Arden Shore Night
Featured Here Monday

Monday evening, was designated as "Arden Shore Night" by the ten ladies who entertained fifty of the boys from Arden Shore at dinner, followed by a treat to the movies at the Alcyon theatre where they saw "Hell Divers." Each hostess entertained five boys, and those entertaining were Mesdames R. K. O'Hara, Malcolm Vail, Roger Vail, Rolland Hastings, Arthur Emerson, Edward Roach, Paul Melody, George Childs, Renslow Sherer and Thomas Creigh.

So much interest was shown in the affair last year, that it has been decided to make it an annual event.

Such a volume of information was furnished the Lake County League of Women Voters through its candidates' questionnaire that local papers could not afford the space required to print it.

The county affairs committee has assembled the answers in an orderly way and with the aid of the civic chairman of the Highland Park League, Mrs. A. O. Mason Jr. is presenting them verbatim to the several leagues and women's clubs of Lake county. These records are kept on file until after the primary election on Tuesday, April 12, and are for the use of any group or individual who desires the information they contain.

There are 27 candidates running for the following county offices: state's attorney, auditor, recorder, clerk of the circuit court, coroner, and surveyor.

Only five of the 26 committeemen who are competing for office in the 12 precincts of Deerfield township sent replies in to the league's questionnaire.

MANY GOLFERS PLAY AT SUNSET VALLEY

Enjoy First Golf of Season on Saturday and Sunday; Some of the Players

Play at the Sunset Valley Golf club opened last Saturday, and on the two days of the week-end many of the enthusiastic golfers of Highland Park were on the course. Twenty golfers were out for Saturday afternoon play to find the greens in wonderful condition, although the fairways were somewhat soft. On Sunday nearly fifty played despite the cold wind.

The first player to register for this season was Emmitt Krueger, 419 McAndrews avenue, Highland Park. He was the first player off the tee for the 1932 season.

Tom Kelly, the genial professional and manager, was on hand to start the golfers from the first tee, and Earl Purdy, with his usual smile, and the same old pipe, presided at the registration desk.

First Players

The first women player of the season was Mrs. Robert E. Rosenthal, to whom goes credit for being the first player to whiff at the ball off the tee.

Three new members were among the players Saturday afternoon. They were J. A. Dutton, A. A. Glatz and A. A. Proultz, all of Chicago. President Kennicott was on hand and negotiated the course in Kennicott mid-season form.

William Chambers played the first seven and was three over par at the eighth tee. Sunday morning he had a 36 for nine holes. Fair enough, Bill.

Bob Rosenthal, vice president, insisted that he had scored a 99 Saturday. (Continued on page 40)
