

DEERFIELD LOCAL NEWS

Local a
of

Mr. George Karch spent last week at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Saeman of Cross Plains, Wis.

Alice, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Hopkins will be taken to the hospital next week for an operation on her neck.

Mrs. Arthur Merner, with her father, Mr. Moore of Chicago, left Sunday for Springfield to attend the funeral of the three year old son of David Moore. Mrs. Merner's little nephew's death was due to pneumonia.

Miss Luella Plagge of Chicago spent Sunday at the Floyd Stanger home.

The Areme club will meet next Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Edward Klug of Northbrook.

Members of the Mission Band enjoyed a delightful party last Saturday afternoon at the Bethlehem Evangelical church. Mrs. Emil Giss, the leader, had as her assisting hostesses, Mrs. E. J. Brusco and Miss Ruth Frantz.

Additional cases of whooping cough reported this week are Mark and William, the two little sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hout and Doris Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peterson.

Mrs. E. B. Jordan entertained at luncheon, on Monday, in compliment to Miss Winifred Ward of Evanston, preceding the play, "A Kiss For Cinderella."

A request for balls of twine has been made by Mrs. Robert L. Johnson, chairman of the sandwich committee, for Northwestern Settlement House. The twine may be sent with the sandwiches on Monday.

Miss Lulu Behrens of Evanston was the over night guest of Mrs. C. T. Anderson on Saturday.

Mr. Edward Warnshuis has returned from Maine and spent several days with his family at 761 Chestnut street.

Mrs. Harry Fowler will entertain the Thursday Afternoon Sewing club next week at her home on Hazel avenue.

A green and white hand-made quilt is to be given away St. Patrick's night at the card party at the Holy Cross Catholic church, which is being sponsored by Mrs. John Klemp, Jr.'s circle of the Altar and Rosary society.

Mrs. Irving Brand spent Monday in Evanston with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. English.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson and two children, Sylvia and Edwin Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. George Pettis, accompanied by Mrs. Swan Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Johnson and son Stanley, Jr., of Half Day road, were Sunday dinner guests at the Joseph Milligan home in Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Mildred Gibbs is spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Roy Haskins, of Wilmette.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Oellig of Wilmette were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Blaine on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brennan and son Edward Jr. were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mrs. H. Hoyt of Elgin.

Mrs. Henry Becker and son of Chicago were Sunday guests at the Rudolph Knaak home on Waukegan road.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ellis of Austin were guests on Sunday at the home of Mrs. Marry Huhn.

Betty Shulder of Chicago spent the week-end with her cousin, Charlotte Fredricks. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shulder and two younger daughters were guests on Saturday at the Emil Fredricks home.

The Get-Together club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary Trute of Forest avenue.

Retta Ree Hipsley of Northbrook was the week-end guest of Jane Warner.

Irene Juhrend injured her knee in the gymnasium at Deerfield-Shields high school on Friday. Dr. Kellogg Speed was called. On Saturday, she was removed to the Highland Park hospital, where X-rays were taken. The knee cap had slipped out of place and all the muscles and ligaments were torn, which necessitated the opening of the knee to replace the cap and fasten the torn ligaments. Irene was brought home from the hospital the middle of this week, and will remain there for several months, due to the severeness of the injury.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Rockenbach of Crystal Lake visited Mr. Rockenbach's father, Mr. George Rockenbach of Elm street on Thursday.

Mrs. Angelina Garrity Kindig has gone west to join her husband in California.

Mrs. Jardine of Chicago spent several days of this week with her daughter, Mrs. Harold Plagge.

Jean Pettis is entertaining twelve girls at dinner, Friday evening, at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Reichelt Jr., of Chestnut street.

Bert Easton has rented his house on West Central avenue to Charles Rouse of Highland Park. Mr. Rouse is professional golf instructor at Briergate Golf club. The house was formerly occupied by the John Radike families who moved to Highland Park.

Miss Barbara Huehl sang with the North Austin Community chorus on Tuesday evening. About 150 participated in the singing of the "Messiah," which was directed by Mr. Paul Vernon. It was given for the benefit of the Relief Fund and was sponsored by the North Austin Woman's club.

Miss Harriett Stryker left Friday for Dysart, Iowa, to be the house guest of her sister, Mrs. J. Kynett Haghen. She was accompanied by Wessley Stryker and Herbert Frost, who returned the first part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry K. Snider have returned from Omaha to their home, 1359 Stratford road. They had been the guests of their daughter in Nebraska.

Following the christening of the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Benson at the Holy Cross church, a dinner was held Sunday noon at the William Desmond home in honor of the event. Sponsors for little Patricia Louise were Mr. and Mrs. Bertolini (Anne Marchi) of Highland Park. Other guests were Mrs. Marchi of Highland Park and the paternal grandparents, William Benson of Chicago, and Mrs. F. P. Browning of Glenview, also Mr. and Mrs. Albert Krause of Deerfield. Mrs. McDonald's house on Chestnut street is being remodeled into two apartments. Alex Taylor is the contractor.

Miss Jane Karch was a guest at a luncheon on Saturday at the Hotel LaSalle, Chicago, followed by a theater party.

The Tireless Toilers were entertained at luncheon last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Roscoe Wessling.

The Tuesday Evening Sewing club will meet next week at the home of Mrs. Robert E. Pettis.

The Just Sew club is being entertained next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. Johnson Davis. Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Brusco spent Monday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hilding Oberg and Mrs. Sophia Brusco of Chicago.

