Girl Scout News

Deerfield Girl Scout Troop One
An outdoor meeting was held Friday af-ternoon by Deerfield Girl Scouts of Troop One when they practiced signalling and played games. There were 24 present.—Jane Todd, scribe.

Deerfield Girl Scout Troop Two
Deerfield Girl Scout Troop Two met Mon-day evening at the Presbyterian church; only ten girls attended. They practiced sig-nalling with their captain, Mrs. C. J. Davis, and had their weekly gymnastics under the direction of Mrs. C. R. Sugden. A short business meeting followed.—Lois Sturtevant, scribe.

Deerfield Holy Cross Girl Scouts
We had a very large attendance at our meeting Monday evening in the Holy Cross parish hall. A new patrol was formed: Catherine Garrity, patrol leader; members, Marie Steinhaus, Viola Sherman, Rose Frost and Theresa Scavuzzo. The name of the new patrol is "The Wild Cats." The entire evening was spent in review-ing knots, laws, and the scout promise for tenderfoot test which will take place at the next meeting. Taps were sung as the clos-ing song.—Adelaid McGuire, scribe.

Girl Scout Field Conference
The Girl Scout Regional Field Conference held at the Drake Hotel on Saturday morn-ing, Feb. 27, was attended by leaders, coun-cil members, community committee mem-bers from all over Chicago and the outlying sub-urbs. The national Girl Scout president, Mrs. Frederick Edey and the national direc-tor, Miss Josephine Schain, were present and gave most inspiring talks. Never has there been a better opportunity for meeting and talking with these two national leaders, and all who attended went away with a clearer and better understanding of the Girl Scout movement and what it means to the youth of today, it is reported.

Evanston Leaders' Association Meeting
Miss Nell Woodward, local director of Evanston, invited the Highland Park leaders to attend a leaders' meeting at the Evanston Girl Scout headquarters on Tuesday evening, March 1. Miss Alice Conway, national field promotion manager, was present and spoke.

Training Course
The Girl Scout training course for leaders given at the public library each Friday morning will be continued for another two weeks.

Troop No. 1
Troop No. 1 meeting at the Elm Place scout room each Monday evening at seven o'clock, spent their last meeting in plan-ning for a hike which the Girl Scouts will take in the very near future and in signal-ling and making up games in patrol cor-ners to teach to the rest of the troop. Some very clever games were made up and were much enjoyed by the girls.

Troop No. 2
Troop No. 2 met on Monday afternoon in Elm Place scout room right after school. After the regular patrol corners and a pep-py game the leader and lieutenant, Miss Joan Goodman, took the girls for a walk down to the beach where they played games on the sand until five o'clock.

March is International Month
March is "International Month" and every troop at one of its meetings will want to honor the "round-the-worldness" of Girl Scouting. The names of the countries in the world bureau are in the Girl Scout Diary—the song book is full of their folk songs, and there are games and customs and costumes to make fascinating yet simple pro-grams, which can be worked out by patrols. March 12th also brings the 20th birthday of Girl Scouting in the United States and the thought of Juliette Lowe, our founder. After the inspiration of Mrs. Edey's visit, every leader will feel like celebrating this birthday with greater purpose, affection, and understanding.

Timber Trail Reunion
Timber Trail folders are now ready for distribution. Reunion will be held at the Girl Scout office on Saturday, March 26, at 10 a.m. A nose bag lunch will be served by the Timber Trail camp committee at a nominal fee. Be sure to go and renew old acquaintances and talk of plays for another sum-mer. Timber Trail is the Chicago Girl Scout camp situated in northern Michigan in the heart of the Hiawatha country. It is purely a pioneer camp and caters only to second class Girl Scouts who must be 14 years old, able to swim 50 yards and a Registered Girl Scout in good standing.

H. P. Press All-Stars Lose to Indians and Win From Northbrook

During the past week, the High-land Park Press All-Star basketball team played three double headers. The heavies won two and lost one, while the newly-organized lights dropped all three encounters.

The Highwood Indians took an- other close decision from the High-land Parkers, 34-32. The losers held an 18-14 lead at the half but the In-dians came back with renewed vigor and eked out their win in an excit-ing finish.

The fast Indian lightweight ag-gregation led from start to finish. The final score was 31-17.

On Monday evening, the All-Stars split even with the Black-hawks; "Mike" Segert was the scor-ing ace with twenty-three points. The Blackhawks led at half-time 12-10. The final score was 35-28.

The Press lights put on a rally in the closing minutes of their game but it fell one point short and the score was 15-14. Eddie Hart chalked up nine of the All-Stars' points. The games were played at the Elm Place gym.

Friday evening the Highland Parkers met the Northbrook Sports-men at Northbrook. The heavies emerged on the long end of a 42-21 score, while the lights were losing 28-13. "Mike" Segert was again the heavyweight luminary and "Sahm" Ugolini starred for the lights.
