

HIGHWOOD CITY CLUB SPONSORS BIG RALLY

To Be Held Tonight in Honor of Candidates of Rep. Ticket; Bartlett Theatre

One of the largest mass meetings and entertainments ever held in the community sponsored by the Highwood City club and citizens of Highwood will be held Thursday, April 7, at 8 o'clock p.m. at Bartlett's theatre, Waukegan avenue, Highwood, in honor of the following candidates: Hon. Carl R. Chindblom, U. S. Congressman; Hon. Oscar E. Carlstrom, Attorney General; Hon. Col. A. V. Smith, States Attorney; Hon. Richard J. Lyons, States Representative; Hon. Ray Paddock, State Senator.

Chindblom Well Known

Hon. Carl R. Chindblom, is well known and the Highwood City club is proud to endorse his candidacy for renomination in the Republican Primary on April 12, 1932 in Congress for the 10th District of Illinois.

The Hon. U. S. Congressman Carl R. Chindblom's services in Congress are well known. His legislative work and the interest shown of his constituents are always supreme, and in relation with the Federal Government. Congressman Chindblom has conscientiously and industriously.

(Continued on page 46)

Plan Card Party to Be Held Apr. 15

The P. T. A. of the Green Bay road school is planning a card party to be held at 8 p.m. on Friday, April 15. The purpose of this affair is to provide a Jungle Jim for the school, and it is hoped that all parents, teachers and friends, of the school will save this date and help the good cause by attending the party. The admission price is very reasonable and will include refreshments.

Fritz Bahr Winner of Ten Show Prizes

Fritz Bahr, well known local florist and operator of extensive greenhouses, was awarded ten prizes at the Chicago Garden and Flower show, held at the Navy pier April 1 to 9. Mr. Bahr's success is notable in that out of eleven entries he won ten prizes. His greenhouses are open to visitors and the public is invited to see the gorgeous plants in bloom therein.

Major Schroeder Goes to Natl. Aircraft Show

Major R. W. Schroeder, president of Sky Harbor Flying club will fly from Chicago Tuesday to visit the National Aircraft Show which opens in Detroit Saturday night.

The purpose of the trip is to inspect new flying equipment for the use of the club in the next year.

The major will be accompanied by H. Haller Murphy, secretary of the club.

School Elections Are To Be Held Saturday, April 9th; Candidates

The annual school election of School District No. 107, will be held Saturday, April 9, at the Elm Place school, between the hours of two and five p.m.

Mrs. Frances Creigh and Dr. Gatewood, members of the Board of Education whose terms expire have consented to become candidates for re-election for the full term of three years. Mr. Howell Murray, whose term as president also expires at this time, will be a candidate for re-election for the president of the board, for a period of one year, the term of this office.

Although no other candidates have filed petitions, a large number of votes are expected to be cast for these members who have served the district so well during the past.

In District 108

School election in District 108 will be held Saturday afternoon, April 9, from 2 to 5 o'clock. Candidates are: Robert L. Grinnell for president of the board, and Delmer M. Blasier and George W. Carr for members of the board for 3 years. Two are to be elected. A good vote is expected.

High School Election

Annual school election for member of the board of the Deerfield-Shields high school will be held Saturday afternoon, April 9. George T. Rogers, member of the board for several terms, is candidate for re-election. Polls will be open in Highland Park, at the school; in the village halls at Deerfield and Highwood and city hall at Lake Forest from 2 to 5 p.m.

Lincoln School P.T.A. Postpones Meeting

On account of spring vacation, the scheduled April meeting of the Lincoln school P. T. A. has been postponed one week, which brings the meeting date on Wednesday afternoon April 13 at 3 o'clock in the school auditorium.

The annual P. T. A. card party is being planned for Wednesday afternoon, April 20.

Ravinia Reading Club Holds Fine Meeting

Mesdames M. Gordan Grahame and Eldon Gleason entertained the Ravinia Reading club at the former's home on Oakmont road last Monday.

The next meeting of the club will be held Monday afternoon, April 18, at the home of Mrs. Henry Holmgren, 1014 S. Linden avenue with Mrs. Arthur Hagener assisting.

Open New Grocery at No. 10 N. Second Street

Koller Brothers, well known Highland Park residents, are opening a new "Shield of Quality" grocery at 10 North Second street. They will handle Nonesuch products and a complete line of groceries, canned goods, meats and other foods and promise first class goods and prompt and efficient service. Door prizes and other features will mark the opening day.

Ping Pong Players of North Shore to Take Part in Natl. Tourney

Six members of the Interfraternity club Ping Pong team are leaving for New York April 13 to compete in the Second Annual National Ping Pong Championship to be played April 15 and 16 in the Grand ball room of the new Waldorf Astoria hotel. No less than four members of this championship team make their homes along the north shore. They are: Coleman Clark of Glencoe, Western Champion 1931 and 1932; Robert E. Clark, of Highland Park-Chicago Doubles champion with his brother Coleman; D. A. Kittermaster, Highland Park champion, and George Littell of Evanston.

