

The Highland Park Press

Member of the Chicago Suburban Quality Group of Community Newspapers

VOLUME XX

HIGHLAND PARK, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1932

NUMBER 50

BARGAINS FOR DOLLAR DAY SHOPPERS WED.

LOCAL STORES OFFER BIG VALUES FEB. 10

Stores and Shops Preparing for Big Event; Read the Ads; Shop Early

At a joint meeting of the Dollar Day committee, Board of Directors of the Highland Park Chamber of Commerce and representatives of the local newspapers, held last week, it was decided to fix a single Dollar Day date for Wednesday of this week, Feb. 10. Merchants have made especial effort to have exceptional values to offer their patrons in this big sales event, and in the columns of this issue of the Press will be found their advertisements of these offerings.

Watch out for Wednesday! It's the big day this week, the biggest Dollar Day sales event ever staged by local merchants, it is expected, and they are offering bargains to guarantee its success. Read the advertisements in this issue of the Press which represent practically every line of merchandise, all offered at attractive prices. And, here's good advice—Shop Early! Attractive window cards displayed in all business houses participating in this semi-annual event have called attention to this money saving day during the past week, and with the added effect of the large amount of advertising space in this issue being used by local merchants

(Continued on page 44)

Jesse L. Smith to Be Speaker February 12

Jesse Lowe Smith, principal of Elm Place school, Highland Park, has been invited to speak at the annual Father and son banquet at Grace Methodist Episcopal church on the evening of Feb. 12. Mr. Smith, a pioneer teacher in Highland Park, has been principal of Elm Place for thirty years.

Sheridan Lodge to Hold Card Party

Sheridan lodge No. 662 I. O. O. F. are holding a card party this evening (Tuesday) in Odd Fellows hall, Laurel avenue. Prizes including a door prize will be awarded. An invitation is extended all members and their friends.

Lenten Services at Trinity Church Here; Season Begins Feb. 10

Lent this year begins on Feb. 10, Ash Wednesday, which brings Easter at an early date, March 27. The extra services through this season fall on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays.

On the Thursday evening services which begin at 8:00 o'clock, a number of strong preachers secured from the Episcopal diocese will visit Highland Park as follows:

Feb. 11 — Rev. Howard Ganster from Waukegan.

Feb. 18 — Rev. Alfred Newbery from Chicago.

Feb. 25 — Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard from Winnetka.

March 3 — Rev. Charles E. McAlister from Evanston.

March 10 — Rev. Irvine Goddard from LaGrange.

March 17 — Rev. Leland H. Danforth from Kenilworth.

The first Sunday in Lent stands out as a great opportunity because of the presence of the Rt. Rev. George Craig Stewart, D. D., who will confirm a class and be the special preacher at the 11 o'clock service at Trinity church.

Lenten Services

Mondays at 12 noon—meditations and prayers.

Tuesdays at 4 p.m. — evening prayers and address.

Thursdays at 9:30 a.m. — holy communion; 8 p.m.—evening prayer and addresses by special preachers.

Sundays at 7:30 a.m.—holy communion; 9:30 a.m.—church school; 11 a.m.—morning prayer and sermon (holy communion on the first Sunday in the month); 4:00 p.m.—meditations.

Dr. Preston Bradley to Address Men's Club

Dr. Preston E. Bradley, minister of the Peoples church, Chicago will speak on "Two Great Americans" at the Men's club, Thursday, Feb. 18 at eight o'clock.

Dr. Bradley's especially timely talk falls between the birthday's of two great Presidents, Lincoln and Washington.

His stern messages emanating both his own pulpit and from numerous forums in Chicago and its environs, abounds in inspiration, instruction and entertainment. The Men's club welcomes everyone interested.

Woman's Club Holds Open Meeting Feb. 16 Friends to Be Guests

On Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 16, the Highland Park Woman's club will hold an open meeting, to which the members are invited to bring friends.

Mrs. Arthur Byfield, talented local soloist, will present an hour of Colonial songs. She is a member of the Highland Park club and needs no introduction to the members. She has appeared in numerous programs locally, as well as having sung before the Woman's club. Those who have heard her previously will not want to miss this opportunity to hear her again.

Dr. Allan D. Albert will be the speaker of the afternoon and he will speak on the "High Spots in a Century of Progress." Mr. Albert is a member of the Executive committee on the World's Fair of 1933.

Annual Meeting of H. P. Building & Loan Assn. Elects Officers

Reports of a very good year's business, with capital and earnings carefully invested in good mortgages marked the annual meeting of the Highland Park Building, Loan, and Homestead association last Friday evening. There was better demand for loans during the past year than in some of the previous years which enabled the association to place its loans conservatively.

Directors elected for three years are George Greene and Charles F. Grant (both re-elected) and Walter E. Meierhoff.

Officers were all re-elected as follows: W. E. Brand, president; George Greene, vice-president; C. F. Grant, secretary; Herman Schwery, treasurer; Bowen E. Schumacher, attorney.

Odd Fellows Hold Special Meeting Feb. 16

Sheridan Lodge No. 662, I. O. O. F., will hold a special meeting and dinner Tuesday evening, Feb. 16. The dinner will take place at six-thirty o'clock at the Green Tea Pot after which the meeting will be held in Masonic temple, at which time the Grand Master will make his official visit. The Waukegan degree staff will put on the third degree. Members are urged to make their reservation for dinner by Monday, Feb. 15.

HIGHWOOD PLANS BIG DOLLAR DAY FEB. 10

Commerce Chamber and Merchants Co-operating; Bargains Offered

Highwood merchants are staging a big Dollar Day sales event on Wednesday, Feb. 10.

The Highwood Dollar Day is being sponsored by the Highwood Chamber of Commerce, and most of the leading business houses of that city are co-operating with a view to giving their patrons some big bargains in merchandise.

This promises to be the greatest Dollar Day bargain feature ever put on in Highwood, and the Highwood merchants are sparing no effort to make it a big success.

Good Goods, Low Prices

With well stocked stores and good, new merchandise in all lines, the Highwood business houses are offering special values in many lines for the big day. The offerings are remarkably low-priced even for Dollar Day, and Highwood buyers will find it to their advantage to read carefully the Dollar Day advertisements of Highwood merchants in this issue of the Press. Look over their ads and select your bargains, then go to the Highwood stores early and select your merchandise. You'll find it just as advertised, and the prices will be exceptionally low.

The Highwood Chamber of Commerce and the Highwood merchants are working together to make this Dollar Day, Wednesday, Feb. 10, biggest event of the kind ever staged in Highwood, and thrifty buyers will find this one of the greatest opportunities in their experience to purchase good, staple merchandise at bargain prices never before equalled for economy and value.

Visit These Stores

Visit the Highwood stores whose advertisements appear in this issue of the Press and get in on this big Dollar Day offerings. They'll surprise you with their values and you'll be pleased with the result.

Formulate Plans for Firemen's Dance

The Highland Park Firemen are making plans for their annual St. Patrick's dance to be held at the Deerfield-Shields high school gymnasium, Thursday evening, March 17th. The proceeds will benefit the Firemen's Pension fund.