

HIGHLAND PARK LOCAL and PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gallagher of Deere Park drive, announce the engagement of their daughter, Garri- gue, to Charles Alexieff Butland of Shanghai, China, son of Capt. George Butland of Seattle, Wash. The wedding will take place in the early spring. Miss Gallagher was educated at Les Fougères, Switzer- land, and Barnard college, and made her debut last October at a tea at the family residence.

Col. and Mrs. Henry B. Clarke en- tertained at dinner, last Wednesday evening.

The Misses Shields who are oc- cuping the F. P. Boynton residence on Sheridan road for the winter en- tertained informally at dinner last Saturday evening for Pola Negri, famous movie actress and the Polish Consul.

Mrs. George W. Rossetter of Lin- coln avenue entertained eight guests at luncheon yesterday (Wednesday) afternoon.

Arthur M. Wood who is a sopho- more at Princeton, will spend his spring vacation in Aiken, S. C., with a friend, William Edward Hughes, who is attending Andover, and his mother Mrs. Lafayette Hughes of Denver, Colo.

Mrs. W. P. Cutler and her daugh- ters the Misses Ann and Marjorie spent several days the early part of this week with another daughter Miss Mary in Cincinnati, Ohio, where Miss Mary is a director of nurses at one of the hospitals in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Sinclair left Monday for a weeks motor trip to Hagerstown and Philadelphia to visit their daughters Mrs. Donald Teetor and Mrs. John Bell.

Mrs. M. D. Packer of 924 Win- ona avenue, is entertaining twenty- five of her friends at dinner and bridge in the Hotel Belmont on April 3rd, she announced today.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred U. Neal of New York are spending this week with their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. John R. Childs of Bloom street. They will return to their home on Saturday.

Col. and Mrs. Henry B. Clarke entertained at dinner last evening (Wednesday).

Among those students who are at home for their spring vacations are Philip and Vincent Anderson from Cranbrook at Bloomfield Hills, Mich. They are enjoying a two weeks vacation.

Mrs. A. C. Dixon of Glenview avenue entertained the members of her five hundred club at her home last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Lief Norman entertained the P. J. club at dinner followed by bridge last Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bartel will entertain the members of the Press Bridge club, Saturday evening.

Miss Elizabeth Millard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett L. Millard who spent the past nine months in London, England, returned to her home on Saturday.

Irving and Lee Randall who are students at Woodbury Forest school, Va., are spending their spring vaca- tions with their aunt Mrs. Oscar Johnson of Chicago. They have been in Highland Park visiting friends on several occasions.

Mrs. Edwin Fulkerson is in the Highland Park hospital where she is undergoing observation.

Robert L. Wood who is attending school in Sante Fe., New Mexico, will not be able to return home for his spring vacation on account of the distance, so he will remain at school.

Miss Margaret Egan of the Uni- versity of Illinois is the guest of Miss Elizabeth Millard, this week.

Members of the Nominating com- mittee of the Deerfield-Shields high school Parent-Teacher association appointed by Mrs. Gaidzik, the pres- ident, at the last meeting, who will present a ticket for the approval of the association at the April meeting are: Mrs. Sherer, chairman; Mrs. Frank Peers, Miss Minnie Buzard, Percy Slocum, A. E. Wolters, Mrs. Fellows, Mrs. M. O. Hopkins, Mrs. Grinnell, Mrs. Clarence Balke and Mrs. F. C. Funk.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kress moved to Milwaukee, Wis., last Thursday where they will make their future home. Mrs. Kress was formerly Miss Gertrude Martin of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gaidzik en- tertained the members of Mrs. Gaid- zik's Night Public Speaking class at their home last Wednesday eve- ning. There were twenty-five pres- ent.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Iverson of S. Green Bay road celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary last Thursday. Many of their friends and relatives came in to help them celebrate in the evening.

