

DEERFIELD LOCAL NEWS.

The Deerfield Boy Scout Hobby show will be held Friday evening, April 8, at the Deerfield Grammar school.

John Hagie's automobile, which was stolen last Tuesday evening from in front of John Vetter's home, was found on Sunday near Sheboygan, Wis., in good condition, and the two young men who had stolen it were taken into custody. The boys had been loitering in Deerfield Tuesday evening, on bicycles, and had been reported to the police. The bicycles, which were found after the automobile was taken, had been stolen from Highland Park and now have been returned to their owners.

Dr. and Mrs. V. W. Spriggs were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Koepke of Chicago.

The Independent Social club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Louis Soefker of County Line road.

Mr. and Mrs. Florian Savage are spending several months with Mr. Savage's mother, Mrs. Herbert Savage of Hazel avenue. Both Mr. and Mrs. Savage have been employed at the Edgewater Municipal Airport in Chicago, which has now moved its equipment and planes to the Curtis Airport at Glenview. Mr. Savage will continue his work as a pilot instructor at Glenview.

Mrs. Earl Varner is recovering from a serious attack of the flu.

Tickets are now on sale by the members of the Deerfield Chapter of the Eastern Star for their dance to be held Saturday, April 2, at the Deerfield Grammar school gymnasium.

Misses Margaret Hunt and Hazel Miller will be hostesses at the next meeting of the Deerfield Teacher's Bridge club. Miss Marian Mereness was the previous hostess.

Mrs. Florian Savage has been spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fisher in Dubuque, Iowa.

The Joseph Shulder family of Chicago visited at the Emil Fredricks home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Brand were hosts at dinner last Thursday evening at their home on Deerfield road. Covers were laid for eight.

Mrs. William Button entertained at a surprise party on Thursday evening, at her home on Deerfield avenue, for her daughter Ethel.

The Sunshine circle of the Bethlehem Evangelical church gave a surprise party in compliment to Mrs. E. J. Bruso, on last Thursday evening, at the parsonage, in honor of her birthday anniversary. The ladies came laden with lovely gifts and delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hertel and family spent Sunday at the Albert Wildhagen home in Prairie View.

Mrs. E. J. Bruso had as her guests on Thursday, her mother and aunt, Mrs. Hilding Oberg and Mrs. Anna L. Larson of Chicago.

Because of the illness of Mrs. Mark Andrews last week, the church school worker's conference was postponed until Tuesday evening of this week. It was held at the Presbyterian manse.

William Neville, engineer at the Deerfield Grammar school, has been very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Denver M. Courson of Waukegan were Sunday guests at the Delbert Meyer home on Sunset court.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Notz entertained on Sunday in honor of the second birthday anniversary of their son, William.

Five Deerfield teachers, Misses Margaret Hunt, Hazel Miller, Mabel Ablard, Genevieve Card and Dona Belle Jensen were hostesses at dinner on Monday evening to the Girl Reserve advisers of the Y. W. C. A.

in Highland Park, at the apartment of Hazel Miller and Margaret Hunt on Osterman avenue. Following the dinner was the regular monthly business meeting.

Josephine Schessler, Shirley Clark and Ruth Bolt accompanied by Miss Mary Ketch, young people's director of Religious Education at the Deerfield Presbyterian Girls' conference from Friday to Sunday at Chicago Heights.

Circle Number Three of the Ladies' Aid society of St. Paul's Evangelical church, Deerfield, will hold their third meeting for this year, at the home of Mrs. Johanna Lidicker, Highland Park, on Thursday, April 14, at 2 p.m. The members of this circle are urged to attend, as an enjoyable afternoon has been planned. The first meeting was held, January 27, at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Louise Anderson and the second meeting was on March first at the home of Mrs. William Steinhaus.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Gieske of Osterman avenue will depart in the near future for a month's trip in the West.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hammer and two children have moved to the home of Mrs. Hammer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Selig of Waukegan road.

Mrs. J. R. Notz attended a luncheon-bridge party on Saturday at the home of Mrs. William Blake of Chicago.

Billy Hawes, who is 8½ years old, has become a very enthusiastic ping pong player. Last week Billy and his father, Mr. H. C. Hawes, of Brier Hill road volleyed back and forth 219 times.