Miss Edna Wilson and John Ariano of Highwood have announced their marriage which took place in November. They are residing with Mrs. Ariano's parents Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson of Saunders road.

Misses Mamie and Martha Karch visited in Chicago on Sunday.

The fire department was called out five times this past week-end to extinguish grass fires which had threatened near by houses. On Saturday they answered calls to Bannockburn and Briar Woods and on Sunday at the Jordan farm and in the Goldman subdivision. Monday evening they were called out about 8:30 to combat fierce flames in the John Woodman property near the oil tanks at the tracks.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Fredricks were hosts at a party, on Saturday evening, Dec. 20, at their home on Central avenue. The occasion was in celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The evening was delightfully spent in playing cards, followed by the serving of delicious refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Fredricks received many lovely silver and pewter gifts.

Mrs. James Wilson of Saunders road will entertain the Ladies' Aid society of St. Paul's church on Thursday afternoon, March 3.

The monthly business meeting of the Christian Endeavor society was held Tuesday evening at the Bethlehem Evangelical church, followed by a social hour.

Mr. Fred Horenberger celebrated his sixty-fifth birthday anniversary on Tuesday of last week. His little grandson, Bobby Klemp, of Highland Park spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Horenberger and in the evening Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Klemp were guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Le-Roy Scully spent the week-end with their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stace of De Pere, Wis.

Marshall Fredricks spent the first part of last week in Detroit, Mich.

Four birthdays and a wedding anniversary were celebrated Sunday, a week ago, at the Almon Rockenbach home in Crystal Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Johnson and son Willis spent the week-end with Rev. and Mrs. A. P. Johnson of Oswego, Ill.

Members of the Wednesday afternoon five hundred club enjoyed their annual theater party last Wednesday afternoon. They saw "The Blue Bird" at the Studebaker theater in Chicago.

The Holy Name society met Tuesday evening at the Holy Cross parish hall.

Miss Irene Evenson spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Shroeder of Half Day.

Doris Kreh has transferred to the Waukegan high school. The Kreh family is residing at the L. O. Brockway home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harder and son Melvin and Mrs. Harder's mother, Mrs. Harry Whitcomb spent last Sunday at the George Whitcomb home in Barrington.

Miss Alma Griebenow of Chicago is visiting at the home of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Fred La Bahn for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Juhrend entertained at a family gathering on Sunday afternoon and evening.

A hardtimes party was held on Monday evening at the Masonic temple. The Deerfield unit of the American Legion, entertained the legionnaires and the cast of the play "Rainbow of the Rio Grande."

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O'Connor and little daughter, Mary Therese, were guests at the Matt Borre home in Glencoe on Thursday evening.

Eight captains of the Deerfield Boy Scouts, Messrs. J. E. Flanagan, Robert Johnson, Max Keller, Henry Hirschenroeder, Marshall Pottenger, E. B. Jordan, John Huhn and W. W. McIlvaine attended the "Kick-off" dinner at New Trier high school on Friday evening, Feb. 16. Other Deerfield men who attended were Arthur Goelitz, C. E. Piper, S. M. Goeder, L. E. Lockwood, Lloyd Nelson, Martin Decker, Lloyd Vingard, Chester Wessling, T. G. Johnson, John Stryker, Walter Toll, Otto Trute, G. Koch.

Miss Bernice Juhrend is taking her sister Irene's place at the Grant home in Highland Park, while Irene remains at home because of an injured knee.

About twenty Boy Scouts of Deerfield troops 51 and 52 were called out Monday morning, to report at Blodgett, and assist in searching for a woman who had disappeared, the day before. The boys were out all day until dark covering that territory from Highwood to the southern limits of Highland Park.

Mr. Fred LaBahn is ill with "flu." Miss Francis Biederstadt and Mrs. Fred Horenberger have also been ill.

Mrs. Elme daughter wer Lucille Snow Monday.

Miss Margat spent Sunday Molly Pfister

Mr. and Mrs daughter, Mrs

Sunday with Mrs. Anna Bla Chicago.

Mr. and Mr daughter Shir

Ill., were Sund Mr. and Mrs. I

Miss Marian Arthur Gunder

ton, were marri ning by Rev. I

Bethlehem Eva Witnesses for were Mrs. Ear Olson.

Mr. and Mrs Saturday evenin

the home of Mr Yerger of Chicag

Mrs. Margaret guests on Monda

Albert Freese an

enwood. The senior p

Husband" is to b Deerfield-Shields

March 1. This i the play "Back S

by the Deerfield "Back Stage" is a ed on the previous The Reverend Techny, who is forensic ability, is on Friday evening at the Holy Cross

Mr. and Mrs. J Wilmot road wer

at the Connolly h James Richardso

four for Mrs. Elia cago and Deerfield clever autobiogr which appeared in magazine "The Pri It was reviewed by Sunday's Tribune a on the magazine w

zine is by far the reading that has c

some time." Mayor and Mrs.

returned on Wednes in the East.

Mrs. Honora Sm visited friends in De

day. Mrs. C. W. Boyle

honor at a surpris eon, on Wednesday,

her sister, Mrs. Tay Quite a number fro tended the party. Mr. and Mrs. Alber

Mrs. Fred Trute visi

gow's sisters Mesda

and Gottschlick of C

day. Miss Eleanor Seyl

Forest was the week

her sister, Mrs. Ben

Saunders road. Mr. Oscar Meyer o

was the guest of M James Mailfald on Thu

Mrs. Julia A. Carr

Mrs. Joseph Seyl