Hold "Student Stunts" Tryouts All This Week

DEERFIELD RECEIVES MARK OF EXCELLENT

15 BANDS PARTICIPATE

Playing Holds Attention of Audience. Band Costumes Colorful

The Deerfield-Shields bandmen received the rating "excellent" in the Northeast District band contest held at this school last Saturday, March 19. This rating was of the second highest awarded.

Superior Ratings

Two bands, in Class A, two bands in Class B, and one band in Class C received the "superior" rating, the highest award given. Morton high school and Proviso high school were rated "superior" in Class A, Leyden high school and Blue Island high school in Class B, and Harvey high school in Class C.

Witnessing the band contest was a large crowd, the members of which proved to be real sportsmen. Following each piece that the bands played, the audience gave the contestants a good hand. Loyal supporters followed each band and gave them encouragement.

Copies of the special band edition of the Shoreline were sold at the contest by members of the advanced journalism class. These served as souvenirs of the contest as well as programs.

March in Parade

Three bands, Proviso high school band, Deerfield-Shields high school band, and the Northbrook Junior high school band marched through the business district of Highland Park following the contest. All the other bands were to have taken part in the parade also, but due to the lateness of the hour they were forced to get started for home.

Following are the results of the bands in their respective classes:

Harriette Golden

Harriette Golden, a former Deerfield-Shields student, will play one of the leading roles in "Tom, Dick and Harry," to be presented by the Ravinia Players in the Ravinia Village House auditorium Tuesday and Wednesday, March 22 and 23.

"MARCHY" SCHWARTZ WILL BE SPEAKER AT BOYS CLUB BANQUET

"Marchy" Schwartz, the All-American half-back from Notre Dame, will be the principal speaker at the annual Boys club banquet to be held one week from Friday, April 1. The coaches of the athletic teams will also deliver short talks on boys' activities. Paul Rubly will be the toastmaster.

It is necessary to buy your ticket immediately, as they will not be sold after Friday. These tickets can be secured from any Boys club representative, and they will be sold in all boys' sessions today. The tickets can also be purchased at the main councilor post after school until Friday.

An excellent program is being planned for all those who attend, and, although this is not a Father and Sons banquet, fathers are invited.

ORCHESTRA WILL PLAY IN ASSEMBLY FRIDAY

Seventy members of the orchestra will play in assembly Friday, March 25, under the direction of Mrs. Mannings.

The pieces that will be played are "The Talisman," by Brockton; "Valse Mignonne," by Drigo; "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers," by Jessel; and "March, El Capitan," by Sousa.

The new members which have joined the orchestra this semester are Edward West, Orrin Spaulding, Robert Williams, and Sibyl Anderson.

D.S.H.S. ALUMNUS HAS LEAD IN PLAY

Harriette Golden, a former Deerfield-Shields student, will play one of the leading roles in "Tom, Dick and Harry," to be presented by the Ravinia Players in the Ravinia Village house auditorium Tuesday and Wednesday, March 22 and 23.

"Tom, Dick and Harry," a three-act farce comedy by Prof. Wm. R. Parker of Northwestern university, will be produced on Tuesday and Wednesday, March 22 and 23, by the Ravinia Players at the Ravinia Village house auditorium. The curtain will rise at 8:30 p.m.

Members of the cast and staff include a great many Deerfield-Shield's alumni. "Tom, Dick, and Harry" is under the direction of Gertrude Williams '29, and two of the leading roles are being carried by Harriette Golden and Donald Vaughan of the same class. Other members of the cast are Jacqueline Buhl, Mary Louise Mayo, David Ewing, Winston Long, and Robert Seyfarth.

"Tom, Dick, and Harry" is a clever modern play. It presents a series of amusing situations when a young bride, after quarrelling with her husband, attempts to hire a substitute.

The Ravinia Players have been in existence for two seasons, and this is their third three-act production. Many graduates of Deerfield-Shields who were active in dramatics when in high school have found that the Players' activities present an opportunity to continue along amateur theatrical lines.

Miss Josephine Buhl, whose two other sisters are active members in the Ravinia Players, is selling tickets for "Tom, Dick, and Harry." There are no reserved seats and tickets are good for either performance.

MORE COMPETITION THAN EVER BEFORE

2 COMMITTEES TO JUDGE

Show Is To Be of Same Type As In Past; To Be Given April 29

Tryouts for "Student Stunts" began last night after school in the auditorium and will continue for the remainder of the week.

"There have been many people out, but I hope there are hundreds more," said Miss Rinkenberger.

Miss Rinkenberger wants between twenty and twenty-five acts for this year's "Student Stunts," each one as new and as different as possible.

Requirements for the tryouts are quite simple. Each act must be ready to give or at least very definitely planned and must not last more than six minutes. Miss Rinkenberger will give every possible assistance to those trying out.

Come on out! You may feel that you are not professional enough, but "Student Stunts" is not meant to be professional!

Selection of the acts will rest with the faculty and P.T.A. committees. The regular school casting committee is comprised of Miss Rinkenberger, Miss Connelly, Mrs. Peers, Mr. Slocum, and Miss Wilson. A special P. T. A. judging committee will be made up of Mrs. Earl Moseley, Mrs. Robert Grinnel, and Mrs. Renslow Sherer.

A meeting was held last Thursday of the girls who are acting as the representatives in charge of the Washington Bicentennial tour to Washington, D. C. Two men from Chicago spoke to the group, giving full details of the trip.
