

DEERFIELD LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Snyder have moved from Hazel avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Vinyard of Des Plaines have a baby daughter, born Sunday, Feb. 28. The Vinyards are former Deerfield residents.

Mr. Peter Petersen went to Blue Island on Sunday because of the death of his sister, Mrs. Mary Lee.

Mrs. Mary Lee passed away Friday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Barnes of Blue Island. Funeral services were held at the home and at the Libertyville Methodist Episcopal church on Monday, with interment at the Lakeside cemetery, Libertyville. Those from Deerfield who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Petersen, Mr. and Mrs. Christ Mentzer, Louis Mentzer, Fred Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Jens E. Petersen and Mrs. W. A. Tennermann.

Mrs. Earl Frost visited her sister, Miss Rose Nolan at the Presbyterian hospital, Chicago, on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Anderson entertained their bridge club on Saturday evening. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Willman of Milwaukee and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Norton of Harvey, Ill.

Mrs. George D. Richards is still confined to her home on Fair Oaks avenue, because of illness.

There has been a very decided decrease in the number of sandwiches for the Northwestern University Settlement House, which are collected each Monday at the three schools of Bannockburn, Wilmot and Deerfield. The need has become greater, just as the supply has started falling off. The committee is making a plea to the three communities asking them to please remember that Monday is sandwich day. To those who have not yet contributed, won't you please send a few sandwiches on Monday morning before nine o'clock?

A group of Deerfield women are planning to visit Northwestern University Settlement House in Chicago, on Monday. Members of the sandwich committee, of which Mrs. Robert L. Johnson of Brier Hill, is chairman, expect to visit and become more familiarly acquainted with the interesting work being done there. Anyone in this vicinity, who is interested, is invited to accompany them.

Mrs. Leslie Brand entertained at a luncheon and quilting bee on Tuesday at her home on Deerfield avenue.

The William Kelly family returned to their home on Fair Oaks avenue this week from Evanston where they had been staying at the home of Mrs. Kelly's parents, while they were in Florida.

Mrs. E. J. Long, Mrs. C. M. Willman, and Mrs. Charles Steiner attended a meeting of the Glenview chapter of the Eastern Star on Friday evening. The chapter celebrated members birthday anniversaries for the first three months of the year.

Miss Eleanor Seyl of West Lake Forest was the week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. Ben Siljestrom of Saunders road.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schroeder of North Chestnut street spent Friday with Mr. Shroeder's parents in Evanston.

Mrs. William Johnston visited Katherine Spencer of Marquette Park on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Parsons of Chestnut street had as their Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. T. Groatman of Barrington, Ill.

Samuel Lane of McLean, Ill. was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Berry Devine on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Petersen and Mrs. John Klemp, Sr., visited at the Ernest Diebert home in Chicago, on Sunday.

Mrs. George Danforth of Springfield avenue, is spending this week at the home of her son, Leland Danforth of Kenilworth.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Button and daughter Ethel were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vilgard of Chicago on Saturday evening. Mrs. Button and Miss Ethel attended a meeting of the Chicago Ladies Council No. 12 that evening and Mr. Button went to a meeting of the Kraftmen's Council of Engineers, U. C. C. of E.

Mrs. Emilie Glos of Northbrook celebrated her birthday anniversary on Sunday, at a small family gathering at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Notz. The party was to have been a large family reunion of Mrs. Glos' eight sisters and two brothers, but the family circle was broken by the death of her sister, Mrs. Anna Teitge of Chicago on Friday. Burial was on Monday at Forest Home.

Mrs. Raymond Dobbins will entertain the Areme club next Thursday evening at her home on Elm street.

