Ravinia Players in Tom, Dick and Harry at Ravinia Mar. 22-23

On Tuesday and Wednesday, March 22 and 23, "Tom, Dick and Harry," by William R. Parker will be given by the Ravinia Players at the Ravinia Village house auditorium at 8:30 p.m. Tickets are now on sale and may be purchased from any member of the Ravinia Players or at their studio at 1319 S. St. Johns avenue, Highland Park. There are no reserved seats and tickets are good at either performance.

"Tom, Dick and Harry" is a delightfully illogical modern play. The plot centers around a quarrel between Tom Butler, a promising young playwright, and Mary his wife. When Tom very inconsiderately concludes this little domestic disturbance by "walking out," Mary finds it necessary to hire a substitute husband. The situations which arise are highly entertaining.

Following, is the cast of characters:

Mary Butler	Jacqueline Buhl
Tom Butler	Donald Vaughan
Irene Prescott	Harriette Golden
Dick Grayson	David Ewing
Sally	Mary Louise Mayo
Harry	Winston Long
Mr. Dudley	Robert Seyfarth

"Tom, Dick and Harry" is under the direction of Gertrude Williams, with Felicite Buhl as assistant. Mary Louise Whitworth, the properties, and Luella Ray, the off-stage sounds. Almyra Gibson is selecting the costumes which are being furnished by Ina Cortil. The complete furnishings for "Tom, Dick and Harry" are being loaned by the Alden Studio of Highland Park.

The business management of this play is being handled by Gertrude Williams, Enid Phillips, and Vera Purdy. Miss Purdy is in charge of ticket sales and the ushers for both performances. Robert Sellery is house manager.

The Ravinia Players have been in existence for two seasons, and this is their third three-act production. Through the backing of the board of governors of the Ravinia Village house and the support of the entire community, the players have been able to develop rapidly within the past two years, and have made a name for themselves in north shore amateur theatrical circles.

Sale of Children's Garments to Be Held

Due to the lack of funds and in an endeavor to provide work for the women who are unable to obtain it at the Social Service, a sale of children's garments is being planned to take place in the latter part of March or early April. The garments, which will include little dresses, rompers, play overalls and sun suits, are being made in the homes of the women who will do the sewing, from models and materials which are being supplied to them.

It is not too early to think of purchases for your child's summer wardrobe, and re-orders will be taken or duplicates of garments will be made on request. It is hoped that the exhibit will prove so attractive that the sewing can be continued without the financial support of the Social Service.

Dr. Solomon Freehof to Address Meeting of N. S. Sisterhood

On Monday, March 21, at 2:00 o'clock, the North Shore Congregation Israel Sisterhood will hold their monthly meeting in Glencoe, at the Temple building, Vernon and Lincoln avenue. An unusually fine program has been arranged. Dr. Solomon B. Freehof, Rabbi of K. A. M. temple in Chicago, will be the speaker, and a young pianist of great promise, Morris Wolf, will be heard in a program of tremendously difficult music.

Dr. Freehof, who is well-known on the North Shore, will talk on, "What I Believe About the Bible." Dr. Freehof, a graduate of the Hebrew Union college and also a teacher on that faculty, was a chaplain in the United States Army and with the A. E. F. He became the Rabbi of K. A. M. temple on the South side, Chicago, in 1924. His talks are always a privilege to hear.

Morris Wolf, who is 14 years old, gave such an extraordinary concert at the Playhouse theater in Chicago recently that he was immediately acclaimed a musical genius by all the critics present. Eugene Stinson of the Chicago Daily News said of him, "It will be well to bear him in mind. He has distinguished talent and a streak of genuine originality." He is a pupil of Isadore Buchhalter. Guests are always most welcome by the Sisterhood.

Jacob Arnold, Jr., Dies in Wheeling Monday

Jacob Arnold Jr., 77 years of age, passed away at his home in Wheeling on Monday following a two weeks' illness of influenza. Mr. Arnold's father's farm which he purchased from the government in 1883 is on County Line road, near Wilmot road, was where he grew to manhood. This farm was later purchased by J. A. Reichelt Sr.

Mr. Arnold has been a member of the hardware firm of Fossbender and Arnold for over forty years and had retired from active duty. The store which is situated at the corner of Dundee road and Milwaukee avenue is now operated by the Fossbender sons.

Mr. Arnold's first wife, who was Augusta Fossbender, passed away years ago. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Carrie Forke Arnold and two daughters by his first marriage, Mrs. Clinton Fritsch (Pearl) and Mrs. Florence Jarco, both of Highland Park.

Funeral services will be held this (Thursday) afternoon at 1:30 p.m. at the home in Wheeling and at 2:30 at the North Northfield Evangelical church with burial at the North Northfield cemetery on Dundee road.

The passing of Mr. Arnold and Mr. Martin Stryker marks the last direct contact of pioneer sons of the early Au Plaine settlement.
