 10 day series of "Consecration services" have begun and will continue thru Sunday, Feb. 7. These services will not only be inspirational for those who are interested in the church, but they will be of great help to those who wish to make the Christian decision. Rev. C. A. Bender of Baraboo, Wis., will be the speaker each evening at 7:45 from Monday through next Sunday.
