Vol. 21 April 7, 1932 No. 6

Local and Personal of Highland Park

Baroness Cecelia von Schilling, of Copenhagen, Denmark, whose father was Baron von Schilling, Russian Consul in Chicago in 1912, is the distinguished guest of Mrs. Henry E. Mason of Central avenue. The young lady's mother was formerly Ethel Green of Louisville, Ky., and was a schoolmate of Mrs. Mason's. Considerable entertaining has been done for her since her arrival here from Grosse Pointe, Mich., where she was the guest of the former Danish Minister from the states. On Sunday afternoon the Mason's entertained at tea for her. Tuesday Mrs. Hibbard of Winnetka entertained at a sight-seeing tour to the Oriental institute and the stock yards, yesterday Miss Anne Mason of Winnetka entertained at luncheon, followed by a trip to see the World's Fair buildings, and tonight Mrs. Arnold Mason of Evanston is entertaining at dinner. She is to remain in Highland Park about two weeks.

One of the loveliest affairs of the season, was the Sunday evening buffet supper party, given last Sunday, when Mr. John H. Harmon announced the engagement of his daughter Ethel D'Arcy Harmon to Edmund Farland Gifford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carleton Gifford of this city. Several of the girls who "came out" the same season as Miss Harmon a few years ago, and assisted at the tea the Harmon's gave for their daughter, were out for the engagement party with their husbands, for most of them have progressed from debutantes to brides in a singularly short time. Miss Harmon is a graduate of Miss Wheeler's school in Providence and she had a year of study abroad. She has been an active member of the Service club and the Junior league. Mr. Gifford graduated from the college of engineering at the University of Illinois where he was a Phi Delta Theta and a member of Theta Tau Engineering society. No date has been set for the wedding as yet. Mr. Frank Gardner, who is a stu-
