

On his consistent record of efficient public service during eight consecutive terms 16 years as State Representative

ELECT

☒ RALPH E. CHURCH

Republican Candidate for

REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS

Tenth Congressional District

Primaries April 12th

HIS NAME APPEARS LAST ON BALLOT FOR CONGRESS

Ralph E. Church of Evanston, a Chicago lawyer for twenty-two years, is one of the most widely respected men in Illinois political circles.

Elected first to the State legislature in 1916 without factional support, he has been re-elected at all successive elections with always increasing majorities.

In 1930 he received the largest vote cast in Illinois for the office of Republican State Representative.

He has been chairman of the Committee on Judicial Department and Practice and of the Elections Committee, and a ranking member of the Judiciary, Revenue and other important committees.

His legislative record shows an uncompromising battle against inefficiency and graft in government and especially against high taxes.

He single-handedly instigated the startling investigation of the Sanitary District payroll.

The Legislative Voters League in its recent report (Chicago Daily News, February 29, 1932) gave Ralph E. Church the following endorsement:

“Ending his eighth term, served the public with the same courage and fidelity that have marked his whole career as a legislator.”

“One of the ablest and most reliable members of the Assembly.”

—CHICAGO TRIBUNE EDITORIAL, FEBRUARY 24, 1932.

Elect a Representative to Congress who is “Entitled to Credit for Resisting Political Pressure and Voting on Behalf of the Taxpayers.”

—CIVIC FEDERATION OF CHICAGO.

ENTY-SEVEN

AL

& Sat. $1

45c

29c

18c

$1.10

45c

39c

ES

S

oods

et

d Park

o's

l