TROOP 55 HAS KNOT TYING PRACTICE

Following the opening of our scout meeting on Feb. 5, ropes were passed out and we were given about fifteen minutes to practice our knots. In the contest of single and combination tenderfoot knots that followed, Kenneth Zimmerman came off with high honors. Soon afterwards, our scoutmaster announced that the papers that we collected would be taken away Saturday, and we spent some time getting them ready.

Word was also passed around of a treasure hunt for the next meeting.—Frank Appleyard, Troop 55, Glenview.

TROOP 35 IN TOTEM CONTEST

Advantage was taken of the short skating season by Troop 35. The regular weekly meeting was shortened. Attendance and dues were taken at the beginning of the meeting and was followed by a few announcements, the main one being about the Totem Pole Contest. Twenty scouts from Troop 35 are entering. The meeting was closed with the oath and law, after spending about twenty-five minutes on artificial resuscitation.—Scribe Art Baldauf, Troop 35.

SCOUT EXHIBITS DATES ARE FIXED

Dates and places for district scouting exhibitions (formerly called hobby shows) have been scheduled for each of the eleven districts of the North Shore Area Council, and scouts are busy preparing themselves for this big annual display and demonstration of scouting activities and hobbies. In each exhibition there will be a program of scouting dramatization, scouting awards and feature events. Of course, at each show there will be a multitude of scouting projects on display for public inspection.

This is the one event of the year for which the scouts are permitted by national council to sell tickets. All the money earned will go directly into the individual troop's treasury for equipment and supplies and will not go to the council.

The district commissioner in each case is in charge of the district exhibition. Here listed is the time, place, and commissioner in charge of each district:

Saturday, Feb. 20—Winnetka, Community House, R. B. Brown.

Friday, March 4—Deerfield, grammar school, Homer Cazel.

Saturday, March 5—Northbrook, school, Oscar Mueller.

Saturday, March 12—Highland Park, Lincoln school, J. B. Jackson.

Friday, March 18—Glenview, civic building.

Saturday, March 19—Wilmette, Howard school, Fred S. Page.

Saturday, March 26—Kenilworth, Sears school, Roy Jarrett.

Friday, April 1—Highwood, Oak Terrace school, Paul Muzik.

Wednesday, April 6—Lake Forest, Gorton school, Robert Roeker.

Saturday, April 9—Libertyville, high school, A. E. Johnson.

TROOP 49 ADDS ASSISTANT SCOUTMASTER

Troop 49, sponsored by the St. Mary's Catholic church in Lake Forest has reregistered for 1932, keeping their same scoutmaster and adding an assistant scoutmaster. The complete registration list is as follows:

Scoutmaster, R. M. Ketchum; assistant scoutmaster, Frank Dewey; chairman of troop committee, M. A. Herriges; members, W. L. Smith, H. B. Klaren, Rev. T. J. Neckerman; scouts, Tom Cameron, Edward Duggan, Raymond Herriges, Hugh Klaren, Daniel Messian, Charles Rose, Joseph Whalen, Robert Baldwin, Herbert Herriges and James Smith.

CUBS, SCOUTS, CONDUCT SCHOOL ASSEMBLY

On Feb. 5, the Cubs and Boy Scouts of the Ravinia school held an assembly meeting in the village house to show the teachers and younger children their different activities. The Cubs gave their laws, oath, and told about the meaning of the Cub Sign.

The Boy Scouts told the meaning of the twelve points of the scout laws. Then four boys offered first aid to a boy who was supposed to have a broken arm and a gash in his head and a broken leg. While this was going on we had to offer a little unexpected first aid to a boy who fainted. When the first aid was done, Mr. Copp and four boys sent a message in semaphore to a boy in the balcony.

When the scouts were done Mr. McManus from scout headquarters, showed a film of Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan, which was very interesting.—Assistant Scribe Henry Wilder, Troop 35, Ravinia.

TROOP 30 PUTS ON CAMP STUNT

Troop 30 of Elm Place school, because of their record attendance at Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan in the past two years, were chosen to put on a short camp fire stunt at the annual council banquet held with the attendance of over 1100 people at New Trier, Tuesday, Feb. 2.

In 1930, Troop 30 had 23 boys at the Council summer camp; in 1931 they had 26. Both years their scoutmaster, John Udell, spent the entire two weeks' period with the troop at camp. The troop is looking forward to another happy experience at Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan this coming summer.

At the banquet the 26 boys and Mr. Udell portrayed an evening campfire with songs, stunts, and stories in real Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan style. Many favorable comments marked it as one of the high lights of the evening's entertainment. Troop 30 had forty-four of their scout parents at the banquet.

TROOP 38 HEARS TALK ON MAPS

At our regular troop meeting on Friday, Feb. 5, Mr. John B. Jackson, Highland Park district commissioner, gave an interesting talk on maps; he also gave us a number of problems to solve. Prior to this, each patrol had a short business meeting. Near the end of the evening, the patrols had a hilarious race in boxing the compass. We closed with the scout law and oath.—Scribe Dan Teberg, Troop 38, Highland Park.

TROOP 30 RE-REGISTERS

With the 1932 re-registration complete, Troop 30 of Elm Place school marks the beginning of another fine scouting year. Mr. John Udell, scoutmaster for three years, will be the troop committee chairman this year. Art Olson is scoutmaster. On troop committee are S. A. St. Peter, Walter Cope, and E. T. Skidmore.

The twenty-five scouts on this year's registration include James Aubrey, Harry Eaton, Douglas Graves, Byron Howes Jr., Ted Johnson, Billy Larson, Bob and Dick Moseley, George Olson, David Pasquest, Cody Pfanstiehl, Francis Ronan, Vernon Rudolph, Jack and Jim Rutledge, Bill Schmidley, Sam Sherer, Don Siljestrom, Harry Skidmore, Alfred Stern, Tommy Thompson, Milton Tillman, William Tyson, Nathan Udell, Billy Watson.

CAN YOU SEE YOUR SHADOW?

MAKE THIS TEST IN YOUR KITCHEN

HERE'S an easy way to see whether your kitchen is well-lighted: Switch on the light and try to see your shadow.

If you can see a distinct shadow, you've made a discovery. All is not well with your kitchen lighting. Probably the fixture is not right. It isn't diffusing its light evenly over the whole room. Shadows make kitchen chores harder... may strain and tire your eyes.

Modern lighting fixtures for the kitchen enclose the lamp in a glass globe so it is completely shaded. This globe diffuses light brightly and evenly... does away with heavy shadows.

$4.95

The fixture pictured is only $4.95. It is trimmed in green, blue or black and has a handy drop cord with built-in electric outlet into which kitchen appliances may be plugged.

Other kitchen lighting fixtures as low as $2.50.
