"Old Lady 31" To Be Presented April 1st; Is Fine Production

As preparations for presentation of "Old Lady 31" near completion, its sponsors are more than ever convinced of the ability of the director, Miss Helen Boyce, and the carefully chosen cast, who have been enthusiastic and faithful from the first rehearsal. This play, chosen by the Drama Fortnightly club, has been presented a number of times in New York and Chicago, with a long list of successes to its credit. It is a simple story of a simple folk—a story of modern life depicted in the early '90's.

Don't forget that the theme of this comedy is a sure solution for all your financial worries and will drive away your blues.

The Presbyterian Guild is sponsoring "Old Lady 31" for the benefit of Laird Community House. This production will be given one night, April 1. Purchase your tickets now from any member of the Drama Fortnightly club or the Presbyterian Guild. Do not delay.

"Tom, Dick and Harry" Scores Big Success

Playing last night at the Ravinia Village house to a highly responsive and delighted audience, the Ravinia Players scored another smashing success with their three-act farce, "Tom, Dick, and Harry," by Professor William Parker of Northwestern university. Jacqueline Buhl, Harriette Golden, and David Ewing, three of the leading characters, and all making their first appearance with the Ravinia Players, charmed the audience with their respective presentations of Mary, Irene, and Dick. Mary Lou Mayo and Winston Long, both veterans, swept the audience into fits of hilarity as the maid, Sally, and her boy friend, Harry, while Donald Vaughan, who played with the Ravinia Players in their initial production, "The Dover Road," delighted the audience with his entertaining interpretation of Mary's amusing, playwright husband, Tom. Robert Seyforth, also a newcomer, handled a minor role in a very capable manner.

The play was directed by Miss Gertrude Williams, who deserves a large amount of the credit for its success. Miss Williams, it will be remembered, was presented a few weeks ago with a cup for excellence in direction in the one-act play contest sponsored by the Highland Park Community Service, Inc. The Ravinia Players were also presented with a cup for the best production entered in the contest.

Rotary Club Members Enjoy Old-Fashioned Spelling Bee Monday

An old-fashioned spelling bee was the feature of the Highland Park Rotary club program following the weekly luncheon at the Moraine hotel Monday noon. Two sides were chosen from among the members who stood along opposite walls and sat down as they failed to spell words correctly. The words given were taken from a dictionary and the contest proved highly interesting as well as causing a great deal of amusement for all concerned. Finally when only one member remained standing on each side, the session was adjourned. The two members who successfully spelled all words offered were R. L. Sandwick and Dr. Donald E. Rossiter. It was great fun and much enjoyed by all members who were present. Dr. J. D. Simon and Marshall Johnson conducted the affair.

Nation Wide Banquet for Business Girls Here Next Tuesday

Waukegan and Lake Forest business girls will be guests of Highland Park clubs, the B.Y.'s and Pi Deltas for their fifth annual nation-wide celebration next Tuesday evening, March 29. Nation-wide means that business girls all over the world are celebrating on the exact date as nearly as possible the same time and using the same songs and topic suggestion, "Pioneering." Alice Wescott Marks will be toastmistress and all toasts read will be poetry of her own composition. Margaret Cramer of Lake Forest will have charge of the music. Mrs. W. N. Tolles of Chicago will speak on "Pioneering for Peace." Greetings have come in from many foreign countries. It is a friendly chain which reaches around the world. Besides the 632 associations which are joining in the celebration in this country, there are the 49 foreign countries. This is one of the many ways the Y. W. C. A. has in building bridges of understanding between girls of other countries.