Mrs. H. T. Bakke of McGovern street entertained the members of her five hundred club last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Felsenthal of Oakdale avenue, Glencoe are the happy parents of a son, born Wed- nesday, March 16 at the Highland Park hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sanborn and daughter Mary Lou will drive to Oak Park Sunday where they will spend the day with Mrs. Sanborn's mother Mrs. Rosenthal.

Miss Peggy Belden of Minneapolis, Minn., is spending several days here as the guest of Miss Ann Mills of N. St. Johns avenue.

Miss Madeline Bliss of N. Linden avenue who is a student at Royce- more in Evanston is spending her spring vacation with her aunt Mrs. Samuel Caruthers of Pittsburg, Penn.

Mr. Frank Austin of 924 Wade street returned home the early part of this week from a ten day trip to Cuba.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Nelson of Park avenue Glencoe are being con- gratulated upon the birth of a son born Monday at the Highland Park hospital.

Mrs. Raymond Sneed of Cen- tral avenue entertained at bridge last Friday afternoon.

The Misses Edith Hansen, May- fred Hansen and Mrs. Oscar Iver- son motored to Oconomowoc, Wis., Sunday, where they visited rela- tives.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Martin of Hazel avenue returned home last Friday evening from Florida where they spent several weeks.

Mrs. Sam Bernardi entertained the members of her bridge club last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bagatti of Prairie avenue, Highwood, announce the arrival of a son on Saturday at the Highland Park hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Farmer who spent the winter in Florida are ex- pected home the latter part of this week.

On Monday Mrs. Henry B. Clarke of Lake avenue entertained the Highland Park-Ravinia branch of the Infant Welfare society at lunch- eon. After luncheon Mr. Armour and Dr. Sanford addressed the mem- bers on the drive and stressed the urgent need for support during these trying times.

Miss Lebelva Connelly and Miss Elizabeth Bredin have issued invi- tations to the women of the faculty and the wives of the men teachers of Deerfield-Shields high school for a tea on Tuesday afternoon, March 29th from 4 until 6 o'clock at their home, 624 Lincoln avenue.

Mrs. Gregory Sheahan entertained the members of her bridge club on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernhardt Schmidt of Northbrook are receiving congrat- ulations on the birth of a son, born Monday at the Highland Park hos- pital.

Many of the younger school set will include in their vacation plans, the 14th annual reunion of Camp Bryn Afon to be held at the Black- stone hotel, Chicago, Saturday eve- ning, March 26th. Miss Marjorie Mercer daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mercer of Highland Park is serving as general chairman and is assisted by Miss Harriett Street of Winnetka, Miss Helen Daniels of Chicago, Miss Lorraine Matthews of Evanston, Miss Louise Blossom of Lake Forest and Miss Betty Crilly of Winnetka. Chicago and north shore girls will act as hos- tesses to the many out of town guests arriving for the Camp Bryn Afon reunion from all sections of the country.

Mr. Robert M. Cobb left last Sat- urday for New York to attend the annual meeting of the General Mo- tors company. He expects to be Circuit Court, L. J. Wilmot; for county auditor, Robert J. Pearsall; for coroner, John E. Walter, B. D. Lemery, Alexander J. Luik; county surveyor, Kenneth E. Young. Doubt- less many other acceptances will be received later in the week.

The league considers the office of precinct committeeman vitally im- portant and desires especially to have present the candidates for that office. Of the twenty-three candi- dates running for precinct commit- teemen in Deerfield township, only three have responded to the invita- tion thus far.

ELM PLACE BASKETBALL TEAM

heavies' pennant for 1932 offered by Deerfield-Shields High School. Members of the Elm Place Heavies Basketball Team, winners of the Back row, left to right—Harry Hart, coach; Richard Reichmann, Edward Fischer, George Kellner, Chester Skidmore, captain. Middle row—Edwin Johnson, Sam Sherer, David Swan, John Davis. Seated—Julian Abrahams, John Berkson, Howell Murray.