

DEERFIELD LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O'Connor announce the birth of a son on Saturday, April 2, at the Alice Home hospital in Lake Forest. This is the third grandchild of Supervisor James O'Connor.

Rev. E. J. Brusco and Mr. John Vetter will attend the Evangelical conference at Geneseo on the week of April 12. Bishop Sieger of Le Mars, Iowa, has promised to give the Au Plaine cemetery question his special attention.

Rev. Mr. Gutnecht of the University of Chicago will occupy the pulpit of the Bethlehem Evangelical church on Sunday, April 19, while Rev. Brusco is attending the Geneseo conference. His sermon will be "The Evils of Modernity."

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Harder announce the birth of a daughter, Marjory Ann, on Friday, April 1, at the Highland Park hospital. The Harders reside in Mrs. Margaret Freese's residence on Deerfield avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Taylor were pleasantly surprised by forty guests from Chicago, Long Lake and Deerfield on Tuesday evening, March 29, at their home on Hazel avenue. The occasion was in celebration of the Taylor's twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. During the merry festivities, the guests, presented them with a purse of twenty-five silver dollars and a beautiful silver bread tray.

Wallace Reichelt spent the week-end with Erward Amaker of Hinsdale, Ill.

Marilyn Gagne of Chicago spent the week-end with her little brother, Jack, at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Plagge. Marilyn lives with her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Otto Fromm, in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Getty were hosts to a group of friends on Saturday evening at their home on Westgate road, following the Eastern Star party at the Deerfield school.

Mrs. B. H. Kress, Mrs. Alex Willman, Mrs. Grace Cottrell, Mrs. Harold Youngs, and daughter, Joan, spent Friday in Milwaukee. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kress; at the Cahill home, and with other friends.

Mrs. Max Winters who has been in the Presbyterian hospital, Chicago, under observation, for three weeks, was operated upon on Saturday.

Mrs. Margaret Freese suffered a heart attack on Saturday. Mrs. Freeze celebrated her 84th birthday anniversary in January.

Mrs. Leslie Behrens and Mrs. James Mailfald are acting as hostesses at a meeting of the mothers' club at the Wilmot school on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Brand, Jean and Junior Brand, are spending this week at their summer home at White Lake, Mich.

Mrs. May Entors of Great Falls, Montana, who has been visiting relatives in Chicago and Wheeling, is again at the home of her brother, Mr. George Stanger of Forest avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seago of Sunset court entertained out-of-town guests at dinner on Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. John Dow and family of Barrington moved to Zion this week. The Dow family lived in Deerfield before moving to Barrington last year.

E. L. Vineyard spent Friday in Ela Center.

Mrs. Grace Cottrell will entertain her sewing club next Thursday afternoon at her home on Todd court.

A bakery sale is being sponsored by the P. T. A. on April 15, at the close of the April meeting at the Deerfield Grammar school.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miseles (Pearl Peterson) have moved from Chicago and are residing with Mrs. Miseles' mother, Mrs. Frank Peterson.

The Sunshine group met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. T. Gilfillan of Hazel avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stadler entertained their Wednesday evening bridge club this week.

Miss Jane Wood is attending Moser business college in Chicago.

Miss Jane Ashman spent the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ashman. Jane attends Carlton college in Northfield, Minn.

Miss Ruth Jackson has issued invitations for a party on Saturday evening at her home on Warrington road.

The Deerfield Bannockburn Boy Scout hobby show and public exhibition will be held Friday (tomorrow) evening at the Deerfield Grammar school.

Beginning April 1 some of the street lights in the business section have been turned off, as a matter of economy by the village board. It is hoped that they will be regulated so that each alternate light is off, instead of several in a row.

Friday (tomorrow) morning, at 10:30, the next of the series of movies in the visual education program of the Deerfield Grammar school will be shown in the school gymnasium. The title is "Working for Dear Life." The admission is free and Principal Carl E. Bates cordially invites the parents to attend these morning instructive motion pictures.

The Tuesday evening sewing club will meet next week at the home of Mrs. Carl Stadler of Orchard lane.

Carl Knigge has been ill with a throat infection this past week. His brother-in-law, Charles Hatch, has been taking his place.

The nominating committee of the Deerfield Parent-Teacher association has prepared a ticket for the approval of the Grammar school P. T. A. at its April meeting. The president and treasurer are to be elected this year, with the same vice president and secretary remaining for another year. Each group holds its officers for two successive terms. The committee appointed by Mrs. C. E. Piper, retiring president, is as follows: Mrs. Alex Willman, Mrs. Harry Muhlke, and Mrs. Ray D. Reeds.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ashman and children are taking an extended automobile trip through New York.

Mrs. A. J. Johnson has returned home from a several weeks' visit with her sister in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Fredericks and family spent Sunday with the Joseph Shulder family at Lily Lake. The Sholders moved Saturday from Chicago to their summer home on Lily Lake.

