Sunday school, 9:30.
Church service, 10:30.

On this Sunday, being Palm Sunday, a class of children from the Sunday school will be received into the church as communicant members. What a precious sight it is, to see eleven young people, after careful instruction in the Christian doctrines and practices, to publicly avow their faith in the Saviour, pledge allegiance to His church, and are then given the right hand of fellowship. Their names are: Clifford Glader, Raymond Rectenwald, Chester Blair, Anita Lewis, Peggy Hamm, Virginia Hamm, Edith Lindsay, Mabel Lichtwalt, Ruth Garling, Lorene Lindstrom, Esther Brandt.

During Holy week we shall conduct two services: one on maundy Thursday in commemoration of the institution of the Lord's Supper, and the other on Good Friday in commemoration of the Crucifixion. Both services will be held in the evening at eight.

The Lord's Supper will be celebrated during this holy season twice, once on Good Friday evening, and twice on Easter Sunday. Two Easter services will be held, a German service at 9:30 and the English service at 10:30.

On Good Friday there will be a preparatory service at 7:30, while at Easter the confessional service will be combined with the main service.

Dance Is Success

The annual dance of the Highwood Volunteer Fire department given last Saturday evening at the Oak Terrace school was a most successful affair. The attendance was large and the co-operation of the citizens was most gratifying.

make their own instruments in Mr. Dushkin's school and learn to play upon them. They play not only alone but in small orchestra groups.

Has Own School

Mr. Dushkin has had experimental groups in the Boys Latin school, the Girl's Latin school and Francis Parker school in Chicago. Last year he taught in the Glencoe public schools. This year he has established his own workshop and music school in Winnetka and has formed classes of children from all over the north shore.

The business meeting of the Parent and Teacher's association will commence at 3 o'clock. The demonstration of musical instruments by Highland Park pupils of Mr. Dushkin will follow at 3:15. Mr. Dushkin will lecture on his method after the demonstration. The children who will take part are Edward Lillienfield, Richard Hart, Carroll Binder Jr., Davida Clarke, Leonard Rieser and Arthur Dubin. To show how a family can have an orchestra all their own Leonard, Dick and Ruth Willens of Wilmette will play their flutes together.

The Ravinia Parent and Teacher's association extend a cordial invitation to the parent and teacher associations of other Highland Park schools to be their guests at the program to be given by Mr. Dushkin.
