

MUNDELEIN
LIBERTYVILLE
DIAMOND LAKE
HALF DAY
RONDOUT
IVANHOE

Local and Personal of Deerfield

Mrs. W. J. Amendt, Mrs. Raymond Johnson, Mrs. Roy Albertson and Mrs. V. W. Spriggs attended a Girl Scout conference in Chicago on Saturday morning at the Drake hotel, at which the national chairman, Mrs. Frederick Edey, spoke.

Mrs. C. W. Boyle substituted four days of last week in Mrs. Gerald Grant's private kindergarten and nursery school in the Episcopal church at Glencoe. Mrs. Boyle and Mrs. Grant were classmates at college.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Minorini of Greenwood avenue were guests on Sunday at the home of Mrs. Carl Erickson of Rogers Park.

Mrs. E. K. Williams, who has been the guest of her daughter Mrs. F. W. Russo, this past month, is departing on Thursday for her home in Nashville, Brown county, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Petersen visited Mr. Petersen's sister, Mrs. Mary Lee, who is very ill at the A. E. Barnes home in Blue Island, on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jens E. Petersen and son Wallace, Mrs. Christ Mentzer and Mrs. W. A. Tennermann visited their aunt Mrs. Mary Lee in Blue Island, on Sunday.

Mrs. Thomas Porter, who has been the house guest of her daughter Mrs. Robert L. Johnson of Brier Hill, returned on Tuesday to her home in Paducah, Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seago of Winnetka have rented the August Winters house on Sunset court, formerly occupied by the Hubert McGuire family. Mr. Seago is a bond salesman for the North Shore Gas Co.

The Walter Hoffman family has moved from West Lake Forest to Greenwood avenue. Their two children entered the fourth and fifth grades in the Deerfield school on Monday.

Mrs. E. A. Wood, Miss Jane Wood and Edwin Jr. were the guests of Mrs. Wood's sister, Miss Elizabeth Knapp of Riverside, Conn., who is stopping at the Drake hotel in Chicago, on Wednesday.

Fred Coleman is to have charge of the Boy Scout troop 75 of the Holy Cross church and the meetings have been changed to Thursday evenings. Richard Kress has resigned as scoutmaster.

Spencer K. Heafield, younger brother of John M. Heafield, passed away Friday, Feb. 26, at the Heafield home on Landis lane, where he has been living since he became ill. Funeral services were private.

Mrs. Arthur N. Lee of Deerfield avenue, Deerfield, has in her possession a newspaper, "The Ulster County Gazette," published in 1800 which describes the funeral of George Washington on December 20, 1799.

Mr. and Mrs. John Weber returned Saturday from a several months trip in the west.

David Stryker received a bronze bust of Washington for submitting the best essay on Washington at the party given Tuesday afternoon at the Bethlehem Evangelical church.

Miss Marguerite Gibbons, who is staying with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Burr Hindahl, spent the week-end in Chicago with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Gibbons.

Miss Sadie Galloway will entertain her luncheon bridge club next Friday at her home on Deerfield avenue.

Mrs. Edna Stanger Orsborn has been quite ill with the flu.

Miss Lulu Behrens of Evanston was the week-end guest of Mrs. C. T. Anderson.

Mr. Eugene Ender reports that a pair of robins has selected his yard as a homesite and they have begun the building of a home.

Irene Juhrend returned home Saturday from the Highland Park hospital, where she spent a week following a severe injury to her knee.

The Ladies' Aid society of St. Paul's church is meeting Thursday afternoon (today) at the home of Mrs. James Wilson of Saunders road.

Mr. Fred Jackson and daughter, Miss Ruth, were the guests of relatives in LaGrange on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hatfield have moved from Mrs. Robert Brown's apartment on Chestnut street to 902 Osterman avenue, the former H. G. Clouse house, recently vacated by the Glen C. Russell family.

Thirty members of the Masonic order of Deerfield attended a banquet at the Glenview Civic building on Saturday evening. Masons from Deerfield, Glenview and Morton Grove participated in the program.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Bethlehem Evangelical church met Tuesday afternoon at the church. Mrs. Arthur Merner, the leader, had as her subject, "Africa." Mrs. Edwin Beckman was in charge of the devotionals. Hostesses for the social hour which followed were Mrs. T. G. Johnson, Mrs. Arthur Cashmore and Mrs. Mary E. Kruse.

Mrs. Minnie Tronjo of Chicago is spending several days with Mrs. G. F. Beardsley of Osterman avenue and also at the Henry Juhrend home. Mrs. Tronjo's son, William, spent Saturday in Deerfield.

Miss Marguerite Wolterding entertained at a delightful party last Tuesday evening, at her home on Bried Hill road.

place them in their town. The scouts carry week posters.

with the presence and the repeating of names Bailey was present; Lawrence Freeman were presented with a by Dr. Roberts. Dr. were present. We had a new game called Troop 46, Lake Forest.

meeting with the oath then put in a snappy the O'Grady drill we our ranks and began Those who passed the Blair Lloyd, Jim Rice, Price, and Bill Kelly.

troop circle and closed Indian sign language Reporter Billy Kelly, ark.

ROL NOTES hiked out to Mr. Vic there most of the the rest of the troop and their meeting at the There were three scouts were Traver and Dick Clark. The there was a talk re- Assistant Reporter were constrained to m featherbeds at the After breakfast Dr. loaded with knapsaks. ks started out. After with a lot of other peo- and skills, we got out ning east and west in some distance north of lel, with a height of us our goal. Dr. Riffel n as a student, and he hts to us. There were going in our direction, he well trodden paths, expert guidance of Dr. steeply through more We crossed the valley the hills, and climbed travel along the ridge to the Kandel.

ES IN NS

Gilbert of Kenilworth cousin of Philadelphia their hiking trip in the y.

the hillside through steep dle paths, we had o- e view of the long up- l could hear the water ing down it. Behind ep hill with a ruined id this was another hill we could see quite dis- eld glasses. We heard ified as a buzzard, but is quite a hunter, and animals. It was quite it was actually below at two and one quarter e came out on the top, wn on the sunny side and rested for a while view from here was e valleys went down the Schuainland, and at down into the town the considerably lighter via a rest house, but ne crest and go down t was too icy and dan- veral times on the way return to the same vil- had started, but went h, and from there we We got back to Frie- fee, after having done (Both boys carry pedo- an measure their dis-our ideas of hikes have o think that a walk of was a good hike, but n three to ten miles is ten to eighteen a nice over eighteen a nice ty-two miles one day.

Here
extra care assures
Superior Flavor

Extra care makes it extra good

BOWMAN'S Milk comes from only clean, healthy cows that are fed, housed and cared for according to the latest scientific knowledge. This assures a milk that is full-rich in cream, and rich in all the vitamins which make milk humanity's most perfect food.

Extra care on the farm and at every step from country to you makes absolutely certain that none of the richness, the goodness and fine flavor of Bowman's Milk is lost.

Treat yourself and your family to a bottle of this rich, delicious milk today. See for yourself how good it really is.

Phone Highland Park 2700

BOWMAN
DAIRY COMPANY
MILK

THE MILK OF SUPERIOR FLAVOR