Mrs. Fred LaBahn attended the birthday party of her niece, Miss Margaret Doherty, of Chicago, on Wednesday.

Dorcas Circle Four met last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. William Neville. Mrs. William Wing was appointed chairman of the Circle, to succeed Mrs. Earl Varner, who did not wish to accept the office for another year. Mrs. Christ Mentzer was appointed assistant chairman and treasurer. Circle Four again received the banner for the greatest amount of work. This group of twelve active workers earned over $70 just among themselves. The April meeting will be a pot luck luncheon at the home of Mrs. William Wing of Osterman avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Colin Sanborn of Highland Park have leased the Monroe McKillip home on Brier Hill road and are moving to Deerfield the fifteenth of April.

Leslie Christensen was host at dinner on Wednesday evening, April 6, in honor of his 18th birthday anniversary. The party, which was a complete surprise, was arranged by his mother, Mrs. C. M. Christensen.

Mrs. A. H. Muhlke returned Sunday from Chicago, where she spent the week with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Vetter.

Mrs. Fred Moxey and Mrs. Edgar McShane of Waukegan were the luncheon guests of Mrs. Arthur Cashmore of Sunset court, Friday.

Miss Charlotte Brand and her niece, Miss Lois Clark, with two of the Deerfield teachers, Misses Mabel Ablard and Grace Ronningen, left Monday with a group from Highland Park on a conducted tour with Mrs. Hutton, through Washington, D.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frey and two children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Frey of McHenry. Mrs. Frey's mother returned to Deerfield with them for a several days' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haggie and son, Howard, were dinner guests on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kersten, Sr., at Evanston.

Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Brusco were dinner guests Monday at the home of Mrs. Sophia Brusco of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Frost and two sons left Saturday for a week's visit in Missouri. Leslie Stryker has charge of the Frost news store in the daytime and Earl Frost is there evenings.

Mrs. John Werhane of Northbrook visited Mrs. J. C. Huehl on Tuesday.

Friends of the Boy Scouts are reminded of the annual hobby show to be held in the Deerfield Grammar school on Friday evening, April 8th.

Mrs. Irving Brand was hostess at luncheon last Monday at her home on Deerfield avenue.

Miss Stella Spriggs left Sunday evening for a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Spriggs in Mount Gilead, Ohio, before her training at the Prebyterian hospital at Chicago.

Deerfield members of the Children of the American Revolution will attend the first birthday anniversary of the organization of the Highland Park chapter on Saturday, April 9, at 7 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Sewall Truax.

Mrs. George Fitzpatrick and son, Robert, of Lake Geneva, Wis., have been guests at the home of Mrs. Fitzpatrick's brother, Dr. C. J. Davis, this past week.

Master William North, who has been visiting his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Johnson, of Brier Hill road, this past week, has returned to his home in East Lansing, Michigan. He was accompanied by his grandmother, who had made a prolonged visit with her son and daughter-in-law, the Robert Johnsons.

Mrs. M. O. Hopkins entertained at luncheon on Friday at her home on Berkley court.

Regardless of holidays, each Monday continues to be "sandwich day" for the three schools of Wilmot, Bannockburn and Deerfield. The supply of sandwiches received this past Monday was way below expectation. The committee in charge will appreciate the co-operation of the three communities. There will be no school on Monday, April 19, but parents are urged to send sandwiches the same as usual. Sandwiches must reach the Deerfield school before nine each Monday morning, to be sent to the Northwestern settlement house.

Miss Irene Mitchell, daughter of the Albert Mitchells of the Rustic kennels, rode in the horse show at the stock yards on April 1, 2 and 3. She won honors in the 4 foot 6 jumping class riding "Al Hayjer."

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Reeds had as their guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Reeds and son, Franklin, of Joliet, and Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Hutchison and little daughter, Louise Ann, of Chicago. Covers were laid for eleven at dinner and for fifteen at supper.

Mrs. Albert Hagi entertained her Deerfield club at luncheon on Wednesday at her home in Libertyville.

Mrs. Ingram Rasmussen entertained a foursome at luncheon and bridge on Friday, at her home on Westgate road.

Mrs. Elmer Clavey is entertaining her sewing club on Thursday afternoon (today) at her home on West Deerfield road.

Mrs. Carl T. Anderson has issued invitations for a luncheon bridge party on Friday at her home on Chestnut street.

Mrs. Kenneth Hoover is recovering from her recent illness.

Mrs. S. P. Hutchison, Mrs. R. D. Reeds and sons were luncheon guests Wednesday at the home of Mrs. R. V. Hutchison of Chicago.

Mrs. S. M. Gooder is entertaining her luncheon bridge club on Friday at her home on Deerfield avenue.