

DEERFIELD LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. S. Chester Danforth had as her guest last week, her sister from Park Ridge.

Mrs. D. A. Hastings and Miss Jean Bowers spent last week-end with Mrs. R. A. Swartz of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Knaak were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Mooney of Chicago, last Sunday.

A Washington tea will be given on the afternoon of February 22 at the Presbyterian church for mothers and grandmothers of the church school children. Hostesses for this annual party, are to be the church school workers.

Robert Jordan spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Jordan. The Jordans motored to Champaign the first part of this week when Bob returned to the University of Illinois.

Mrs. Irving Brand spent Thursday and Friday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. English of Evanston.

Dorcas Circle One and Three are planning a dinner on Thursday evening, Feb. 11, at the Presbyterian church. Serving will begin at 5:30 and the community is invited.

Miss Doris Hunter was hostess at dinner on Friday evening at her home on Westgate road.

Mr. H. C. Youngs left last week on a business trip to Seattle, Wash., where he expects to remain for about three weeks.

The next visual education film to be shown at the Deerfield Grade school on Friday morning, Feb. 12, is entitled, "Posture." These films are presented at 10:30 a.m. and the parents are invited to attend.

The Deerfield Parent-Teacher association will meet Friday afternoon, Feb. 12, at 2:30, at the gymnasium. Mr. Jesse L. Smith of the Elm Place school, Highland Park, is to speak on the life of Washington and will illustrate his talk with colored slides. There will also be a patriotic program by several groups of children.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church will meet Thursday afternoon, Feb. 18, at the home of Mrs. E. H. Selig of Waukegan road.

The card party at the Wilmot school, Thursday evening was well attended and bridge and five hundred were played progressively. Following the awarding of many beautiful prizes, a bounteous repast was served in the school lunchroom. Members of the committee in charge were, Mrs. H. J. Larsen, Mrs. C. M. Willman, Mrs. Ben Siljestrom and Mrs. Otto Trute. Other mothers assisting the committee in serving.

Carleton Good of River Forest, who attends Lake Forest college, visited at the Emil Giss home on Friday.

Miss Jennie Mele is working in the offices of Dr. Walter Metcalf and Dr. J. P. O'Connell, in the Citizen's State Bank building.

The Deerfield Grammar school teachers are sponsoring a card party on Saturday evening, Feb. 27, at the school gymnasium, to which the community is invited. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the school.

Chancye Barner of Mundelein who has been attending Deerfield-Shields high school for several years, enrolled at the Libertyville high school this semester. Chancye has many friends in Deerfield, who are sorry to have her depart from the local high school.

Mrs. Emma E. Wilcox of 815 Waukegan road passed away Friday at the Highland Park hospital. She is the widow of the late Walter W. Wilcox and mother of Walter L., Edwin A., and the late Arthur D. Wilcox. Funeral services were held Monday, Feb. 8, at the funeral home in Highland Park with interment at Graceland cemetery.

Mrs. Peter Perry has returned from Chicago where she has been visiting at the home of her grandson, Herbert Baxter. The Baxters little daughter, who was born January 17, has been named Dorothea. Mrs. Perry's daughter, Mrs. Edwin Beckman went to Chicago on Thursday to visit at the Baxter home.

The Juvenile Royal Neighbors will hold their first meeting on Thursday evening, Feb. 11, at the Deerfield Masonic temple, at 6:45. This meeting will precede the regular R.N.A. meeting. Mrs. A. J. Johnson is in charge of the Juvenile camp.

The first of a series of free public entertainments given by the Deerfield Dramatic League will be presented at its next regular meeting on Tuesday evening, Feb. 9 tonight, at the Deerfield Grammar school gymnasium. A motion picture, "From Trees to Tribunes," will be shown. Miss Ann Howard will sing and there will be a discussion of the next play to be presented. There is no charge and the public is invited.