Isabel Sherman of Chicago spent last week at the Ross Sherman home on Osterman avenue.

Mrs. Joseph Dunn and daughter, Grace, Mrs. George Smith and Mr. Edward McDonald of Lake Forest were guests at the Love home on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Berry Devine and son Norbit and Mrs. Walter Hoffman visited Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Coley of Diamond Lake on Friday.

Mrs. Mildred Gunckel was the guest of Mrs. Joseph McCarthy of Highland Park on Wednesday.

Mrs. Agnes Clavey entertained at a party on Saturday evening, at her home on Forest avenue.

Mr. H. D. Richardson, psychologist at Deerfield-Shields high school, spent Monday giving tests to eighth grade pupils at the Deerfield Grammar school.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Seyl of West Lake Forest were guests at the Paul McHugh home on Saturday.

Miss Margaret Quinn and Mr. Rust of Chicago were guests on Friday evening at the S. Chester Danforth home on Springfield avenue.

Mrs. Harry Fowler was unable to entertain her Thursday Afternoon Sewing club last week because of the illness of Mr. Fowler. Mrs. B. H. Kress will entertain the club next Thursday.

Mrs. John Tulley of West Lake Forest spent Friday with her sister, Mrs. Molly Pfister.

Mrs. George F. Danforth, who has been visiting in Minneapolis for the past month and a half, returned home on Monday.

Mrs. Max Winters is in the Presbyterian hospital, Chicago, under observation.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frey and two children spent Sunday with Mr. Frey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Frey of McHenry.

Members of the Deerfield Brass quartet met at the home of Mrs. Holtse of Wheeling Thursday evening. They are preparing for their first public appearance.

Mrs. Chester Wolf and Mrs. Eugene Becker attended a banquet and conference of librarian trustees at the City club in Chicago on Thursday evening.

There were four automobile and truck wrecks in this vicinity last Friday night.

Mrs. Mary Koebelin is spending several days of this week with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mohrbach of Winnetka.

Miss Irene Rockenbach attended a meeting of the Council of Religious Education at the Waukegan Congregational church on Thursday evening.

Mr. Jacob Ott is still very ill. State's Attorney A. V. Smith of Waukegan called on friends in Deerfield Sunday.

Mrs. Ormon Rockenbach, who has been in the Elgin hospital, is now at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Brandenburg of Norwood Park recovering from injuries she suffered in a fall.

Miss Barbara Huehl was ill with flu and tonsillitis, last week.

Mr. W. T. Turner of Somerset avenue is able to be up again after a fall from a car in Chicago.

Father Joseph E. Savage showed motion pictures of his trip through France and Italy, at the March meeting of the Altar and Rosary society, last Friday evening at the Holy Cross parish hall, and gave an interesting travel talk. He has promised to show more pictures of Europe at several of the next meetings.

Mr. Marshall Pottenger of Franken Bros., Inc., of Deerfield, gave an instructive and informative talk on "Landscaping and Lawns" at the weekly meeting of the Deerfield Rotary club, Thursday noon, at the Deerfield Ave. Tea room. A series of Mr. Pottenger's interesting articles on garden subjects is being printed in the Press.

Miss Sadie Galloway will be hostess to her luncheon bridge club on Friday (tomorrow).

Mrs. W. S. Comstock entertained on Sunday in honor of the tenth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Jane.

The Kit Kat Kitchen, of which Clifford Hammer is the proprietor, has moved from the Moeller building, two doors south, to the R. M. Vant building, which was formerly occupied by the A. and P. store.

RELIABLE LAUNDRY AND DRY CLEANING CO.

Phone H. P. 178
QUALITY LAUNDERERS and DRY CLEANERS

GREENSLADE Electrical Contractor Electric Shop

4 South First Street
Telephone 555 Highland Park

SHEET METAL

and Furnace Work

ALL OF OUR WORK IS

GUARANTEED
PHONE 635

144 North First Street
Highland Park

Henry G. Winter

SPECIAL FOR
Saturday Night
Tenderloin Steak
French Fried Potatoes
Relish
45c
HOWARD-UDELL
CAFETERIA