J. R. Notz attended a banquet at the Shawnee Country club on Monday evening.

Members of the Mother's club of the Wilmot school met Tuesday at the school and made new curtains of green and white print for the school lunch room. Three portable electric sewing machines were brought to the school, to hasten the work. The mothers had luncheon with the children. Everything is being put in readiness for the Superior school dedication on Friday, March 18 at 2:30 p.m. The museum cases and desks have been painted and varnished, the floors have been chemically treated, all windows washed and everything has been given a thorough cleaning.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Meyer were Sunday evening guests at the D. M. Courson home in Waukegan.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Norton of Harvey were week-end guests at the Fred Meyer home. On Sunday, a family reunion was held in their honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Taylor (Ruth Rockenbach) of Glen Ellyn, announce the birth of a daughter, Virginia Ruth, at the Elmhurst hospital on Monday, March 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Willman of Milwaukee were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Huhn. Their son, Dale, was the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. J. C. Willman of Chestnut street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harder entertained at bridge on Saturday evening, at their home on Chestnut street.

Jacob Ott is still very ill at his home on Sunset court.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Seyl of West Lake Forest were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Paul McHugh of Osterman avenue.

Mrs. Margaret North entertained the members of the cast of the minstrel show, which gave its performance at the Royal Neighbor anniversary party recently, on Wednesday evening at her home on Central avenue. Prizes for five hundred were won by Miss Ruth Johnson and Mrs. Henry Juhrend.

Mrs. Leslie Behrens and her daughter Mary have both been ill.

Jack Gibbs, grandson of Mrs. Fred Biederstadt, was a member of the Boys' Glee club of the Chicago Junior school, which broadcasted a fine program last Saturday afternoon from 3 until 3:30 over station WCFL. The announcer described each of the young singers and told of Jack Gibbs' fearless blue eyes.

Don't forget the St. Patrick's card party tonight at eight o'clock at the Holy Cross parish hall.

Mrs. Irving Brand spent Saturday with her mother, Mrs. J. P. English of Evanston.

Mr. Vale Downey of Beaver Falls, Pa., visited with C. W. Holmes on Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shafer of Chicago were guests on Saturday evening at the Bruce Blaine home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miseles (Pearl Peterson) of Chicago, spent Sunday with Mrs. Frank Peterson. Mr. and Mrs. William Hellman of Waukegan were also guests.

Betty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Muhke, is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Hutchison and little daughter of Chicago were dinner guests at the S. P. Hutchison home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Rocquier of Gurnee were Sunday guests at the R. D. Reeds home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Hutchison were dinner guests at the Charles Jennings home in Chicago on Saturday.

David Stryker plans to enter the piano solo contest at Normal, Ill., this spring, when he accompanies the Deerfield-Shields Glee club.

Miss Frances Biederstadt will present her pupils in a practice recital at the Deerfield Presbyterian church, the latter part of March.

Dr. and Mrs. Hoover of Milwaukee are residing at the Kenneth Hoover home on Orchard lane.

Schools in this vicinity will be dismissed on Monday, April 18, so that members of the faculties may attend the Lake Shore division of the Illinois State Teachers association's annual meeting at the Oak Park high school.

A very interesting meeting of the Brotherhood was held Thursday evening at the Bethlehem Evangelical church. Two representatives of the Chicago Tribune showed a film entitled, "From Trees to Tribunes." About forty men attended. At the conclusion of the meeting, refreshments were served by Arno Frantz, Bruce and Herbert Frost.

Kenneth Giss, who is in the eighth grade, has been absent for three weeks because of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Schminke of Wheeling visited at the William and Edwin Koebelin homes on Friday.

RELIABLE LAUNDRY AND DRY CLEANING CO.

Phone H. P. 178
QUALITY LAUNDERERS and DRY CLEANERS

GREENSLADE
Electrical Contractor
Electric Shop

4 South First Street
Telephone 555 Highland Park

SHEET METAL

and Furnace Work

ALL OF OUR WORK IS GUARANTEED
PHONE 635

144 North First Street
Highland Park

Henry G. Winter

SPECIAL FOR Saturday Night Tenderloin Steak French Fried Potatoes Relish 45c HOWARD-UDELL CAFETERIA