Y. W. C. A. Notes

74 Attend Foreign-born Party

The program Sunday evening, Feb. 28th at the Y.W.C.A. was entirely a Washington celebration. Mr. O. Tetslaff, of the Elm Place school gave a short talk on Washington. We are indebted to Mr. Robert Snyder of the high school for operating the machine, as well as lecturing during the showing of the picture. Sara Jane Murfey and Lucy Ann Reichardt were in colonial costume and gave quotations of both Lincoln and Washington. The committee served cherry pie and coffee.

Friendship Club Waffle Supper

Wednesday evening, the presidents and two representatives from the business girls clubs of Lake Forest and Waukegan Y.W.C.A. had supper with the presidents of both the Pi Delta's and B.Y.'s club and four representatives of Highland Park. This meeting was called to complete plans for the Nation-wide banquet. This is the fifth year for the banquet. It is so called because business girls all over the world use the same theme, sing the same songs and their speaker is sent from National. The theme for this years banquet is "Pioneering." Telegrams and cablegrams are received from all over the world.