A bingo party is being held Tuesday evening (tonight) at the Holy Cross parish hall to which the public is invited.

Rev. C. Arthur Jevne of Mundelein, Frank R. Sherwood of Lake Villa and H. D. Faxon of Highland Park, who are general officers of the Lake County Council of Religious Education, met Thursday afternoon at the home of the secretary, Miss Irene Rockenbach of Elm street.

Mr. J. W. Cooksy of Burlington, Wis., spent Friday visiting relatives in Deerfield.

Mrs. Roland Demgen of Highland Park is entertaining her Deerfield bridge club on Thursday.

Lois Sturtevant has dropped from high school, because of ill health.

Mrs. Harry Olendorf was hostess to her luncheon bridge club on Tuesday at her home on Hazel avenue.

Mayor and Mrs. James J. Hood are spending several weeks in the east.

Mr. Edward K. Williams has returned to Knoxville, Brown county, Indiana, after a brief visit at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. W. Russo. Mrs. Williams remained for an extended visit.

Emil Giss visited his sister, Mrs. Emma Gasser of Long Grove on Saturday.

The high school students will enjoy two holidays this month. Lincoln's birthday comes on Friday, and Washington's birthday is on Monday, so that both week-ends will be three day vacations.

Mrs. Emil Giss is giving a Valentine party on Saturday afternoon, Feb. 13, for members of the Mission band of the Bethlehem Evangelical church. Mrs. Giss is superintendent of the Mission band.

SAVE EVERY DAY THE AMERICAN STORES WAY

We take pleasure in joining this community event. Your dollar goes farther on "Dollar Day" and every day in one of our food stores. Start saving today and "Save every day the American Stores Way."

CAMPBELL'S ASSORTED

Soups

12 cans $1.00

Peaches

Amer. Home Calif. Y. C. Halves or Sliced

Apricots

American Home California Halves

Pineapple

American Home or Del Monte Hawaiian

6 No. 2 1/2 cans $1.00

COFFEE

National De Luxe

Vacuum Packed to Retain Flavor

3 1-lb. red cans $1.00

Our Breakfast

Protected by the Green Bag

6 lbs. $1.00

Peas

Amer. Home - Sifted Early June or Telephone

Corn

American Home Country Gentleman

Tomatoes

American Home - Solid Pack

9 No. 2 cans $1.00

P & G Soap

The White Naphtha

HIGHLAND PARK

7 South St. Johns Avenue

HIGHLAND PARK

503 Central Avenue

31 bars $1.00

DEERFIELD

Waukegan Road

HIGHWOOD

305 Waukegan Avenue

American Food Stores

THE QUALITY GROCERS OF THE MIDDLE WEST SINCE 1899

Our annual gins on Wednesday has set aside Ash Wednesday season of mission of our urged to acc and the Maste to the Holy witnesses of t ing that culm of Calvary. T izing Christ is deeply upon c flected more

Your attentio dow display, ited at the Me portraying in story of the of Jesus Chris traction for th the well know man's Gethsem it has been sa

we see the prayer. His u ful almost be bathed in light ven. This sha resent the lig dence, trust s and pain. The Savior's attitu but surely the ture conveys o sorrow. Critic fails to show a agony which

They have mis Jesus is an ag He is more, a v turns His face to heaven and but Thine, be d umph of perfe

dience."

Redeemer Evan West Ce

Rev. W. F Sunday school Morning wors

This week v Lenten season. Easter we shall ten service each On Monday ev council meets at On Wednesday cordia will be and Mrs. O. La

On Thursday dies' Aid will m Mrs. Axel Larso

enue. After the ser evening the Luth its regular mont

Highland Park P Linden and I Dr. Louis W. S

Church phon Monday. 2:30 Woman's M

at the home of 235 Prospect av Annual Opportu

Dr. Sherwin wi of the Presby sing. The wom are urged to be Tuesday: 2:30 The Presby meet in the h