

Attend Mid-Winter Conference Sunday

Three hundred and thirty eight Business Girls from Wisconsin and Illinois met at Milwaukee on the week-end for their annual mid-winter conference. The theme was, "My adjustment in this changing world."

1. "The need of mental hygiene in the life of a business woman."
2. "What my job means to me and how much am I worth."
3. "Relationship between the business girl and her home."

5. "Spiritual growth in everyday life."
6. "Rounding out my life."

The two principle speakers were Mr. George L. Collins, pastor of the First Baptist church of Madison, Wisconsin and Dr. William Ganfield, president of the Carroll college. Marion Davis, a business girl of Indianapolis, Indiana, who was sent as a delegate by the Business

Girls to the Cause and Cure of War conference held in Washington, gave a most interesting and helpful report.

CHURCH NEWS

Church Window Display

The central picture on display at the Meierhoff Hardware store on Central avenue this week is Christ before the Jewish Sanhedrin.

Do you know the whole story of that scene. Can you tell the real reason, why Jesus was condemned to death by the highest ecclesiastical court of His own people? Do you know in what respect it has a bearing upon you?

If you belong to the unchurched we extend a special invitation to you to attend church services during the Lenten season. We make no excuses for inviting you and will not admit that you are making any concessions to us by coming. We believe that we have what you need and you personally will be the gainer.