It is also likely that Bob Robinson, ace of the Wilmette team, and Rev. Anthony, Winnetka champion will make the pilgrimage. This strong contingent, which testifies to the seriousness with which the game is taken by devotees of the north shore suburbs, is bound to make an impressive showing. Turn your radio on Saturday night April 16 at 11 p.m. Eastern Standard Time and you will hear the final broadcast over a nation-wide radio hook-up.

Garment Sale Held by Social Service Largely Attended

The sale of children's garments which was held on Thursday and Friday of last week at the Social Service was very well attended. About 150 people availed themselves of the opportunity to place orders for the attractive little dresses and sun suits, and over $500 in cash sales and orders was taken in.

The models exhibited were made in the homes of the women who are registered at the Social Service for sewing and have been unable to obtain sufficient work because of the large number registered and the scarcity of funds. The sewing will be continued in their homes.

Tea was served on Thursday and Friday afternoons with Miss Adele Everett, Mrs. R. E. Wood, Mrs. Riecke and Mrs. Pearce pouring.

Anyone interested in ordering any of the dresses, rompers, sun suits or play overalls that were exhibited last week can do so by getting in touch with the Social Service, H.P. 4000.

Holy Name Society to Meet Tonight

The Holy Name society of St. James church, Highwood are meeting tonight at St. James parish hall at eight o'clock. This is the first meeting of the society in over a month, and several important matters are to be brought up for discussion. Refreshments will be served after the meeting. Members are urged to attend.

Dance at Y. W. C. A.

The Friendship club of the Y. W. C. A. is sponsoring a dance to be held in the assembly hall on Thursday evening of April 14. Tickets may be purchased from club members or at the door.

VILLAGE VARIETIES AT RAVINIA SOON

Annual Affair in Preparation; Many Features Promised; Local Sketches

Plans for the 1932 Village Varieties to be given at the Ravinia Village house soon, have all been completed and the work of casting and directing of the various parts of the show, is going rapidly forward.

James Cady Ewell, production chairman, announces that some very clever "skits" written by local writers have been submitted and accepted and are being co-ordinated by a unique "vehicle" written by Mr. Orrin McCarison.

Among those who have been writing these local original sketches are: W. R. Marvin, R. L. Grinnell, and H. L. Hammer. Local amateur artists are being cast for the parts.

Ravinia Players

The Ravinia Players also, are to have an important part in the production and will re-produce the one act play which won for them the awards in the First Annual Community One Act Play Contest sponsored by Community Service of Highland Park Inc.

From all reports this is to be an exceptionally good show and one no one can afford to miss. The dates are Friday and Saturday, April 29, 30, at the Ravinia Village house. The benefit is for the Ravinia Village House Maintenance Fund.

Edwin C. Jones chairman of the Executive committee of the production announces the following:

Appointments in connection with the business management of the production: Secretary - treasurer, Mrs. T. L. Fischer; advertising, W. H. Pohrte; publicity, Mrs. E. C. Jones; ticket sales, Mrs. M. G. Armstrong; chairman, Mrs. A. B. Tanner; Mrs. E. E. Leonard, Mrs. S. L. Schwarz and Mrs. H. R. Will.

Haak's Auto Supply Co. To Aid Unemployed

Mr. Haak of the Haak's Auto Supply Co. of Highland Park announced today the new Firestone Job Aid Plan for the unemployed, whereby Service Books redeemable at all Firestone stations are to be put on sale by the unemployed.

The books according to Mr. Haak, are in reality coupons for trade and sell for 25c. The man selling them retains the 25c for himself, and the purchaser gets the 25c back on the first purchase at Haak's Auto Supply Co.

Several hundred men will be put to work at once, it is planned, making a house-to-house canvass and disposing of the books, thus putting the money immediately into the hands of the unemployed.

Many Attend Last Dance of Season

The spring dinner dance of the Ravinia Woman's club which marked the final dance of the season was a most successful affair. About one hundred and forty guests attended the affair. Decorations were in green and white. Music was furnished by Bert Rannels orchestra.

ABANDON OPERA

Eckstein Ann
sion Because Condition

In Highland Park and through communities the Louis Eckstein is that the Ravinia year is to be received with wide artistic loss, a heard expressed expectations of ous outdoor oper may be realized.

Economic reasons for discontinuing atic programs w be highly popular ers of the north During its twi ty, the Ravinia financed largely he estimated las nancial output h proximately $1, riod.

Resume O Although clos Eckstein assure schedule is to be summer and th the north shore than ever in 19 Stating reason the 1932 season "One inactive stroy Ravinia's abroad.

Hopes "I believe tha of the Century tion, it will be at Ravinia a se artistic distinct tract not only r and the north s lovers from all who may be wit is my hope and that I shall be

Easter Egg Be S

The Lions clu co-operating w ice, are happy hundreds of ch munity that th which was post weather conditi after the close tion and that garding the h through the sc

Community Leagu

Harry L. All tion, is sending bers of basebal terested in fo in the commu league this ye meeting in the Shop, Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

Eight teams this league, w senior member be organized t ers in the com also play a re